Shoe pressure on a CORN is like hammering a... TACK in your toe

A corn is hard dead skin tissue with a tack-like point! When pressed by your shoe it is forced deep into tender flesh and sensitive nerves that carry agonizing pain throughout the body. That's why a corn seems to "hurt all over."

GET RID OF CORNS SCIENTIFICALLY

The soft felt Blue-Jay Pad lifts the shoe away from the sore area—pain stops instantly. The mild Blue-Jay medication works gently, quickly, affecting only the hard dead tissue of the corn itself—will not injure the surrounding flesh or skin.

In three days you easily lift the corn right out completely—safely, and experience new foot comfort.
