MISS D. M. GRAND HAVEN, MICH.

Miss M. is steadfast, logical, and has enviable poise. She is not the impulsive type, and although she is wholehearted, her reason guides her. Her taste is excellent, and her touch light. Her perception and judgment are particularly good.

MISS G. A. EAU CLAIRE, WIS.

Here the forehead and brows signify good mental gifts. Miss A. is level headed and able to analyze most situations, but she is not sufficiently enterprising. She is a bit too placid; if she were more assertive she would be able to make better use of her gifts.

MISS M. S. LIMA, OHIO.

Miss S. is discerning, self-reliant, systematic, and observant. Business is her field, judging by her qualifications. She has a keen mind, good judgment, and firmness of purpose. She should guard against being too restrained; a little impulsiveness would temper her matter-of-factness nicely.

MISS A. J. CENTERVILLE, IA.

Here is a generous, tolerant, original and capable girl, whose snap judgments will rival other persons' most studious observations. She is keen witted and clever, with imagination that makes her creative and determination that makes her industrious.

MISS M. S. LEAD, S. D.

This face indicates a beautifully balanced character. Miss S.'s finely chiseled mouth signifies refinement and fastidiousness; her clear and wide set eyes indicate a tranquil spirit and an excellent intelligence. She has a will of her own, but she is not intolerant.

MISS A. G. MT. CARROLL, ILL.

Miss G. is markedly feminine in characteristics. She has patience, intuition, resourcefulness, and imagination, besides real common sense. She is generous and affectionate, and has kindness that is endearing.

MISS E. I. W. LAFAYETTE, IND.

Miss I.'s is a charming personality. She is extremely sensitive and has a strong aesthetic sense, but she is a worker as well as a dreamer. She is a person of almost uncompromising principles, and is idealistic, but not at the expense of practicality. Her refinement is evident.

MISS B. S. OAK PARK, ILL. The proportions and spacing of Miss S.'s features show that she is the possessor of some traits rarely found in one of her sex. She has an excellent mind, capable of analysis and deep understanding, and she has forcefulness that will insure her success. She has a good sense of humor.

MISS G. S. MILWAUKEE, WIS.

Miss S. is rather a contradictory person. She is animated, demonstrative and optimistic to a marked degree, but she does not lack good common sense. She is keen witted and fairly strong willed, and she is capable of untiring effort to reach her goal.

MISS L. K. CHICAGO

The contour and features here are indicative of traits that contribute to a charming personality. Miss K. is intelligent, even tempered, progressive, and has remarkable strength of character. Her sense of values and her innate truthfulness are strongly evident.
