

WITH PALETTE ON JUNGLE TRAILS: AN ARTIST STALKS BIG GAME

"Elephants at Dawn"

"African Buffaloes on the Hillside"

"Moose in Pond"

"African Leopard"

AN ARTIST'S CANVASES RECORD HIS CROWDED MOMENTS—In the making of these close-up studies of big game, some of the greatest thrills of his adventurous life were experienced by Maj. A. Radclyffe Dugmore, noted British explorer, author, photographer, and painter. For years Maj. Dugmore lived in Africa, writing and making moving pictures of jungle life. A more recent expression, his paintings of wild beasts are regarded as a unique triumph.