

MAKING A GOAL in a soccer game in London.
(Acme photo.)

FOR THE FIRST TIME since the world war German troops march with full pack in a drill at the Berlin tiergarten sportplatz.
(Acme photo.)

A BRAVE SPARROW filches a bite of lunch from the lion in the London zoo.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service photo.)

"A FULL HOUSE."
(Photo by James Ralph Starr, Kenilworth, Ill.)

THE ALPS MOVE RIGHT INTO YOUR KITCHEN
when you taste this
GORGEOUS SWISS CHEESE

THEY USED to say that only a Swiss could make Swiss Cheese. But Borden has disproved that. Borden has actually out-Swissed the Swiss. Borden has brought you the grandest Swiss Cheese that ever made an appetite glow with joy. And not because we say so either. Hundreds of people tasted both this cheese and imported Swiss without knowing which was which—and the great majority of them voted for Borden's Swiss.

Just get a package at your grocer's—and taste it. Then try to stop eating. You'll keep right on and on. For here is glorious Alpine flavor—here is richness—here is sheer mellow goodness. And the more of Borden's Swiss you use, the more economical you'll find it is. There is no waste. There is no rind. It is easy—very easy—on your pocketbook. The Borden Sales Company, Inc. 315 North Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

Borden's Swiss
ONE OF BORDEN'S FINE CHEESES