INDIANA JOINS IN TRIBUTE AT CENTENARY FETE

Gov. Gates Lauds Tribune
at Banquet

Gov. Ralph F. Gates of Indiana spoke as follows at THE TRIBUNE'S Centennial banquet:

"As governor of the neighboring state of Indiana, and as one who has watched a great newspaper grow in influence and public service, I am pleased to participate in observance of the 100th anniversary of the founding of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

"I am pleased, too, to pay tribute to its owner and publisher—one of the most colorful and outstanding newspaper executives in the United States, and a truly great leader of our nation. I am proud to number among my friends Col. Robert R. McCormick.

Cites Stupendous Growth
"Indiana had attained only 30 years of statehood when THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE published its first edition. Many Hoosier cities were as yet undreamed-of—much of the Indiana land still uninhabited. The people of Indiana have had an opportunity to see THE TRIBUNE grow from a small newspaper to the largest in the world, a newspaper whose subscribers constitute a veritable metropolitan city. In fact, if all of its readers were gathered into one municipal unit, they would make up the population of the second largest city in the world.

"THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE always has been our morning paper. Our day would be incomplete without the opportunity of reading the news and special features of a most capable editorial staff, the forthright editorials on subjects of direct interest to every one, and the advertising copy of some of the outstanding businesses and institutions in the world.

Great by All Tests
"By all the tests and standards by which a newspaper is judged, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE is a great newspaper.

"None would deny that THE TRIBUNE wields tremendous influence throughout the middle west. It is fitting that such a newspaper should be located in a section of the country where the heart of America beats most strongly and most faithfully.

"All of us are working for an even greater America, an America where individual ingenuity, initiative, and ambition under a system of American free enterprise add to the joy and wealth of all.

"In this great purpose, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE will continue to play an important role. My heartiest congratulations to THE TRIBUNE and to Col. McCormick on this 100th anniversary of the newspaper's founding. May the first 100 years be only the beginning of a period of useful public service which will continue as long as men and newspapers exist."

VOTE TO INDICT TWO FOR THEFT FROM DEAD MAN

A true bill charging William Naughton, 24, of 753 N. Cicero av., and Charlotte Kierstein, 22, of 4932 N. Kenmore av., with forgery and a conspiracy to defraud was reported returned yesterday by the county grand jury.

The two are accused of cashing a forged check for $11,555 against the estate of Harold Batchelder, 45, a manufacturer killed in an automobile accident last Nov. 17. Assistant State's Atty. John Long said Naughton, who has a police record, went to Batchelder's hospital room after his death and posed as a stepson to steal a blank check.

He then gave the check, made out for $11,555, to Miss Kierstein, Batchelder's secretary, who cashed it against her employer's $20,000 bank account. The shortage was uncovered last March by Batchelder's divorced wife, Hazel, 4943 Kenmore av. Naughton is in the county jail serving a 90 day sentence for larceny.
