ASCRIBED TO JEALOUSY.

Friends of Cedar Rapids Rector Declare This Inspired His Opponents.

READY TO FIGHT FOR HIM.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Sept. 16.—[Special.]—
The Rev. Thomas E. Green, Bishop-elect of the Episcopal Diocese of Iowa and rector of Grace Church of this city, declares he will pay no attention to the letter now being circulated among the clergy and laity of the diocese asking him to decline the office to which he has just been elected. Furthermore, if his opponents take their contest into the House of Bishops and try to defeat his confirmation there he is willing to meet and fight them on that ground.

Mayor Carter H. Harrison will take part in the Democratic campaign for the State ticket outside of Cook County, and if the plans of the State Central committee do not miscarry will deliver at least one speech in each of the fifteen Congressional districts in Illinois. He was urged to do so in a letter he received yesterday from Secretary A. C. Bentley of the Central committee and sald he would think the matter over and give as much time as possible to the work for the State ticket. He doubted that he could had a majority at the finish. This feeling against Dr. Green is no new thing. It has shown itself before, but I had hoped it would vanish when he was elected Bishop."

Major Hamilton, who is a strong friend of Dr. Green, expressed himself still more foretbly. James H. Bever, President of the Citizens' National Bank, ascribed the whole trouble to a desire on the part of the Des Moines parish to run the whole diocese. Ex-Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Rothrock, Jugge Cook, counsel for the St. Paul road; George A. Goodell, General Superintendent of the Chicago, Burlington and Northern; and Colonel C. A. Clark, are others of Dr. Green's supporters in this fight. They were delegates to the Davenport convention, and resent the charges that Dr. Green's election was accomplished by dubious methods. They all say: "Let the other fellows come on; we will give them all other fellows come on; we will give them a the fight they want," and the promise of a lively row before the matter is ended.
