CLIMAX HOLIDAY TODAY; BRIGHT SKIES PROMISED

60,000 Usher In July 4 at Huge Legion Show.

Today is the Fourth of July and many thousands of Chicagoans in city and country will bring their weekend holiday celebration to a climax. Fair and warmer weather is promised.

Saturday was the prelude to the holiday and yesterday it really got under way. The sun came out in time to bring a reprieve from the rain and warmed dampened enthusiasms. The result in Chicago was a happy and enjoyable day for untold thousands.

Crowd Beaches and Parks. Beaches were crowded. So were parks and the zoos. The forest preserves were also well filled.

Sands Sparkle with Color. With the temperature ranging between 70 and 75 degrees, the beaches also drew well. Oak street beach led with 65,000 bathers.

Beauty Queen Chosen. Lovers of beauty had a full portion in the beauty queen contest. They were 25 contestants. The winner is Miss Violet Sheets, 24 years old, of 4544 Hazel street, a slim brunette, who works as a model.

Firecracker Explodes in Hand. One such was Mary Wagner, 8 years old, 1366 Mohawk street. She picked up a firecracker thrown at her after it failed to explode.

James Tribbel, 12 years old, 333 South Taylor avenue, Oak Park, was burned on the right hand by an exploding firecracker.

Walter Worth, 26, of 117 Circle avenue, Forest Park, burned on the right thumb; Robert Trischman, 29, of 1426 East 65th place, seared on the left hand in an accident in Aurora, and Miss Goldie Baran, 1900 West 21st place, cut on the head by a fragment of an aerial bomb fired at the Soldiers' field display.

vast area still inundated along the Des Plaines. Water still stood several feet deep in the Skokie marsh west of Winnetka, and residents of the town, assisted by CCC workers, continued to patrol a dike erected along Hibbard road.

Health Order Issued. Children in Winnetka were forbidden to wade in the muddy backwaters after Dr. George F. Munns, acting health officer, warned the police there was a possibility they would contract typhoid fever.

SEIZE 2 AFTER 4 GUN FIGHTS IN 48 HOUR CHASE

Ohio Police Trap Bandits by Radio Blockade.

Gallipolis, O., July 3.—(Special).—A posse of more than 300 state patrolmen, sheriffs' deputies, and citizens today captured two bandits who had terrorized southeastern Ohio for forty-eight hours in the climax of a week of crime.

The two were seized in a wooded area four miles southwest of Waverly, O., where they fled last night after patrolmen had wrecked their stolen automobile in a gun battle on a highway.

The bandits, Alva Sowards, 30 years old, of Gallipolis, and Millard Davis, 21, of Adams county, exchanged gunfire four times with officers in this area as they tried desperately to pierce a highway blockade directed by state police radio.

Stool Car and Paint It. Lieut. A. O. Smith, state police commander at Waverly, said the two gunmen held up Wren McCain, a Richmond, Ind., automobile salesman, near the community of Eagon, O., on June 10, taking his car and robbing him of $57. They repainted the car.

On June 27 they attempted to rob a bank in Vinton. Guns drawn, they terrorized the employees, but were frightened away when a car drove up outside the bank. An hour later, near Oak Hill, 10 miles from Vinton, they held up a traveling grocery wagon store, escaping with $125.

Yesterday morning Deputy Sheriff Foster and Marshal William Anderson of Waverly sighted the bandits speeding down a highway four miles west of Waverly.

Anderson and Foster raced down the highway in pursuit, exchanging shots with the bandits, but the outlaws escaped.

About an hour later Corporal J. W. Brooks of the Portsmouth highway patrol and Sheriff Mercer of Waverly sighted the outlaws, and another gun battle followed.

Bandits Flee on Foot. At 8:30 o'clock last night five police in another patrol car saw the desperadoes. The police opened fire on the car and disabled it. Davis and Sowards then fled on foot.

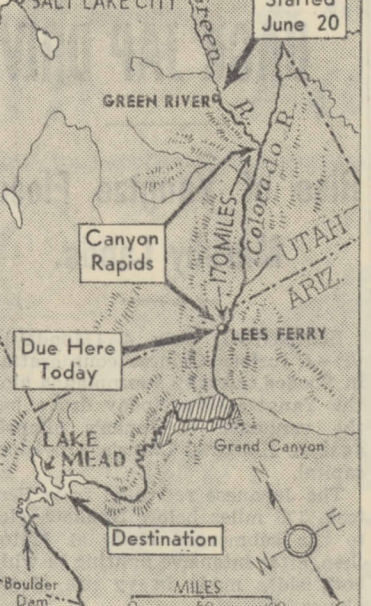

Additional possums were summoned, and approximately 300 persons soon joined the man hunt and pursued the area.

The posse circled the dense woods all night. At daybreak the bandits were sighted, but they slipped out of sight again among the rocks as the posse opened fire. The man hunters then slowly closed in and drove the bandits into a wheat field, where they surrendered.

Two revolvers and a rifle were taken from the outlaws, and they were lodged in the Gallia county jail at Gallipolis. Davis was wounded in the head during one of the fights with police.

ACCIDENT HOPERS IN AUTO WRECKER ARE TAKEN IN TOW

Find Long Profit from Short Waves Illegal.

Enterprise was not rewarded yesterday in the case of Edward Sichel, owner of a garage at 3616 South Halsted street, and his helper, Frank Nowaczyk, 920 West 35th place, who found that instead they may be penalized.

The two were arrested as they sat in a towing truck at 46th street and Ashland avenue at 2 o'clock yesterday morning hoping the holiday would prove profitable to them. They were waiting for accidents to happen.

Prendergast Sees Them. Chief John Prendergast of the uniformed police force was attracted to the towing car by its radio, which was keeping Sichel and his helper informed. It was a short wave set, tuned to get the police calls.

"You are violating the law," Chief Prendergast informed the accident hoper. "This law says no one may have a short wave radio in an automobile without official permission.

"You are violating section 780 of chapter thirty-eight, the criminal code of Illinois," Chief Prendergast informed the accident hoper. "This law says no one may have a low wave radio in an automobile without permission from the sheriff or the state department of public welfare.

Restricted to Home Use. "You may get the police calls on a radio set in your home. That's lawful. But you may not have that same radio in your automobile. The law was aimed at criminals who might make use of the radio police calls to defeat the ends of justice. The penalty may be a fine up to $1,000 or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both fine and imprisonment."

Then he took them to the New City police station, where they were released on bond. Sichel learned also that he has no right to pick up damaged or wrecked automobiles on the street without a specific order.

Boy Goes Over Kankakee River Dam and Drowns. Edward Rosario, 17 years old, 1042 North Central Park avenue, drowned yesterday in the Kankakee river near Wilmington. Vincent La Mendola, 20 years old, 1123 North Monticello, with whom Rosario had gone swimming, told Will county authorities his companion was swept over a dam and drawn under by the current. The Kankakee is nearly at flood stage.

PARTY 'SHOOTING' COLORADO RIVER DUE AT OUTPOST

Flooded Canyons Hold Key to Fate of Six.

Lee's Ferry, Ariz., July 3.—(AP)—Out of one of the most primitive regions in the United States, where the Colorado river churns through deep gouged canyons, residents of this isolated north Arizona outpost awaited anxiously today emergence of a daring scientific expedition.

High water, augmented by unusual torrential rains during the last week, brought conjecture as to the fate of the expedition's six members—two women, attempting to be the first of their sex to conquer the Colorado—and four men.

The Nevills expedition left Green River, Utah, June 20. Norman Nevills, Utah riverman making his first trip down the Colorado, estimated that the party would reach here about July 4 after a two weeks plunge down the foaming, flood tide stream.

Women Adventurer-Scientists. The women adventurer-scientists are Elzada Clover, 40 years old, University of Michigan botanist, and her assistant, Lois Jotter, 25. Other members of the party are Don Harris of the United States geological scientist and W. C. Gibson, San Francisco artist-photographer.

At Lee's Ferry the Colorado becomes docile after boiling 170 miles through rapid riffled canyons. Here the scientists will restock food supplies and take a one day breathing spell before starting the second half of their 666 mile voyage to Lake Mead behind Boulder Dam, Nev.

"River Rats" Are Gloomy. Veteran "river rats" have made gloomy predictions during the week. They expressed anxiety, claiming the expedition is making the trip at the worst time of the season—when the Colorado, dangerous at all times, is running high.

There has been no contact with the party since it launched its three light boats at Green River. Nevills abandoned the plan of carrying a one way short wave radio set.
