

$10,000 IN CASH PRIZES for solving MISPLACED FACES OF MOVIE STARS

LAST CHANCE TO ENTER TRIBUNE CONTEST!

FREE TO ALL!

★ ★ ★ FOR the benefit of those who have not yet started this new $10,000 Cash Prize Contest we reprint today the first two sets of Misplaced Faces of Movie Stars together with Set No. 3. You can start with these. They will count!

If you have already started, continue with Set No. 3 printed here. Get Set No. 4 next Sunday.

Each set of pictures, when cut apart and assembled properly, will make complete portraits of famous movie stars.

Simply put the pictures together as they should be and name the stars. That is all you have to do. The Chicago Tribune will pay $10,000 in Cash Prizes to the persons who submit the best answers. There are 428 BIG prizes.

THE RULES:

WHO CAN ENTER: Every man, woman, boy and girl is eligible, regardless of residence, excepting employees of the Chicago Tribune, employees of Balaban & Katz Theaters, and members of their families.

WHAT TO DO: The pictures must be cut apart, assembled and pasted together. Below each picture must be written the name of the star. You may trim off rough edges if you wish to make perfect rectangular pictures. Three pictures will appear each Sunday in the Chicago Sunday Tribune until 36 pictures have appeared. Each set of three pictures, when cut apart and assembled properly, will make complete portraits.

WHERE TO SEND ENTRIES: DO NOT send in pictures one at a time. Hold all pictures until you have the complete set of 36. Then send them to "Misplaced Faces," Chicago Tribune, Post Office Box 1539, Chicago, Illinois. No entry will be returned. All entries must be in by midnight 15 days after Set No. 12 is published. Each entry must be sent by first class mail, postage prepaid. Entries with insufficient postage will be returned by the Post Office Department.

THE PRIZES: The Chicago Tribune will pay 428 cash prizes totaling $10,000 to the persons who send in the nearest correctly solved and nearest complete sets of pictures in accordance with these rules. See prize list below. You do not necessarily have to solve each of the 36 pictures correctly to win. Prizes will be paid to the persons whose entries rank highest. Elaborate entries are not necessary. Just make your entry simple and neat.

JUDGING: Entries will be judged by a committee appointed by the Chicago Tribune. Entrants agree to accept this committee's decision as final. Accuracy in assembling and naming the pictures, and neatness of entry will be the sole determining factors. In case of ties, duplicate awards will be paid.

NOTHING TO BUY: It is not necessary to buy the Chicago Tribune to compete. You may copy or trace the pictures. The Tribune may be examined at any of its offices or at public libraries free of charge.

Set No. 1

CLUE: The forehead is that of a star who came from Sweden. The eyes and nose are those of a star whose first and last names begin with the same letter. The mouth and chin are those of a star currently playing in "China Seas."

CLUE: The forehead is that of a star who played opposite Clark Gable in a picture that won national acclaim. Eyes and nose—attach to the proper forehead and chin and you will recognize them. The mouth and chin are those of a star known for her dramatic roles.

CLUE: The forehead is that of a star famous for her platinum hair. The eyes and nose are those of a star noted for her aloofness. If you saw the film, "Cleopatra," you saw the star whose mouth and chin are pictured here.

Set No. 2

CLUE: The forehead is that of a beloved humorist and political commentator. The eyes and nose are those of a star who was a banker before becoming an actor. The mouth and chin are those of a star whose wife's first name is Dixie.

CLUE: The forehead is that of an actor who was born in Racine, Wisconsin, in '98. The eyes and nose are those of a star who is the father of twins. The mouth and chin are those of a beloved character of the screen, stage and radio.

CLUE: The forehead is that of a famous crooner. The eyes and nose are those of a national figure recently killed in an airplane crash. If you saw "Les Miserables," you saw the mouth and chin pictured here.

Set No. 3

CLUE: The forehead is that of a young star who was one of the first to face the natural color camera. (Chicagoans can see her this week at a loop Balaban & Katz Theater.) The eyes and nose are those of a star who is known as one of the four American beauties. The mouth and chin are those of the leading lady in the dramatic spectacle, "The Crusades."

CLUE: The forehead is that of a star whose screen career began at the age of four years. The eyes and nose are those of a star who appears in "Barbary Coast." The mouth and chin are those of a former Ziegfeld Follies star. (Chicagoans can see her this week at an outlying Balaban & Katz Theater.)

CLUE: The forehead is that of a star who is the founder of a children's clinic. The eyes and nose are those of a star whose sister's name is Sally Blane. (Chicagoans can see her this week at a loop Balaban & Katz Theater.) The mouth and chin are those of a Southern beauty.
