

THE NO. 1 BACK OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL, Clint Frank of Yale, turns undivided attention to study with his campus gridiron career behind him. An early bird, he . . .

KNOTS HIS TIE AT 7:15 A. M. Majoring in economics, he graduates next June. He writes of his progress in . . .

A LETTER to the home folks at Evanston, Ill.

Tribune photos

Farewell to Football

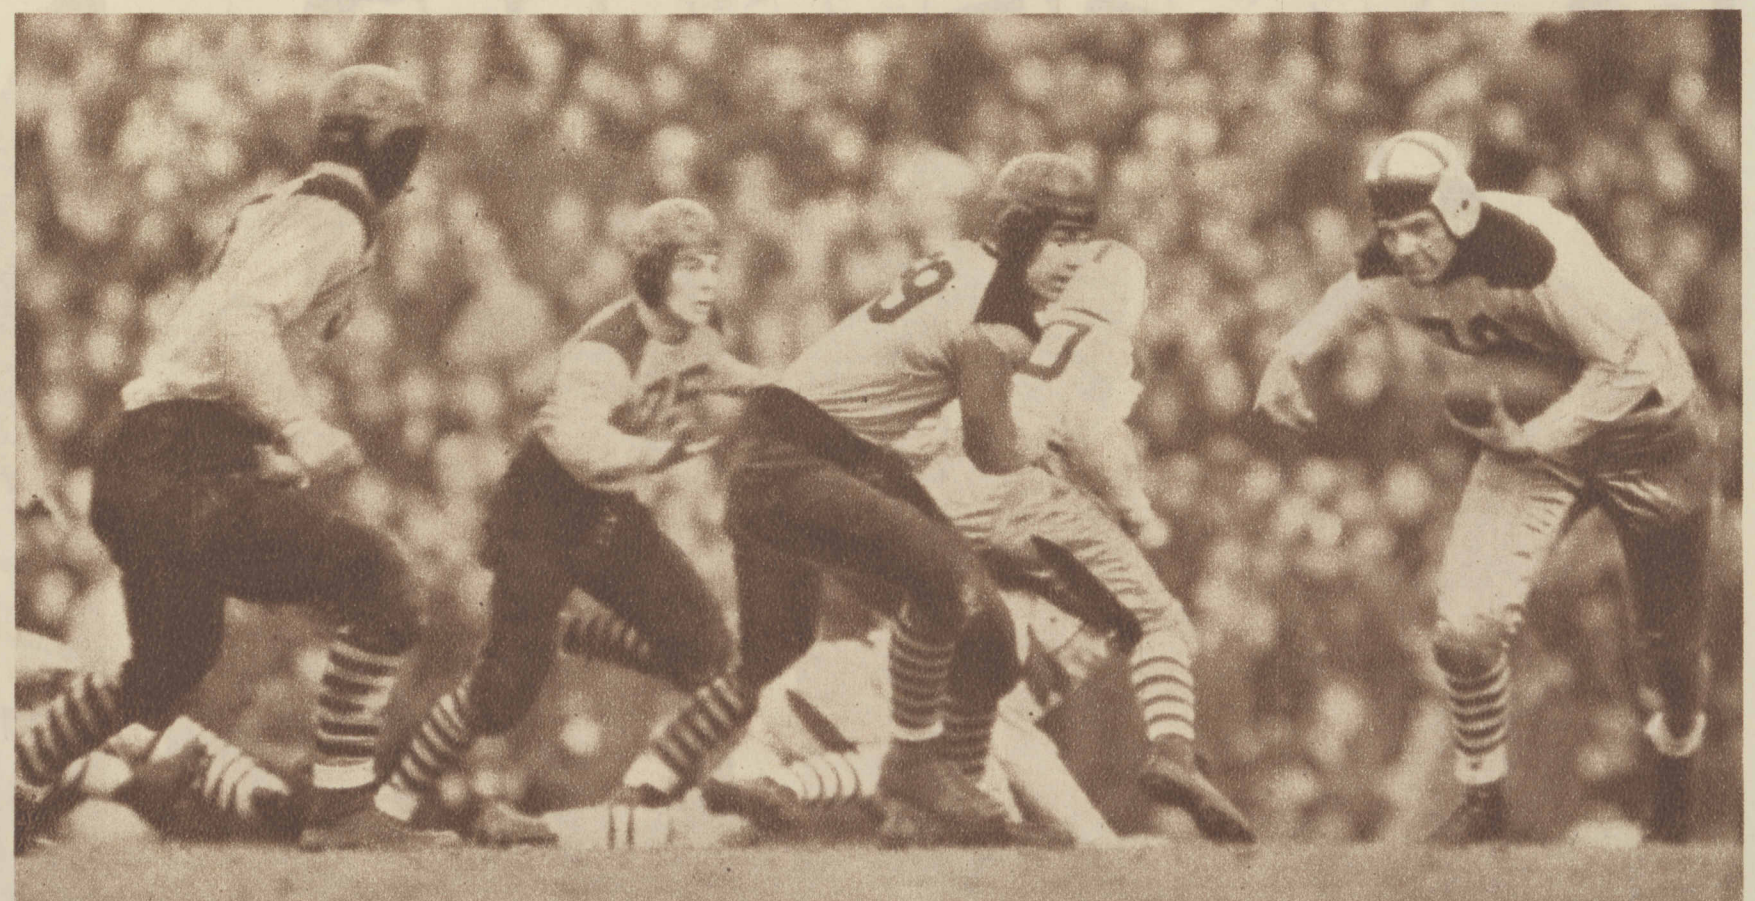

THE POST-FOOTBALL SOCIAL SEASON ON THE CAMPUS GOES INTO HIGH—Alpha Omicron Pi sorority girls of Northwestern university give a house party, serving sweet cider (unspiked) and doughnuts. There was . . .

DANCING.

Party photos by Frank Moore of the Tribune staff
A FULL BACK INJURED in the Notre Dame game, Jay Laskay, calls on Miss Lee Gorman at the Alpha Omicron Pi house.

THE NO. 1 BACK OF HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL, Bill de Correvont of Austin (carrying the ball), ends his prep days by leading his team to the Chicago city title in a 26 to 0 triumph over Leo before 120,000 spectators, the season's record crowd. De Correvont scored three of Austin's touchdowns, passed for the fourth.

Associated Press photo