Mrs. Frank J. Bersbach to Move in Fall.

are not expecting to enjoy the summer abroad as most of the members of Mrs. Stevenson's family are doing, but they will spend the hot weather months in Lake Forest, where they hope to move about July 15. Mrs. Edmund J. Doering, Mrs. Stevenson's mother, and her sisters, Miss Nancy Doering and Mrs. Doering Earling, and their brother, Edmund, all are in France at the present time. Young Mr. Doering will be a sophomore at Harvard in the fall. The senior Mr. Doering is motoring through Canada.

Mrs. Walther Buchen is in the east to meet her daughter, Miss Esther Buchen, who is arriving today on the Ile de France. Miss Buchen has spent the last year in Paris taking her junior year of college work at the Sorbonne. Walther Buchen Jr. has gone to Camp Highlands in Wisconsin for the summer, and the rest of the family probably will take cottage at Bridgman, Mich., for the month of August.

Hutchinses to Sail for England Today.

President and Mrs. Robert M. Hutchins of the University of Chicago are sailing today for England. They plan to spend most of their summer vacation motoring through the countryside, and will return to Chicago the latter part of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Shreve C. Badger are driving east today with their children. They will go first to Long Island to spend a week with friends. Mrs. Badger and the children then will go to Vermont to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. John H. Winterbotham, and Mr. Badger will return to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark J. Lawrence and Miss Audrey Lawrence have gone east to spend the summer at their camp at Upper St. Regis, N. Y. Miss Nancy Blaine, who now is at Timberline ranch in Arizona, will join them there the middle of July.

Now that the horse show season is over in the vicinity of Chicago, Miss Elizabeth Crawford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Crawford, has gone away to visit friends. With her aunt, Mrs. Henry A. Jones of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Miss Crawford has gone to New York. She will visit in Birmingham, Ala., before returning to Col.

In celebration of France's independence day, which falls on July 14, the date of the historic storming of the Bastille, Rene Weiller, consul general of France, and Mme. Weiller have issued invitations to a reception from 11 to 12 o'clock tomorrow at a week from tomorrow at the consulate, 919 North Michigan avenue.

Dr. Budd C. Corbus Jr. has returned to Chicago from New Orleans and has become a resident physician at the County hospital.

Tree Rings Found in Charcoal May Date Indian Mounds

Dr. Fay-Cooper Cole, chairman of the University of Chicago's department of anthropology, announced yesterday that Indian culture in Illinois and the central west, known to have existed at least 2,000 years ago, may be dated to the exact year.

Using the tree ring dating method developed in the southwest, Dr. Florence Hawley is proving this method workable by using charcoal found in Indian mounds and camp sites. Working this week in Wisconsin, Dr. Hawley will extend her research through Illinois, Indiana, and Kentucky into the Tennessee valley.

In the southwest the dry climate has preserved timber for centuries, but in this area the moisture climate has rotted all early timber and tree stumps, except those which have been burned into charcoal.

Reports Good Prospects for U. S. Reformed Judaism

(Copyright, 1937, by The New York Times.)
AMSTERDAM, July 5.—Reformed Judaism's prospects in America are exceedingly favorable, Rabbi Joseph Rauch of Louisville concluded today in a paper he read before the fourth congress of the World Union for Progressive Judaism, being held here. Today the delegates met and reports from ten countries were read. Rabbi Isserman stressed the connection between prophetic religion and political democracy. He suggested that a united religious front of Jews, Catholics and Protestants should be formed to preserve western civilization.

HAROLD TEEN—YEP! THIS BUSINESS OF LIVING IS NO PUSH-OVER

Peaceful Home Important for Child's Welfare

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS
(Copyright, 1937, by The Chicago Tribune
N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.)

There is much talk these days about security—financial security and other kinds.

There is a great deal of talk about the necessity of a child feeling secure in the rapidly changing world in which we now live. We have talked in this column a great deal about how largely his feeling of security is brought about by his having the love and the understanding and the loyalty of his parents. But there is one angle of this subject of the security his home should bring to him we have not touched upon in a long time. Let us do so today.

I would like to start by asking you a few questions—and since I'll never hear the answers which you will make honestly in your own mind, I can make them quite pointed without being personal:

Do you and your husband quarrel in front of your children?

Do you and your husband disagree, often and seriously, in the presence of the children?

Are you and your husband so fundamentally antagonistic toward each other that it tinges the atmosphere?

Do you and your husband not openly quarrel but say cutting or sarcastic things to each other, or glare at each other over the children's heads?

A child's mother and father are the very foundations of his world. You may not realize that but it is so—a basic fact that parents should try to assimilate.

If your answer to even one of these questions is yes, you are harming your child. Every mature person knows that there are men and women who are married who simply do not belong together temperamentally and physically—and perhaps socially. Every one knows that often one partner in a marriage either slights the fitness of the marriage tie, or actually outrages it. But most mature people also know that much discord and many actually unpleasant scenes are unnecessary—because of the childishness or lack of self-control of grown-up men and women.

Whatever the fundamental or surface situation may be, if you are going to remain married or if you only agree to live under the same roof and you have children, you must evolve some sort of a working basis. Sometimes concern for a child's welfare will create a unity of endeavor between a man and a woman. Their serenity and security are of vital importance, not only to their present but to their future well being.

This subject will be continued tomorrow.

Report Good Trade at Opening of Shows

Buyers flocked to the American Furniture Mart and the Merchandise Mart to open the two-week summer furniture market yesterday despite the holiday. Early in the afternoon 1,900 had registered at the Furniture Mart and about 2,000 at the Merchandise Mart. Brick business was reported.

Results of a national survey revealing that furniture led all other items in department store sales increases were announced at the Furniture Mart. It covered 5,600 stores and disclosed a gain of 22 per cent. The report also shows the furniture departments of the stores turned in a profit in 1936. The profits in many cases were the first since the depression.
