

Daughter Is Born to Crown Prince and Princess of Italy—Lindbergh Suspect to Face Trial for Murder

DAUGHTER IS BORN TO ROYAL ITALIAN COUPLE.

Crown Prince Umberto and Crown Princess Marie Jose of Italy, to whom daughter was born at royal palace at Naples. Although the populace had desired a son and heir to the throne, the birth was the occasion for great rejoicing.

(Acme Photo.)

(Story on page 3.)

FIRST REPRODUCTIONS OF MYSTIC SYMBOLS ON LINDY RANSOM NOTES.

At left is part of note left on window sill when baby was stolen and the others are from subsequent notes which controlled payment of ransom. Because of identical structure of symbols investigators declared "man who got $50,000 ransom was kidnaper."

(Copyright: 1934: Acme.)

(Story on page 1.)

FACES SPEEDY TRIAL ON MURDER CHARGE.

Bruno Richard Hauptmann, alleged Lindbergh ransom receiver, as he was led from Bronx court yesterday after arraignment. New Jersey is ready to try him for murder.

(Tribune Photo.)

(Story on page 1.)

BEFORE JURORS.

Dr. John F. (Jafsie) Condon as he appeared at Hauptmann inquiry yesterday.

(Story on page 1.)

DILLINGER ATTORNEY IS FREED ON BOND.

Louis Piquett, who is accused of harboring the notorious hoodlum before he was slain, being greeted by his wife after $20,000 bond had been approved by Federal Judge Woodward.

(Tribune Photo.)

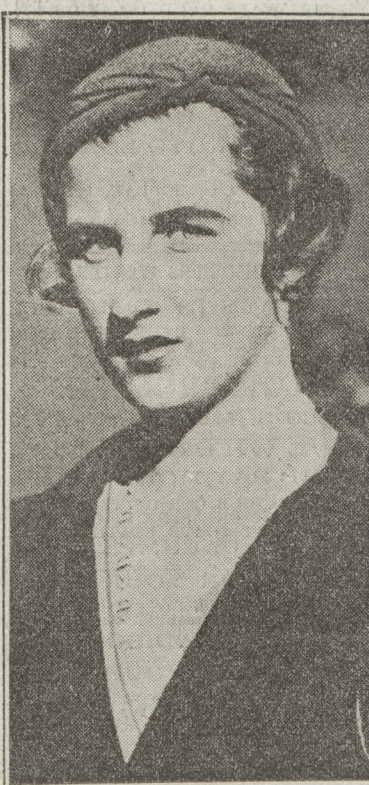

(Story on page 9.)

VICTIM OF CRASH.

Miss Katherine Hibbard, Glen Ellyn, injured with five others in auto smashup near Lombard.

(Story on page 9.)

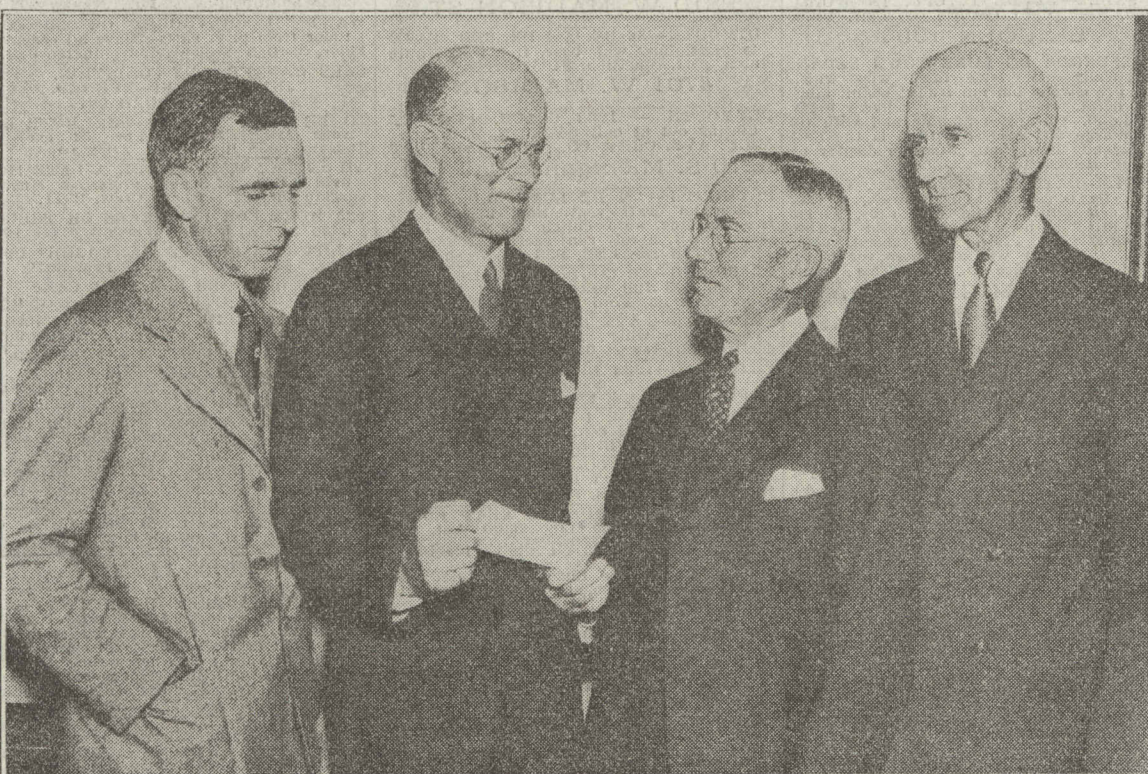

(Tribune Photo.)

(Du Bois the Drake Photo.)

SOCIETY GIRLS INJURED IN AUTO SMASHUP.

Miss Barbara Fortune (left) and Miss Bertha Erminger, seriously hurt early yesterday as autos collide in fog near Lombard. Another girl and three youths were also hurt.

(Tribune Photo.)

DRIVE OPENED FOR $3,000,000 FUND FOR CHICAGO COMMUNITY CHEST.

Left to right: Edward L. Ryerson Jr., chairman of fund; Fred A. Preston, chairman campaign committee; John Stuart, president Quaker Oats company, presenting pledge, and D. F. Kelly at dinner meeting in Chicago club.

(Story on page 11.)

FINALISTS IN CONTEST TO CHOOSE GEORGIA PEACH QUEEN AT FAIR.

Josephine Bowling (left) of Collegepark, Ga., and Maxine Land (right) of Atlanta, one of whom will be chosen queen today. Popular applause last night indicated the winner would be one of these two southern beauties.

(Story on page 7.)

PLEADS GUILTY.

Nick Basuris, arson defendant, as he admitted guilt and got year in jail.

(Story on page 3.)

LEGION COMMANDER ADDRESSES CHICAGO BAR.

Edward A. Hayes (right), national American Legion commander, with Lawrence C. Mills as he spoke to lawyers at luncheon yesterday in Burnham building.

(Tribune Photo.)

(Story on page 6.)

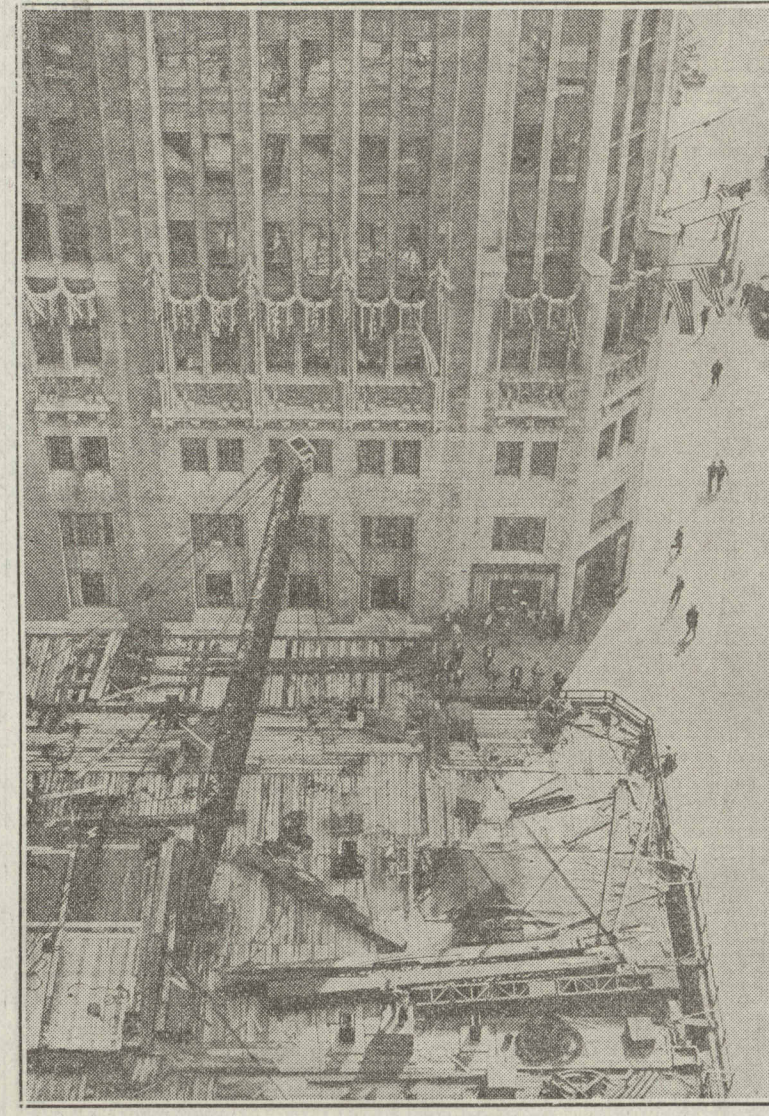

(Associated Press Photo.)

WIFE DEFENDS SUSPECT; CARES FOR BABY.

Mrs. Anna Hauptmann, whose husband is accused in Lindbergh case, with her son, Manfred, as she prepared milk in home of New York friend.

(Story on page 1.)

(Tribune Photo.)

ERECT DERRICK FOR WORK ON W-G-N STUDIO.

View from the 15th floor of the Medinah club showing workmen swinging derrick into place at site of radio station just north of The Tribune Tower.

(Story on page 23.)