"This syrup makes breakfast seem like a birthday party"

LOG CABIN is so matchlessly flavorful that more people buy it than any other maple-blended syrup in the world.

What makes Log Cabin such a nation-wide favorite?

It's the second maple.

Log Cabin Syrup contains not only rich Vermont maple, not only delectable cane from southern lands, but another wonderfully mellow maple ripened in the towering trees of the North Woods.

Just try Log Cabin Syrup on waffles or pancakes tomorrow, and see how much better it makes them taste.
