

AS A BEAUTY OF GOLD-RUSH DAYS—Bebe Daniels in a historical screen play.

THE BEAMS OF THE PORTLAND, ME., LIGHT reveal the masts and sails of the schooner Lochinvar, slowly sinking on a reef near the shore. (Associated Press photo.)

EQUIPPED WITH GAS MASKS, PICKS, AND SHOVELS, Roman citizens participate in anti-gas drills, whose purpose is to prepare the populace against possible gas attack in war. (Acme photo.)

OF BROWN TWEED, with double-breasted and nickel-buttoned jacket, is this suit, worn by Leila Hyams. A skirt-length topcoat completes the ensemble. (Acme photo.)

WHEN HER MOUNT failed to clear the timber in a jumping event at Bryn Mawr, Pa., Mrs. Owen J. Toland was thrown and suffered an injured shoulder. (Associated Press photo.)

TWO PICTURES FROM GERMANY—Girl followers of the Nazi leader, Adolf Hitler, hear his address at Potsdam. At the right the aged Reichspresident von Hindenburg receives a bouquet from a youthful Berlin admirer in celebration of his 85th birthday. (Acme and Associated Press photos.)

