SUIT TO DISSOLVE HARVESTER TRUST FILED IN ST. PAUL

Government Asks Courts to Prevent Further Interstate Trade by Company.

MANY CHARGES SET FORTH

Restraint of Trade and Monopoly Among Things Alleged by Federal Counsel.

DENIAL BY CYRUS M'CORMICK

St. Paul, Minn., April 30.—By filing a petition in equity in the federal district court here, the government today instituted a suit against the International Harvester company under the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The government asks: That the $140,000,000 corporation be dissolved on the ground that it is a monopoly in restraint of trade.

That injunctions be issued to bar from interstate commerce the products of the International Harvester company or of the International Harvester Company of America, its selling agency.

That receivers be appointed to take charge of the property and wind up the business of the defendant, if the court finds such action compatible with public interest.

Named as Defendants. The following corporations and individuals are mentioned as defendants in the petition: International Harvester Company of America.

Charges by Government. The chief charges by the government against the Harvester company are: That the company, in monopolizing the manufacture and sale of harvesting machinery, has advanced prices to the grave injury of the farmer and the general public.

TWO THIEVES MAKE THEIR ESCAPE

Two efficient motorcycle policemen yesterday put a sudden damper on the ambitions of a gang of automobile bandits that apparently had started out to emulate in Chicago the series of crimes recently committed by the Apaches of Paris.

Wild Chase Through Streets. The men who made the arrest, Detectives Dubach and Weber, had, in common with other members of the department, been ordered to look out for an automobile of a certain description in which it was known the auto bandits had fled from the scene of their crime.

Policeman Makes Thrilling Leap. Weber, who had won the sobriquet of "Motor Cycle Mike" of the police department, saw he was in a tight place, and instead of turning in with the auto kept straight ahead.

Durbach Also Leaps Into Car. With the assistance of Durbach, who had also leaped from his motorcycle into the car, Weber began slugging the blood that flowed from the unconscious chauffeur's scalp wound.

Starts with Holdup at 'L' Station. The victim of this crime was L. E. Steinbach, who is employed by the Schulz Baking company as cashier at the company's branch at 139 West Thirty-fifth street.

Mendel's Story of the Crime. Mendel's story of the part he played in the robbery is as follows: "I was called by two parties from the Newberry auto garage to Eighteenth and Paulina streets at 9:07 a. m. They directed me to go south on Ashland avenue to Twenty-second street and east on Twenty-second to Halsted street. I went to Halsted and Thirty-fifth streets and east to Dearborn street. One of them directed me to go to Thirty-fifth and Dearborn. One of them told

ROOSEVELT GETS 24 BAY STATE DELEGATES

TAFT WINS 10; TWO IN DOUBT

Incomplete Returns Indicate Roosevelt Victory in Mass.

Clark Runs Away from Rivals in Voting by Democrats.

CRANE MACHINE HARD HIT

Boston, Mass., April 30.—[Special.]—The statewide primaries in Massachusetts today resulted in the selection of eight delegates at large pledged to Theodore Roosevelt for the Republican presidential nomination and in Roosevelt's victory over Taft in a majority of the fourteen congressional districts, each of which sends two delegates to Chicago to the national convention.

Of the district delegates Roosevelt appears to have won eight and Taft five. If the latter returns bear out these indications, the results will be: Roosevelt, at large, 8; Roosevelt, district, 16; Taft, district, 10; In doubt, district, 2.

Taft Ahead of Delegation. The vote in the state for President Taft was substantially larger than the vote for the Taft delegates, the list of eight being headed by Senator W. Murray Crane. The vote direct on Taft-Roosevelt is an expression of sentiment; the vote for the delegate tickets is the deciding one.

Figures for the State. Boston's ballots are all counted. Including the Boston vote, the returns from 711 out of 1,080 election precincts in the whole state give for Republican preference: Taft, 45,239; Roosevelt, 45,836; La Follette, 1,130.

It is expected that the returns from the other half of the state's voting precincts—the country districts and the mill towns will give Co. Roosevelt a lead in the sentiment vote commensurate with his present lead in the vote on delegates.

Clark 2 to 1 Victor. Speaker Champ Clark has won the state Democratic preference contest by more than a two to one vote over Woodrow Wilson. In 550 precincts out of 1,080 in the state the vote is: For Clark, 19,706; For Wilson, 8,597.

Probable Results by Districts. The early returns indicated the following results on district delegates: FIRST—Carried by Taft. This district constitutes the entire western end of the state and includes the Berkshire region. The city of Holyoke is included. Senator W. Murray Crane lives in this district.

SECOND—Probably carried by Taft. This district lies directly east of First district; contains city of Springfield; towns of Chocoma, Palmer, Amherst, Northampton, and Hadley.

THIRD—Probably carried by Roosevelt; includes the city of Worcester and the towns of Auburn, Shrewsbury, Southbridge, Uxbridge, Sutton, West Boylston, Westboro, and others.

FOURTH—Carried by Roosevelt; includes Middlesex and part of Worcester county. In this district are the cities of Marlborough, Waltham, and Fitchburg.

FIFTH—Roosevelt leading; includes cities of Lawrence and Lowell, and among others the towns of Andover, Lynnfield, Carlisle, Burlington, Chelmsford, Reading, Dunstable.

SIXTH—Carried by Roosevelt almost certainly. Includes Cape Ann and north shore region, including Gloucester, Salem, New-buryport, Beverly, Haverhill, Amesbury, Danvers, Manchester, Marblehead, Salisbury, Swampscott, and others.

SEVENTH—Carried by Roosevelt; includes cities of Lynn, Chelsea, Nahant, Revere, Malden, and Melrose, the region just to the northeast of Boston proper.

EIGHTH—Taft and Roosevelt running neck and neck. Includes Cambridge, Medford, and Somerville.

NINTH—Carried by Roosevelt; embraces parts of Boston and the suburb of Winthrop.

TENTH—Carried by Roosevelt; includes part of Boston and the cities of Quincy and Milton.

ELEVENTH—Carried by Taft; all of this district is included in the city of Boston.

TWELFTH—Carried by Taft; embracing the Newton, Brookline, Wellesley, Dedham, Dover, North Attleboro, and Hyde Park.

THIRTEENTH—Probably carried by Roosevelt; includes Fall River and New Bedford, also the towns of Swanses, Westport, Berkley, Fairhaven, and Somerset.

Third district, 13 out of 67 precincts: Taft delegates, 754; Roosevelt delegates, 641.

Fourth district, 10 out of 72 precincts: Roosevelt delegates, 2,091; Taft delegates, 1,297.

Fifth district, twenty-three out of sixty-three precincts: Roosevelt delegates, 1,980; Taft, 875.

Sixth district, twenty-one out of sixty-five precincts: Roosevelt, 2,333; Taft, 2,317.

Seventh district, twenty-three out of seventy-two precincts: Roosevelt delegates, 2,827; Taft delegates, 2,592.

Eighth district, seven out of seventy-one precincts: Taft delegates, 327; Roosevelt delegates, 327.

Ninth district, eighty-two out of eighty-six precincts: Roosevelt delegates, 1,400; Taft delegates, 1,357.

Tenth district, sixty-seven out of eighty precincts: Taft delegates, 3,562; Roosevelt delegates, 3,412.

Eleventh district, complete: Taft delegates, 6,168; Roosevelt delegates, 4,986.

Twelfth district, nine out of sixty-one precincts: Taft delegates, 601; Roosevelt delegates, 578.

Thirteenth district, thirty-two out of ninety-four precincts: Roosevelt delegates, 1,757; Taft delegates, 1,133.

Result in Smaller Cities. The vote of various cities outside of Boston was variable as between the president and Mr. Roosevelt.

Senator La Follette had only 249 votes in the city. Speaker Clark was accorded a great majority over Woodrow Wilson for popular Democratic support, as indicated in the vote: Clark, 14,300; Wilson, 5,879.

The returns, though not fully tabulated by districts, indicate that Col. Roosevelt has won two of the three sets of district delegates—from the Ninth and Tenth—and that Mr. Taft has carried the Eleventh district.

The "Back Bay" silk stockings of Ward 11 saved the city for the president, his majority in that ward being 832, which is larger than his majority in the city as a whole.

Partial Figures on Delegates. Partial returns from all of the fourteen Massachusetts congressional districts for Republican district delegates were as follows: First district, 39 out of 102 precincts: Taft delegates, 1,882; Roosevelt delegates, 471.
