

ALLES RELY ON U. S. GOLD TO WIN, BONAR LAW SAYS

$3,250,000,000 More for War Granted by the Commons.

LONDON, July 24.—If money will win the war, the confidence of the United States assures the allies of victory, Andrew Bonar Law, the chancellor of the exchequer, announced in the house of commons this afternoon.

The demand for this large sum and the tremendous increase in war expenditures brought from Reginald McKenna, former chancellor of the exchequer, a declaration that there was a limit to the total of expenditure beyond which the nation could not go without forcing prices up to a point where grave uneasiness would be caused.

The country's revenue, the speaker pointed out, was something like $10,000,000 daily, and its expenditure about $40,000,000, which meant that $30,000,000 had to be raised by war taxation.

U. S. Money Aids Victory. The total amount of the votes of credit for the war now was $23,460,000,000, the chancellor announced, and he added: "Now that we have been thrown into the scale on our side the country with the greatest resources in the world, it is still more true to say, as I have said on previous occasions, that it will not be a want of money which will prevent us from winning the victory to which we all look forward."

Depending on Wilson. "I am sure that—although naturally it takes time to make the financial arrangement needful in a war like this—the president and the great nation he represents will deal in this matter with the same spirit of generosity, or, rather, of realization of what the whole issue means, as has been shown by England, and that we can rely on receiving in the United States resources which are necessary to pay for supplies of all kinds required by the allies in America."

ALL ERRORS IN DRAFT DRAWING NOW CORRECTED. Washington, D. C., July 24.—The completion of the draft drawing shows that including all the adjustments found necessary in correcting the official list to make up for the numbers that were read upside down or were misread, and also all errors in transcription in the rush of the drawing and the haste to get the figures to the wires, there are less than two score variations between the list compiled by the Associated Press and the master sheet.

Scores Saloniki Expedition. After Mr. McKenna has issued his warning for greater economies the main feature of the debate consisted of strong criticisms by John Dillon and others of the Saloniki expedition. Mr. Dillon, referring to rumors that Serbia was intending to make a separate peace with Austria, and demanding that the government say whether Serbia was to be deserted, declared that the British army in Saloniki had been demoralized by eighteen months of inaction in pestilential surroundings.

Lord Robert Cecil, minister of blockading, replying, characterized Mr. Dillon's charges as absolutely untrue.

WOMEN DISCOURAGED BY DRINKING MEN. ARE ADVISED to handle them as sick men—the same as they would if the "dear one" was afflicted with any other serious disease—urges a large number of men who are urged—yes, almost forced—to try the modern "NEAL WAY" at home in ordinary cases—or in any case at least INSTITUTE, No. 811-T East 83rd St., Chicago (Tel. 4-1430), at our expense, unless both husband and wife are satisfied that the patient is permanently cured at end of term.

1—The probability that the British armies are preparing to resume the offensive is strengthened by the official report from Berlin saying the artillery duel on the Flanders front has reached an intensity never known before. Heavy firing is raging between Lens and La Bassée canal. Reconnoitering thrusts by the British also are increasing in frequency and power.

2—Night raids by British on both sides of Hulluch are reported repulsed.

SUCCESSFUL. Youthful St. Ignatius Student Passes Mental Examination to Enter Annapolis. Daniel V. Gallery Jr., son of Attorney Daniel V. Gallery, 1256 Macalister place, and grandson of William J. Onahan, has received a telegram stating that he had passed the mental examination for Annapolis. Gallery is one of the youngest, if not the youngest, candidate to pass this examination.

$14,000,000,000 FIRST YEAR COST OF WAR TO U. S. McAdoo Asks $5,000,000,000 More for New Draft. (Continued from first page.) to the $610,000,000 just appropriated. The shipping board is about to ask for an additional $500,000,000, making a total of $1,250,000,000 for the construction of bottoms to beat the German submarine campaign.

Demand Jolts Revenue Plans. The demand for $5,000,000,000 additional to a money wrench into the machinery which had been set in motion for a report of the war revenue bill, designed to raise $1,600,000,000 through taxation, to the senate today. The committee determined to hold up this measure until it could get from Secretary McAdoo, Secretary Baker of the war department, and the heads of other departments information as to just how much money they would require during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, and what the money would be expended for. This information is expected to be forthcoming this week.

To Drain War Profits. If additional taxation is to be resorted to excess profits, incomes, and inheritances probably will bear the brunt of the burden. It has been estimated that about $5,000,000,000 of war profits are made annually, and a larger share of these profits will be taken.

Whale Meat, Creole, Dish Served in San Francisco. San Francisco, Cal., July 24.—"Whale meat, creole," appeared on the luncheon cards of large hotels here today.

Three to Seven Days' Treatment. The total amount of the votes of credit for the war now was $23,460,000,000, the chancellor announced, and he added: "Now that we have been thrown into the scale on our side the country with the greatest resources in the world, it is still more true to say, as I have said on previous occasions, that it will not be a want of money which will prevent us from winning the victory to which we all look forward."

ITALIAN FRONT

ITALIAN. ROME, July 24.—Yesterday the enemy showed increased activity in the Trentino. Hostile parties disturbed our working parties near Tierno. They attempted to surround one of our advanced positions in the Posina valley and approached our positions at Valganna in the San Pellegri valley and in the Ovarbacher region. The enemy artillery shell with great frequency various points of our line in the Valtellina and in the Camonica and Giudicaria valleys.

RUSSIAN. PETROGRAD, July 24.—Southwest of Dvinsk our detachments, after strong artillery preparation, occupied German positions on both sides of the Dvinsk-Vilna railway. After this success entire units, without any pressure on the part of the Germans, voluntarily returned to their original trenches. A number of these units refused to carry out military commands during the battle.

RUSSIAN. PETROGRAD, July 24.—In the region of Domuk a "battalion of death" attacked enemy trenches, and, after penetrating the wire entanglements, entered the trenches and captured fifty prisoners and three machine guns. The battalion then returned to its own trenches.
