

500,967 DEMAND BILL OF RIGHTS FOR CANADIANS

Jehovah Witness Sect Among Petitioners

BY EUGENE GRIFFIN
[Chicago Tribune Press Service]
OTTAWA, June 9—More than half a million Canadians signed a petition which called upon parliament today to enact a written bill of rights for Canada.

The bulky volumes bearing the signatures of 500,967 Canadians representing all sections of the dominion from Cape Breton Island to Victoria, B. C., were presented in the house of commons by Alistair Stewart [Coöperative Commonwealth Federation, Winnipeg].

In Behalf of All

John Diefenbaker [Progressive Conservative, Saskatchewan], Canadian constitutionalist and foremost advocate of a bill of rights, was absent because of illness. Stewart said he had been asked to present the petition by the Jehovah's Witnesses, a religious sect which has been under attack in Quebec province.

Stewart said he acted in behalf of the rights of all Canadians, altho he did not agree with the views of the Witnesses. He regretted, he told reporters, that the petition did not make reference to other groups, such as Japanese-Canadians and Negroes, who, he said, have been persecuted by Canadian officials.

"There are only about 7,000 Jehovah's Witnesses in Canada," Stewart said, "so it is obvious from the signatures to this petition that over 490,000 other Canadians are in agreement that Canada should have a bill of rights."

Hundreds Seized in Quebec

Hundreds of Jehovah's Witnesses have been arrested, jailed, and released on bond in Quebec province in the last several months. They have raised charges of violations of their rights of free speech and freedom of religion, on the ground that police have attacked them in Montreal and Quebec City for distributing religious pamphlets without city licenses. In a test case, they have petitioned the Supreme court of Canada to hear their appeal, and the court is deciding whether it will accept their case.

"Canada's participation in the Atlantic Charter and the United Nations Organization, are declarations to the world that this country stands for full freedom of speech, press and worship," their petition to parliament said.

"Many other nations, such as Australia and the United States of America, have written bills of rights in their constitutions, provided for their people greater protection of fundamental liberties than does Canada."

"Open to Attack"

"Thruout Canada basic personal rights are open to attack and loss because of a failure to have them guaranteed by a written constitution."

The petition asked parliament to enact or insert in the British North America act a bill of rights similar to that in the United States "to secure freedom of speech, press, and worship to all people against municipal, provincial, or national abridgment."

PARACHUTE PAY IN JAPAN BUILDS AN AERIAL ARMY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service]
SENDAI, Japan, June 9—The only American airborne division overseas has trained more than 11,000 parachutists since coming to Japan and is turning them out at the rate of 500 weekly.

This rate, so far as it known here, makes Yamoto, 14 miles north of Sendai in northeast Japan, the center of American parachute training. At last reports Fort Benning, Ga., was producing only 200 parachutists weekly.

"Jump pay" of $50 a month extra causes hundreds of youngsters arriving in Japan to volunteer for service with the 11th airborne division. A private receives $140 a month, compared with $138 for a staff sergeant with other divisions.

"We've only had one fatality in nearly 47,000 jumps," said Maj. Gen. Joseph M. Swing, grizzled hero of the Philippines' campaign, who at 53, continues to jump with his men.

With war time training pressures off, jumps never are made at less than 1,200 feet or when wind velocity exceeds 12 miles an hour. During the war many combat jumps were made at 500 and 600 feet in winds up to 35 miles an hour.

The recent arrival of 10,000 quick release harnesses is helping reduce minor accidents caused by jumpers being dragged by their chutes after landing.

Glider training also is part of the program at Yamoto.

After gaining his jump wings during an intensive three weeks course, during which he makes five jumps, a recruit must make one additional jump every three months to keep his wings and jump pay.

With headquarters at Sapporo, Hokkaido, the 11th airborne occupies 56,000 of Japan's 146,690 square miles. At one point its territory is only four miles from Russian areas. At Hakodate, Hoddalido, it processes 6,000 Japanese arriving from soviet held areas every week.

What Should an Advertising Man Know About the PYRAMIDS?

● Aside from the fact that the Pyramids are known as the Pyramids of Gizeh (pronounced Gizeh) and that they were built circa 3000 B. C., there's one very important thing an advertising man should know about these geometrical stone piles—and that is their use, in modern times, to represent the distribution of wealth in this country.

You've heard the term, the "economic pyramid."

Well, consider this. If you want to reach the boys at the top—the fellows who draw fifty thou, a hundred thou a year, you can buy publications that reach them with a minimum of waste.

That goes for the millions of folks at the bottom, too.

But sometimes you want to reach everybody—top and bottom and in between—because you happen to have a product that everybody uses. Like soap. Breakfast cereal. Cigarettes. Tooth paste. Razors. Automobiles. Scores of things, when you stop to think of them.

At that point, you want Metropolitan Group Gravure—the magazine picture sections of 26 of the country's leading Sunday newspapers, reaching more than 14,000,000 families—top, bottom and in between—every week, coast to coast.

The people who read these sections (men, women and teen-agers) read them not because they're devoted to horses or yachts, movies or marital confessions, but because they contain news and pictures of the local scene. That's why Metro Group sections get higher average inside page readership than anything else in print.

Locally edited for top local interest, these 26 sections blanket the key marketing areas of the country—delivering penetration and impact where they count most.

Moreover, you can pick your sections—from 10 to 23 publishing cities—to match your distribution pattern, or to change themes, dealer listings, prices, even products, to give your copy the benefit of the local touch. And then you can start building your own pyramids—of profits!

And speaking of that, have you heard the whole Metro Group Gravure story lately?
