

Father of Dillinger Here to Claim Body—Reward to Be Paid Secretly—Testimony Brief at Death Inquest

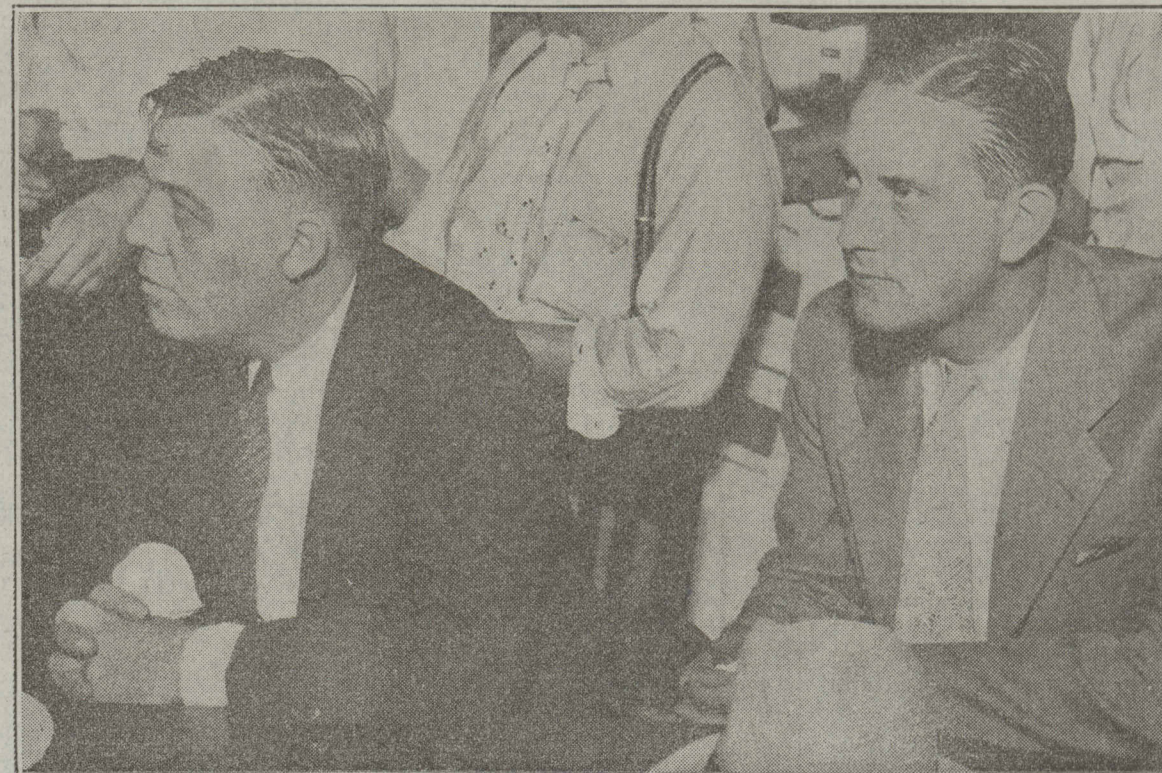

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

FATHER OF SLAIN JOHN DILLINGER ARRIVES TO CLAIM BODY FOR BURIAL. John Dillinger Sr. (left) and Hubert Dillinger, half-brother of victim, after they arrived yesterday at undertaking rooms at 4506 Sheridan road. They will take the desperado's body back to Mooresville, Ind., for burial. (Story on page 3.)

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

ATTORNEY GENERAL AND PURVIS TALK REWARD. Melvin H. Purvis (left), Chicago federal official who set Dillinger trap, and Attorney General Homer Cummings as latter arrived last evening on B. & O. (Story on page 3.)

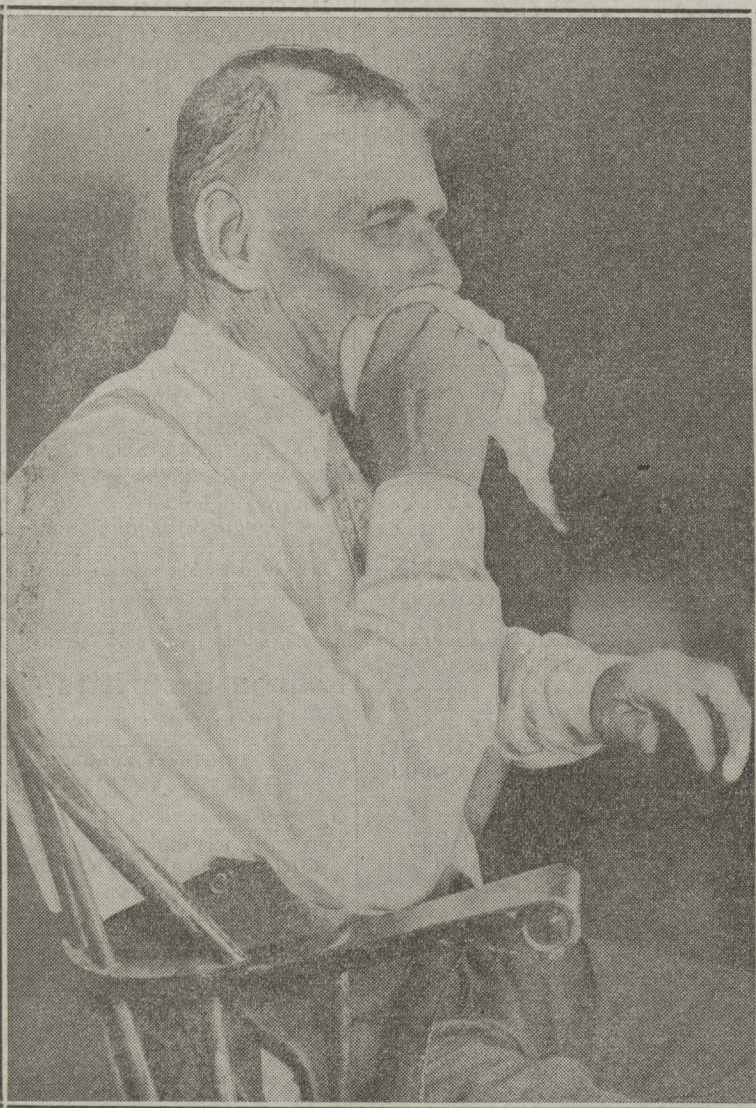

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

FEDERAL AGENTS TESTIFY AT INQUEST INTO KILLING OF DILLINGER. Samuel P. Cowley (left), first assistant to Melvin H. Purvis, and Earle Richmond, the only witnesses at hearing yesterday in the county morgue. Mr. Purvis did not appear and the agents who fired the shots were not named. (Story on page 2.)

[Acme Photo.]

DILLINGER FAMILY PLOT IN CROWN HILL CEMETERY NEAR INDIANAPOLIS. Here John Dillinger will be buried when his father returns to Indiana with the body of the slain outlaw. His mother and step-mother are buried in the plot next space for their son, to which attendant is pointing.

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

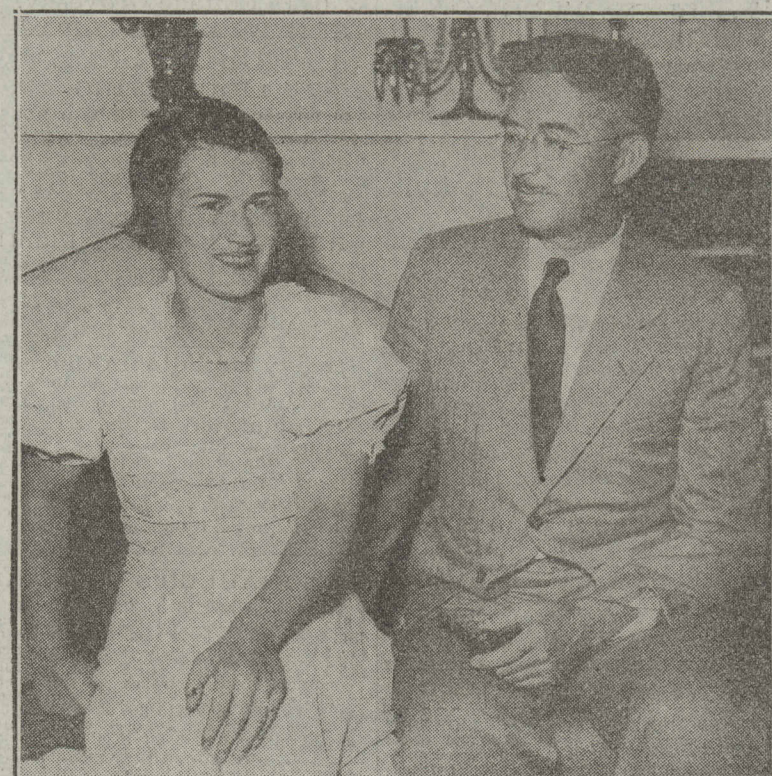

FATHER OF SLAIN GUNMAN NEAR BREAKDOWN. John Dillinger Sr., who arrived yesterday to claim body of his son for burial, shown at undertaking rooms waiting for authorities to release remains of victim. (Story on page 3.)

INDIANA POLICEMEN AID DEMISE OF DILLINGER. Sergt. Martin Zarkovich (left) and Capt. Timothy O'Neil of East Chicago, who were with federal agents. Zarkovich is credited with getting tip which bore fruit. (Story on page 1.)

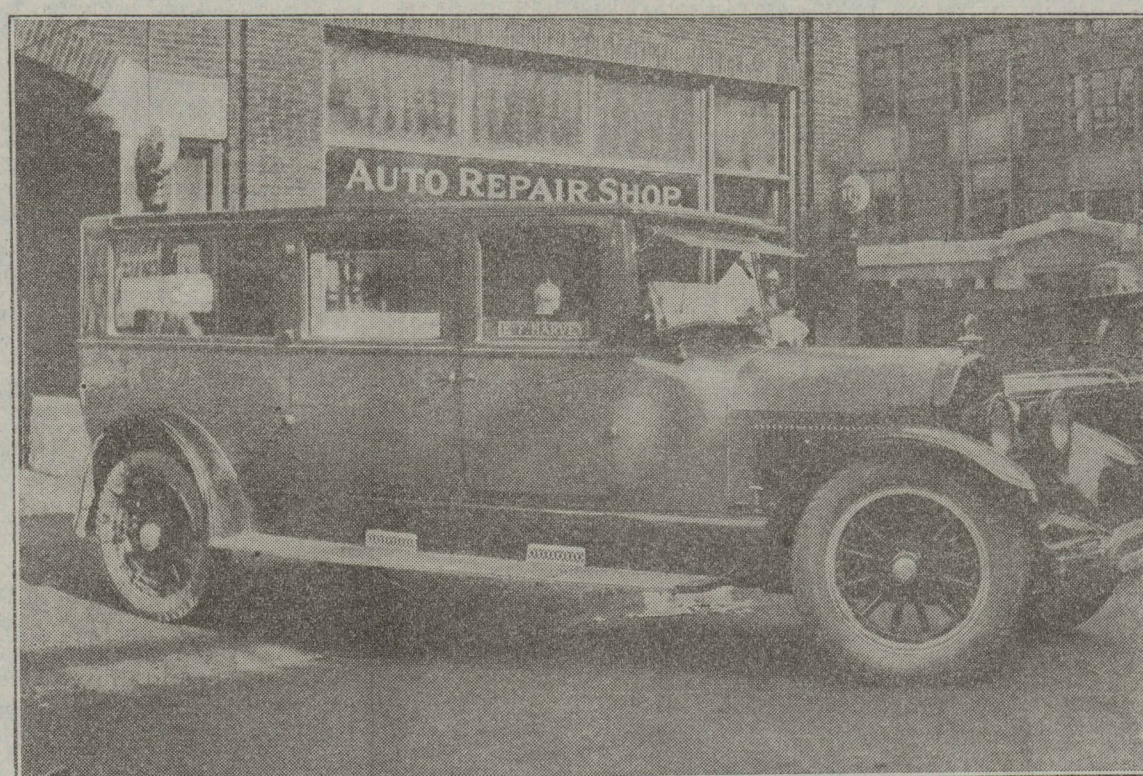

DEATH WITNESS. Mrs. Pearl Doss, who knew killer years ago, sees him shot to death in trap. (Story on page 2.)

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

DOCTOR BEATS AND CAPTURES BANDIT IN HOME. Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Van Alyea, 1512 North Dearborn street, as they related experience last night. The bandit was Charles Morris, a paroled Colorado convict. (Story on page 1.)

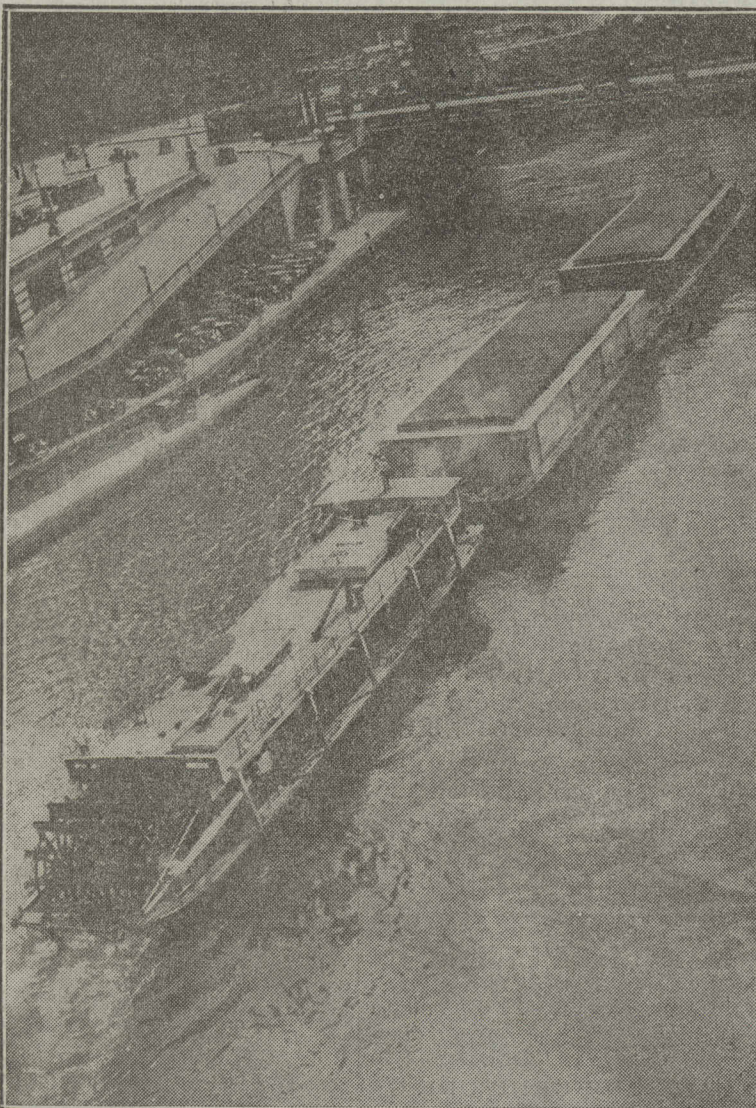

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

HERSE IN WHICH BODY OF DILLINGER WILL BE TAKEN TO MOORESVILLE. Vehicle driven to Chicago yesterday by father of slain desperado in company with his son, Hubert, and E. F. Harvey, Mooresville undertaker. Dillinger will be buried, probably today, in Crown Hill cemetery near Indianapolis. (Story on page 3.)

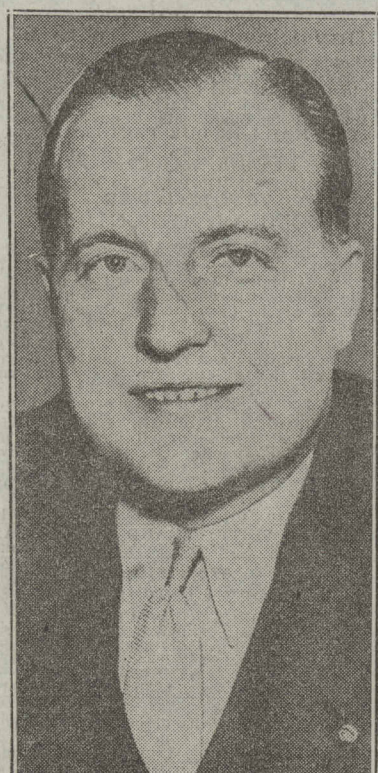

EXAMINING FINGERS. Arthur T. Linderman of Chicago police using magnifying glass on the finger tips of Dillinger. (Story on page 3.)

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

STERN WHEELER USED ON ILLINOIS WATERWAY. The government boat Gouverneur, pressed into service in moving cargoes from Morris, Ill., to Chicago, shown with barges in the Chicago river yesterday. (Story on page 18.)

INJURED BY DIVE. Judge Cornelius J. Harrington suffers fractured vertebra in water mishap. (Story on page 1.)

[Acme Photo.]

SEVENTEEN DIE IN FLAMES AS BUS GOES OFF EMBANKMENT; MANY HURT. Wreckage of bus at Ossining, N. Y., after tragedy on Sunday which took seventeen lives. The passengers, all from Brooklyn, were en route to watch a ball game at Sing Sing. The vehicle left the trestle shown at left and fell into flames. (Story on page 8.)

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

FAIR OFFICIALS ARE QUIZZED BY LEGISLATORS. Maj. Lenox Lohr (left), the general manager, and Rufus C. Dawes, president, as they appeared at opening of legislative investigation of Exposition yesterday at Hotel La Salle. (Story on page 5.)