

A PRIZE PHOTO—With this picture of a mounted policeman in the shadow of the elevated, Frank M. Moore of The Tribune staff took first place and the Barnack medal of merit at the Third International Leica show at the Blackstone hotel.

IN THEIR ROYAL FATHER'S STEAD—In white fur coats, Crown Prince Baudoin (right) and Princess Charlotte represent King Leopold of the Belgians at a Brussels mass. (Planet News photo, from the Chicago Tribune's London bureau.)

CAT WALK—A cleated ramp provides egress for the family tabby's nocturnal strolls at the Quincy, Mass., home of Mrs. Margaret Curry. (Associated Press photo.)

KNOCKING HIMSELF OUT—Dave Levin misses a flying tackle at Dean Detton in a New York wrestling bout, plunging through the ropes to the floor painfully injured and thus ending the match. (International photo.)