SMOKE SCREEN—Pursuit planes are seen as they laid down a protective cloud of smoke, screening the fleet during joint maneuvers of the United States army and navy off Hawaii. In this photograph they appear to be flying so low as barely to clear the waves of the Pacific. (Associated Press photo.)
