

SOCIETY

Chicago Debutantes

MISS THEODOSIA SMITH is the daughter of Mrs. Theodore White Smith, who gave a buffet supper dance on Dec. 9 at the Fortnightly to present her to society.

MISS MARY ELIZABETH JOHNSTON is the daughter of Hugh McBirney Johnston of 1425 State parkway. Her debut tea was canceled because of the death of her grandmother, but she is to make her bow at a ball Mr. Johnston and the William B. Greenlees are to give at the Blackstone on Dec. 20 for her and Miss Isabel Greenlee.

For Connoisseurs in Living

FOR connoisseurs in fine living, who seek out the smart in their homes only when it is consonant with good taste, there comes now a new and fastidious type of bed linen — Pacific BROADCLOTH Sheets and Pillow Cases.

For the first time all the luxury, the sheen, the gracious texture of fine broadcloth are offered in sheets of surpassing quality. In tone, they are a rich white. In weave, exquisite. In finish, leisurely soft and inviting.

This unique looming of Pacific Broadcloth Sheets, with all the care that former generations were wont to put into their rare, hand-woven trousseau linens, gives them extra staunchness. Pacific guarantees each sheet to give more than three years' household wear!

Finished fittingly with ribbon selvedge. Wide top hems, plain or finely hemstitched. All desirable widths and the wanted longer lengths. And priced but little more than the ordinary.
