

Samuel Insull Tells Life Story from Witness Stand at Trial for Fraud—Fair Backers Assured Full Pay

[TRIBUNE Photos.]

SAMUEL INSULL ON WITNESS STAND IN OWN DEFENSE AT MAIL FRAUD TRIAL; TAKES FULL BLAME FOR BIG COLLAPSE. Three pictures of Samuel Insull Sr. as he appeared during noon recess of court yesterday. He spent the entire day on the stand as the first witness for the defense in the trial of seventeen defendants on charge of using mails to defraud in collapse of Corporation Securities company. The elderly chief defendant was near a breakdown at times during his lengthy testimony, which included the story of his life. (Story on page 1.)

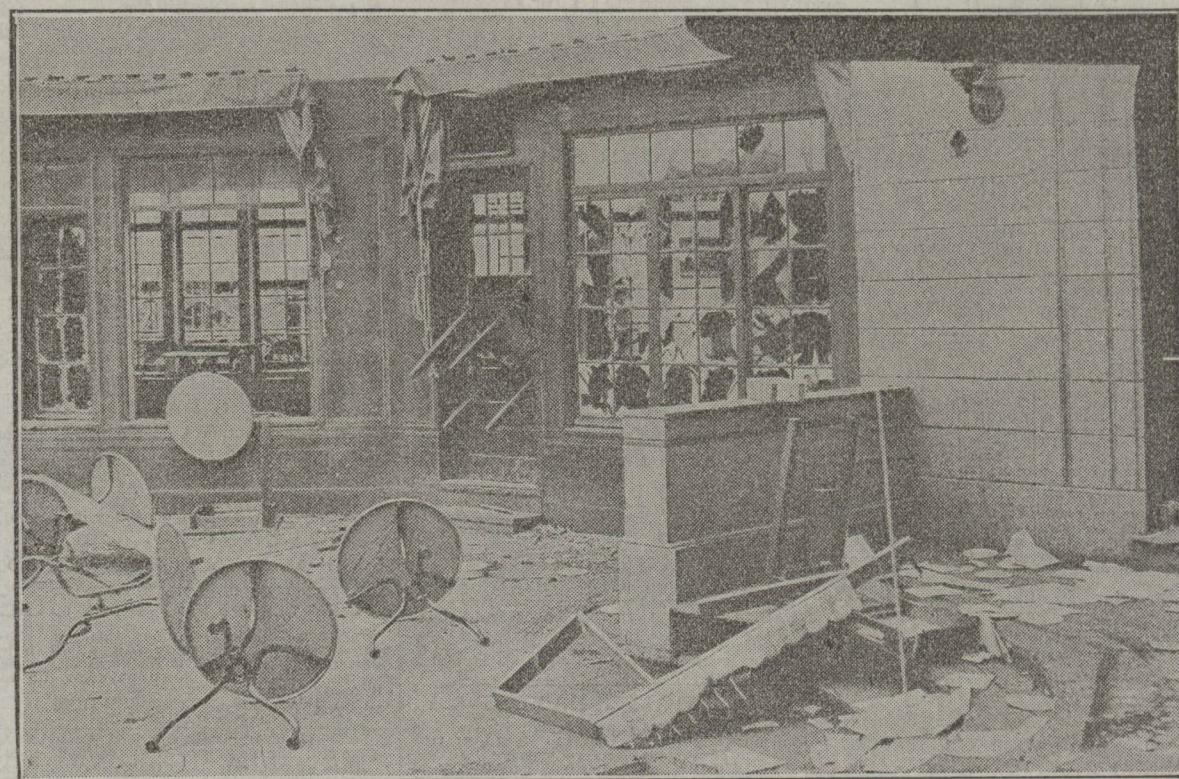

TRIBUNE ARTIST SKETCHES SAMUEL INSULL AS HE TELLS HIS STORY. Courtroom sketches of principal defendant in mail fraud trial as he appeared yesterday. The testimony given at the time each sketch was made is printed with the drawing. Insull was on the stand the entire day and was allowed to tell his story without interruption. (Sketches by TRIBUNE Artist.) (Story on page 1.)

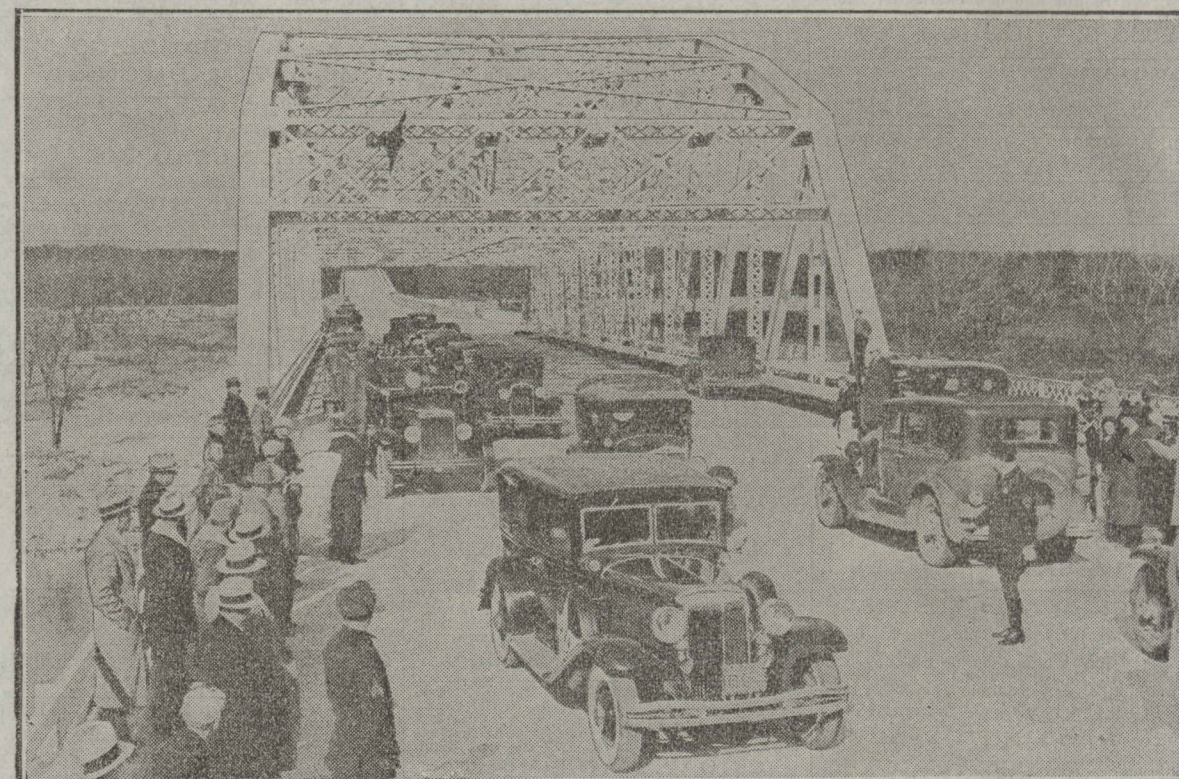

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

WIFE HEARS SAMUEL INSULL TELL HIS STORY. Mrs. Samuel Insull as she appeared outside Judge Wilkerson's courtroom yesterday. She was an intent listener while her husband, principal defendant in mail fraud trial, was telling his story from the witness stand. (Story on page 1.)

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

RECORD BREAKING CROWD LEAVES WRECKAGE IN WAKE AS FAIR CLOSES. View yesterday inside the Streets of Paris on the day after crowd of 372,000 bade farewell to the World's Fair of 1934, combining the closing festivities with wild Halloween celebration. Many other places suffered a like fate. (Story on page 3.)

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

FIRST TRAFFIC GOES OVER NEW $1,345,000 DES PLAINES VALLEY BRIDGE. Cars proceeding over the main bridge on the new Mannheim road viaduct over the Des Plaines valley yesterday after ribbon cutting ceremony attended by county officials. The viaduct connects with 79th street, Archer and 96th avenues. (Story on page 17.)

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

REPUBLICAN CONGRESS CANDIDATE VISITS TRIBUNE EXPERIMENT FARM. Milton E. Jones (right), running mate of C. Wayland Brooks in race for congressman at large, with Clarence Thurow, farm manager (center), and Frank Ridgway of The Tribune, as he inspected pure blooded cattle. (Story on page 20.)

SEIZE "DR." BROWN. Spencer Brown, ex-convict, seized with three others and $53,000 stolen bonds. (Story on page 3.)

PROSECUTORS OPEN STATE'S CASE AGAINST FIFTEEN DEFENDANTS IN TNT CONSPIRACY TRIAL BEFORE JUDGE BROTHERS. Group of defendants and lawyers in court of Judge William V. Brothers yesterday as state made opening statements. Those numbered are (1) John Sheridan Sr., (2) Attorney Everett Jennings, (3) John Steffen, (4) Tony Palumbo, (5) Attorney Thomas Johnson, (6) David Reese, (7) Charles J. Wilson, (8) Attorney Rocco De Stefano, (9) John Baggot, (10) John Bransfield, (11) James Farmer, (12) Attorney Joseph Harrington, (13) Marcus (Studdy) Looney, (14) James Waldt, and (15) Attorney Michael Ahern. (TRIBUNE Photo.) (Story on page 1.)

CANDIDATE ASSAILS NEW DEAL RADICALISM. C. Wayland Brooks, Republican candidate for congressman at large, as he spoke yesterday at rally in the Erlanger theater, rapping the policies of the administration. (TRIBUNE Photo.) (Story on page 6.)