

HOW IS ALL-STAR POLL CONDUCTED? WELL, HERE'S HOW

150 Newspapers, Radio Stations Co-operate.

How is it possible to run up a vote aggregating millions in the All-Star player and coaches poll? The Tribune this morning gives you the answer. More than 150 newspapers and radio stations covering every section of the United States co-operate in selecting a team of College All-Americans to oppose the Washington Redskins, champions of the National Professional league, in Chicago's big charity game Aug. 31.

Hundreds of thousands of votes are mailed or brought directly to THE TRIBUNE, where they are verified by the contest department before publication. Votes cast through other newspapers are tabulated by those institutions and the totals are sent to Chicago. Newspapers are required to hold their ballots until after the poll has closed, so, if any one questions the honesty of the count, they have opportunity to check.

Publishers, managing editors, and sport editors almost everywhere agree there never has been a sports popularity contest to match the All-Star poll. The response of the fans has astonished the most enthusiastic football followers.

Here's the Answer.

GERMANS CLINCH CUP MATCHES; LEAD FRENCH, 3-0

BERLIN, July 23.—(AP)—Germany today earned the right to meet Jugoslavia in the final round of European zone Davis cup competition as Henner Henkel and George von Metaxa whipped the French doubles team of Yvon Petra and Jean Lesueur, 4-6, 2-6, 10-8, 6-4. The victory gave Germany a 3-0 lead with only two singles matches left to play.

JUGO-SLAVIA WINS. BRUSSELS, Belgium, July 23.—(AP)—The Jugoslavian Davis cup team, already having clinched a place in the European zone finals by winning the first two singles matches and the doubles, today won the last two singles for a clean sweep in its semi-final round meeting with Belgium. Josef Pallada whipped H. Van Den Eynde, 6-3, 6-3, 6-1, and Ferenc Puncce defeated the Belgian No. 1, Andre Lacroix, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1.

SARATOGA OPENS TOMORROW WITH ROSY PROSPECTS

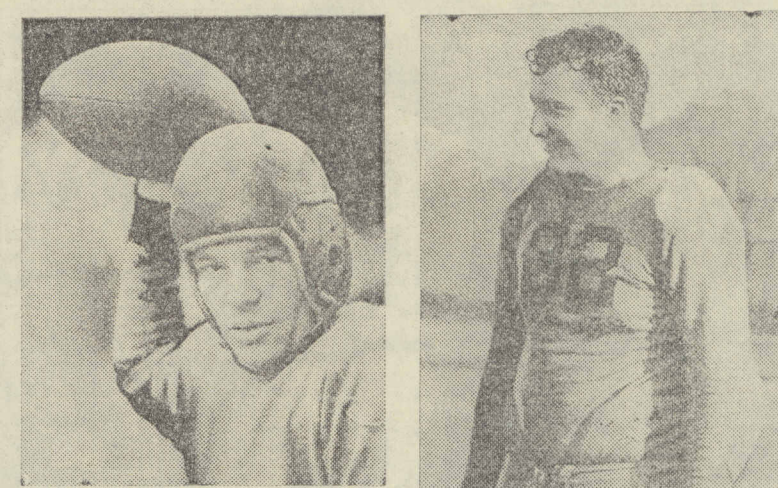

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 23.—(AP)—Fashionable Saratoga, one of America's oldest race tracks, opens tomorrow with the prospects of one of the outstanding meetings in history.

Many of the turf's leading horses, headed by War Admiral, already are quartered here and others are expected after the closing of Arlington Park next Saturday. Sashiscuit is headed here from the west coast.

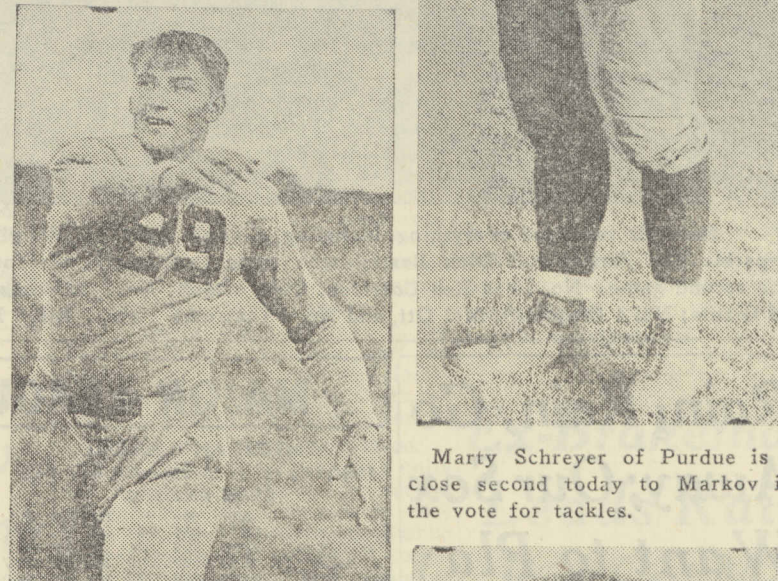

Climaxing many stake races for juveniles will be the rich popular one of the final day, Aug. 27. Three year olds also get a chance at important purses, with the biggest opportunity coming in the Travers on Aug. 13.

A's and Tigers Rained Out; Play 2 Tomorrow

Philadelphia, Pa., July 23.—(AP)—The Athletics and the Detroit Tigers

Andy Uram, Minnesota's star half back, is right on Isbell's heels for the high vote honor among the half backs.

Marty Schreyer of Purdue is a close second today to Markov in the vote for tackles.

Frank Filchok, Indiana quarter back from Brazzell, Pa., has a slight edge over Andy Pupils of Notre Dame.

All-Star Vote Ends Tonight at Midnight

heaviest total in the history of the promotion. It was made possible by the undivided support he received in his home state. Harry Kipke of Michigan, Charles Bachman of Michigan State, and other coaches spoke over state-wide radio hookups in his behalf. His assistants were Elmer Layden of Notre Dame, Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern, Jimmy Phelan of Washington, and Bernie Moore of Louisiana State.

Heading the player poll is Chuck Sweeney of Notre Dame, who is popular choice for end in almost every city in the country. He already has received 854,352 votes. Trailing him by nearly 275,000 is Perry Schwartz of California, star of the Rose Bowl game last New Year's day.

The Pacific coast and middle west also are in front at the tackles, where Vic Markov of Washington and Marty Schreyer of Purdue hold the lead. Joe Routt of the Texas Aggies tops the guards. His closest rival is Gus Zaras of Ohio State. Pat McCarthy of Notre Dame, whose work against Minnesota won for him national recognition, leads the centers, but he hasn't much to spare over Ralph Wolf of Ohio State.

Quarter Back Race Close.

Frank Filchok of Indiana, Andy Pupils of Notre Dame, Jack Robbins of Arkansas, Vic Spadaccini of Minnesota, and Fred Vanzo of Northwestern are putting up a great race for the quarter back job. It is almost impossible to forecast the winner. The full back position has developed into a two way fight between Frank Patrick of Pittsburgh and Corby Davis of Indiana, winner of THE TRIBUNE'S Most Valuable player award. Cecil Isbell of Purdue and Andy Uram of Minnesota, who was incapacitated early in the season, are leading the nation's half backs. Announcement that Clint Frank of Yale was out of the United States and would not return before Oct. 1 has reduced his vote sharply. The same applies to Sam Chapman, California full back, who has gained a regular job with the Philadelphia Athletics.

Required to Hold Ballots.

The hundreds of thousands of votes which have been turned in directly to THE TRIBUNE are counted by the contest department before they are included in the standings. Votes cast through other newspapers are counted by those institutions, and the totals wired to Chicago. All qualifying centers are required to hold the actual ballots until released by THE TRIBUNE.

A few days ago the Indianapolis News reported more than 200,000 votes for Jim Birt, Indiana end. Before accepting a figure of that proportion THE TRIBUNE ordered the votes expressed to Chicago. They arrived the following day. Similar procedure was followed with grants from Green Bay, St. Louis, and other centers where the voting was particularly heavy.

The squad, which again will number more than sixty players, will report at Northwestern university Aug. 12 for first practice.
