

11,000 FEET UP—Study of clouds from a TWA airplane above Maine, Arizona. The solid mass (stratus) identifies a moist air mass from the tropical Pacific condensed into cloud at high altitude and low temperature. Above are cirrus and cirro-cumulus, formed of ice crystals.

SWAT—Theodore Roosevelt, at Miami, destroys a mosquito.
(Associated Press photo.)

ON THE MOVIE SET—Bette Davis chatting with William Keighley.
(Acme photo.)

GYPSIES PAUSE AT MIDDLETON-ON-THE-WOLDS, YORKSHIRE, ENGLAND.
(Photo from John Steelé, chief of The Chicago Tribune's London bureau.)

A THIRD PERSON RESCUING A RESCUER FROM A VICTIM'S STRANGLEHOLD.

WOMAN LIFE SAVER BREAKING THE HOLD OF A SWIMMER IN DISTRESS.

MANEUVERING INTO POSITION FOR A CROSS-CHEST CARRY.

AN UNDERWATER CAMERA RECORDS A LESSON IN LIFE SAVING AT SILVER SPRINGS, IN FLORIDA.
(Acme photos.)