FRANCE AGREES TO CONFERENCE ON RAIL STRIKE

Utility, Subway Tie-Ups Threaten Nation

PARIS, June 9 (AP)—Premier Paul Ramadier's office, announcing the first major break in the deadlocked negotiations with French railway strikers, said tonight the premier had consented to meet a delegation of union leaders tomorrow.

New strike threats loomed, however, including a probable one day walkout Friday of Paris subway workers, who have demanded higher wages, and a possible utility strike.

Seen as Weakness

Many observers expressed the belief this amounted to evidence the union was weakening before the unpopularity of the crippling strike.

Canada Lifts Controls on All Dairy Products

OTTAWA, June 9 (AP)—Canada removed all dairy products from rationing and price control today. Controls also were removed from restaurant meals and some metals.

Some Utility Workers Out

Some gas and electricity plant workers already have walked off their jobs in the provinces. Union leaders in the capital were debating whether to order a general strike throughout the industry.

SENATE UNIT BACKS BILL FOR TRANSFER OF CANAL TO STATE

(Chicago Tribune Press Service) Washington, June 9—The senate public lands committee today approved legislation by Sen. Brooks (R., Ill.) for the relinquishment of federal rights in the abandoned Illinois-Michigan canal property, extending from Chicago to Peru, Ill. The house has passed similar legislation and the senate is expected to act on it tomorrow.

GUERRILLAS RAID DELPHI; LOOT, KILL, FIRE HOMES

ATHENS, June 9 (AP)—A band of 200 guerrillas raided classic Delphi over the weekend and looted the site of the ancient oracle on fabled Mount Parnassus, the ministry of public order announced today.

from the American ship, Ernie Pyle.

The six-four girls and two boys plan to study for several weeks in schools at Fontainebleau and then travel to Geneva, Switzerland, and London before returning home in August. They are the first high school students to come here for study since the war.
