

THE RUSSIAN STRATOSPHERE BALLOON "USSR" over Moscow during its ascension which established a record of eleven and eight-tenths miles.
(Associated Press photo.)

A UNIQUE VIEW OF TRIBUNE TOWER, photographed from the air during the recent American Legion parade in Chicago.
(Photo by Air Corps Technical School, U. S. Army.)

TWO PICTURES OF HITLER—At the left, a baby picture of the future nazi leader before he attained the age of one year; at right, the chancellor addressing 500,000 farmers and storm troopers at Bueckeberg.
(Acme photos.)

SIR OSWALD MOSLEY, leader of the British fascists, and who inherited a large fortune from his wife, granddaughter of the late Levi Leiter of Chicago, with four of his black-shirted followers at London headquarters.
(Acme photo.)

THE MARQUIS OF BLANDFORD, son of the Duke of Marlborough, in his shop in Berkeley Square, London, where he sells farm produce.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service photo.)

THE ORIGINAL LITTLE EVA—Mrs. Cordelia MacDonald who, in 1853, at the age of four, played that role in the first production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin", at Troy, N. Y.
(Associated Press photo.)

MISS PEGGY DOORLEY, nineteen year old granddaughter of Former Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Nebraska, was chosen queen of the thirty-third annual Ak-Sar-Ben ball in Omaha.
(Rinehart-Marsden, Omaha, photo.)