

A PICTORIAL PARADE OF AMERICAN PLANES

PRESENTING FOR YOUR SCRAPBOOK: THE FIRST MAIL PLANE TO SPAN THE PACIFIC—Newest and biggest flying boat built in the United States is this Martin ocean transport, the China Clipper, which inaugurated the 8,000 mile air mail line between the Pacific coast and the Philippines. This is the first of a number of American planes which will be pictured in this section, in proportionate scale. For convenience in mounting in a loose leaf folder, filing markers are printed at the left. . . . The China Clipper is able to carry 30 passengers and mail or express for 3,000 miles nonstop. Top speed at 7,000 feet, 180 miles per hour; at sea level, 167 miles. The flying boat weighs approximately 26 tons. It has a wing spread of 130 feet, and the hull is 90 feet long and 24 feet deep. Engines are four twin Wasps developing 800 horsepower each at 7,000 feet. Next week: Another great American plane.

$10,000 IN CASH PRIZES for solving MISPLACED FACES OF MOVIE STARS

Set No. 9

CLUE: The forehead is that of an actor whose last name denotes a musical sound. (Chicagoans can see him this week at a loop Balaban & Katz Theater.) The eyes and nose are those of a star whose initials are the same as the abbreviation of a physician's title. The mouth and chin are those of an actor who frequently has been cast in roles that are mean and brutal.

THE RULES

WHO CAN ENTER: Every man, woman, boy and girl is eligible, regardless of residence, excepting employees of the Chicago Tribune, employees of Balaban & Katz theaters and members of their families. WHAT TO DO: The pictures must be cut apart, assembled and pasted together. Below each picture must be written the name of the star. You may trim off rough edges if you wish to make perfect rectangular pictures. Three pictures will appear each Sunday in the Chicago Sunday Tribune until 36 pictures have appeared. Each set of three pictures, when cut apart and assembled properly, will make complete portraits.

CLUE: The forehead is that of a star whose last name contains an expression of merriment. (Chicagoans can see him this week at a loop Balaban & Katz Theater.) The eyes and nose are those of a star recently married to an actress who frequently co-stars with him. The mouth and chin are those of an actor who starred in a recent picture with Claudette Colbert.

WHERE TO SEND ENTRIES: DO NOT send in pictures one at a time. Hold all pictures until you have the complete set of 36. Then send them to "Misplaced Faces," Chicago Tribune, Post Office Box 1539, Chicago, Illinois. No entry will be returned. All entries must be in by midnight 15 days after Set No. 12 is published. Each entry must be sent by first class mail, postage prepaid. Entries with insufficient postage will be returned by the Post Office Department.

THE PRIZES: The Chicago Tribune will pay 428 cash prizes totaling $10,000 to the persons who send in the nearest correctly solved and neatest complete sets of pictures in accordance with these rules. See prize list above. You do not necessarily have to solve each of CLUE: The forehead is that of a star whose last name is the same as that of a famous American statesman in Abraham Lincoln's time. (Chicagoans can see him this week at a loop Balaban & Katz Theater.) The eyes and nose are those of a character actor who has made several pictures in England. You saw this mouth and chin in "No More Ladies."

the 36 pictures correctly to win. Prizes will be paid to the persons whose entries rank highest. Elaborate entries are not necessary. Just make your entry simple and neat.

JUDGING: Entries will be judged by a committee appointed by the Chicago Tribune. Entrants agree to accept this committee's decision as final. Accuracy in assembling and naming the pictures, and neatness of entry will be the sole determining factors. In case of ties, duplicate awards will be paid.

NOTHING TO BUY: It is not necessary to buy the Chicago Tribune to compete. You may copy or trace the pictures. The Tribune may be examined at any of its offices or at public libraries free of charge.
