

BRITISH SUBJECTS HAIL KING AND QUEEN IN SILVER JUBILEE

ENGLAND'S KING AND QUEEN DRIVE THROUGH CHEERING THROGS TO THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT ST. PAUL'S—Spectators use periscopes and mirrors to view the royal jubilee spectacle.

GATE CRASHER—"Jimmie," a clergyman's mongrel dog, "leads" the jubilee procession.

THE LORD MAYOR OF LONDON SURRENDERS THE SYMBOLIC SWORD—King George receiving emblem of city's independence from Sir Stephen Killik.

IN ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL—King George and Queen Mary standing in front of their thrones. Behind them, members of the royal family.

WALLS OF HUMANITY—Spectators crowd every available roof and window as Britain's sovereigns drive to St. Paul's.
(Acme photos.)