Two Women Beaten; Seven Win. The only two women candidates who had opposition both suffered defeat-Miss Sara M. Hopkins in the Second ward and Mrs. | Phi Marie Gerhardt in the Twenty-third ward. Lou Both are Democrats. Seven women, however, will have their names on the ballot at the election April 7. Six of these were unopposed, while the seventh, Mrs. B. Napieralski, was nominated by Progressives in the Twelfth ward, who wrote in her name on the ballot.

The other women nominated are: First ward-Miss Marion H. Drake, Progressive. Sixth ward-Mrs. Josephine C. Kaneko, Socialist.

Seventh ward-Mrs. Lida E. McDermut. Socialist. Twentieth ward-Mrs. Gertrude R.

Dubin, Socialist. Thirty-first ward-Mrs. Julia Agnew, Progressive, and Mrs. Maude J. Ball, Socialist.

The closest contest was in the Fourteenth ward, where W. R. Nealeigh, backed by Billy" Gailing, beat the Progressive or Sim ganization candidate, C. G. Dixon, by only three votes. A contest is expected to follow. In the Twenty-third ward, the home of Mayor Harrison, the H.-H. candidate, Adolph D. Weiner, was the victor by a margin of only twenty-three votes. One of these was cast by Mrs. Harrison. The mayor's illness kept him at home.

Effort to Beat Miss Drake Fails. An effort to sidetrack Miss Marion Drake, Daniel J. Progressive candidate in the First ward, failed. Friends of Karl N. Wehle, whose petition was knocked out a few days ago, tried | O. E. W to nominate him by writing in his name, but | William were only able to muster twenty-one votes. against 262 cast for Miss Drake. Of Wehle's | Joel F. supporters fourteen were women.

The Second ward Democratic contest was between Thomas T. Hoyne, a brother of the state's attorney, and Miss Hopkins. Hoyne won by 311 votes. On the Republican side Ald. Norris was successful in a close race with William R. Cowan, a negro.

The Third ward Democratic race proved a walkaway for Jacob Lindheimer, who was supported by all factions of his party against Daniel J. Fitzpatrick. Former Ald. William John A. J. Pringle won the Republican nomination over O. E. Weber, while Joel F. Longenecker captured the Progressive title from William J. Kotzenberg.

Martin Beaten in Fifth. The Fifth ward witnessed the defeat of Ald. Charles Martin by 595 votes. Thomas A. Doyle was the victor. He was backed by a combination of forces, made up largely of the younger men of the ward who resented Martin's long hold on the office.

Martin had been vigorously opposed by the M. V. L. The mention of his name in connection with a stock certificate of the Chicago Reduction company also figured in his retirement. Both men and women of the ward favored Doyle over Martin, the returns dis- John F. Kruger...... 14

M. M. Marks won the Democratic nominataion in the Sixth ward. He defeated Henry A. De Masi and Ben K. Korn. This is State's Attorney Hoyne's ward. De Masi was reported to have been identified with the H.-H. faction, with which Hoyne is closely allied. Ald. Willis O. Nance, strongly indorsed by the M. V. L., easily won the Republican nomination from R. R. Bowen.

Bamrick Wins in Seventh.

R. P. Bamrick, who was heralded as opposéd to the H.-H element, was the Demoatic winner in the Seventh over John H. Haskell, listed as the Harrison choice, and John C. Behrer, John F. RTIES HELP LYNCH ALD. JAS. DONAHOE.

Ward Candidate of Sulig Gets Larger Woman Vote than Opponent.

Tango parties are credited with materially aiding Thomas J. Lynch to gain the Demoocratic nomination in the Thirty-fifth ward over Ald. James Donahoe.

Lynch was entered by the Sullivan wing. His backers decided they must have the women voters. "I can tango a little," said Lynch to his backers. "A winning idea," commented another conferee.

"We will have a little party at my house irst to try it out," said Frank Ryan. "I have a phonograph and we will see whether any one in the neighborhood wants to learn the tango.'

The party was held. It was a success Others were held. Lynch got 50 per cent larger woman vote than Donahoe.

The economy of using Devoe Leadand-Zinc paint is in results as well as price.

You need fewer gallons than usual; that means less cost for paint—less cost for painter. But it means a better job; the paint covers better and lasts longer. Devoe Leadand-Zinc Paint will outlast ordinary paint about three to one as a rule.

Get it for your next job. Have your painter use it. At dealers or
