

THE HERO OF THE AGE—Capt. Charles A. Lindbergh—"Lucky!" To the left, for the sake of the record, we picture the boy conqueror of the air whose bold spirit shot through the sky on the first unbroken New York-to-Paris flight, while two worlds gasped in tremulous, anxious awe that flamed into delirious acclaim. Above, the plane in which the dauntless youth, alone, winged his way over land and sea. (Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

NORTHWESTERN'S QUEEN OF MAY reigns over Spring day exercises on the Evanston campus. Miss Evelyn Patterson of 1431 Catalpa avenue, she is, a member of Chi Omega sorority and a junior in the school of speech. (Tribune photograph.)

OAK PARK'S MEMORIAL to the boys who gave their lives in the great war. This shrine in Forest Home cemetery of the Chicago suburb is an exact reproduction of one of the American military burial grounds overseas. It is maintained by Oak Park post No. 15 of the American Legion. (Tribune photograph.)
