

BARON VON STEUBEN, by Gerlando Marsolia, after Robert Edge Pine.

HENRY KNOX, by Charles Willson Peale, from Independence Hall, Philadelphia.

COUNT DE GRASSE, from a lithograph by Gregoire et Deneux, Paris, reproduced by courtesy of Robert Fridenberg, Inc., New York City.

LIGHT-HORSE HARRY LEE, by Benjamin West, after Gilbert Stuart, from the Lee Mansion, Arlington, Va.

Elsewhere in today's Tribune, James O'Donnell Bennett describes the careers of these heroes. Next week on this page will be presented four more portraits of army leaders of the revolution.
