

LONDON AT HER FEET—Miss Elsie Janis, making her first theatrical appearance in the British capital for several years, took this breezy posture atop her hotel while the camera made its record. (Photograph copyright by Pacific and Atlantic.)

NESTOR OF SENATE IS 82—Vice President Dawes congratulating Senator Francis E. Warren of Wyoming, oldest member of the chamber in service and years, upon his birthday. Senator Warren, who has been in the upper house for thirty-four years, is the only Union veteran holding the toga. (Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

BOW AT COURT OF ST. JAMES—Miss Caroline Patterson, at the left, and Miss Lorraine Liggett in court dress as they appeared when presented before the British king and queen. The former is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Patterson of Dayton, Ohio, and the latter the daughter of Louis K. Liggett, the Boston capitalist. (Photographs from Pacific and Atlantic.)

OF ROYAL ROMAN BLOOD—Princess Yolanda of Italy and her small son in their first posed picture together. By marriage, as you no doubt remember, Yolanda is the Countess di Bergolo. (Photograph from International.)

INDIAN PREACHER IS 104—The Reverend Chief Big Horse, living at San Francisco, has passed the first hard hundred years, and has just celebrated his fourth birthday in addition. He is still stalwart and straight, as you may see. (Photograph from Wide World.)

THEY'LL NEVER BE ALL WET AT PRINCETON in the class day parades as long as umbrellas are on sale. Three thousand alumni marched in the parade and filled the stands at this baseball game with Yale. (Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

HUNTS 18,000 JEWISH HUSBANDS— Rabbi Ezekiel Lipschitz (right), dean of the orthodox rabbis of Poland, is looking in the United States for the spouses of Polish and Russian women deserted during twenty years. In Chicago his official host was Rabbi Ezriel Epstein (left), president of the city's orthodox rabbis. (Photograph from Underwood & Underwood.)
