THEY DON'T HANG THEIR CLOTHES ON A HICKORY LIMB at Haviz, Hungary, but, fully dressed, even to the head shawls, take their plunges in the town pool. (Wide World photo.)

SHORTS FOR SPECTATORS?—Miss Dora Belle Winship and Miss Mary Crosby introduced this mode of shorts and striped shirts as spectator sports costumes at a Pacific coast golf tournament. The clubs apparently are carried in place of sticks. (Acme photo.)

REFUELING — The fuel tanks of the battleship Arizona are filled from the navy tanker Cuyama in Los Angeles harbor. As seen from aloft the huge battleship and smaller tanker look like tiny, intricately made mechanical toys.

You'll walk as if you were twenty pounds lighter in these Walk-Overs with the "Main Spring Arch" built in. Designed like the arch of your own foot, it balances your weight as Nature intended. Here's assurance of foot health—and styles that are themselves achievements of fashion. The "Cygnet" tie, above, comes in beige, blue, black, white, $9 and brown. Modestly priced.
