

WAR bursts upon Africa as Mussolini's armies stage an autumnal march into Ethiopia.
(Associated Press photo.)

EDITOR WALTER W. LIGGETT, crusader against political corruption and the underworld, and editorial assailant of Gov. Floyd Olson of Minnesota, is a December victim of machine gun assassins.
(Acme photo.)

THE TRAFIC TOLL continues to emulate war casualty lists. A symbol: Samuel Samonoff of New York, who discovers the victim of an accident is his own wife.
(Associated Press photo.)

BRUNO RICHARD HAUPTMANN is doomed to death for the kidnaping of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr. Above: Col. Lindbergh on the stand in January at Flemington, N. J.
(Acme photo.)

1935: HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR IN PICTURES

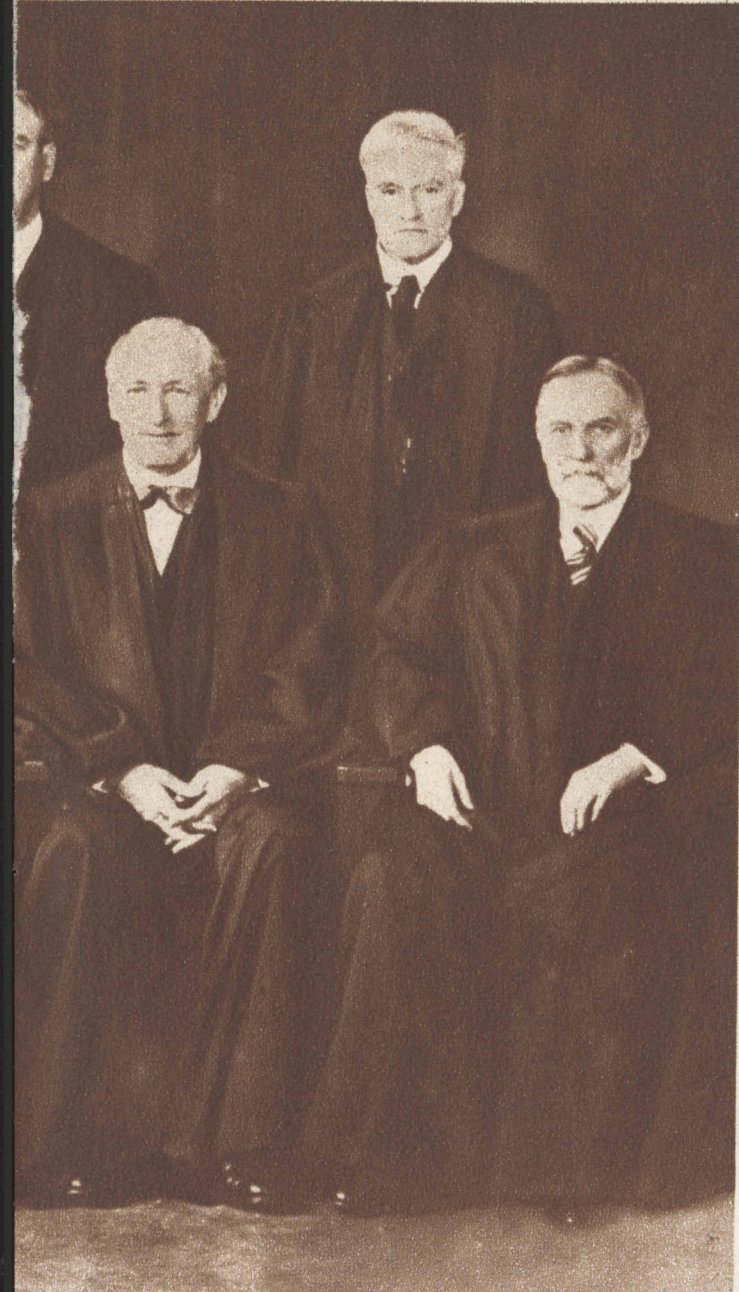

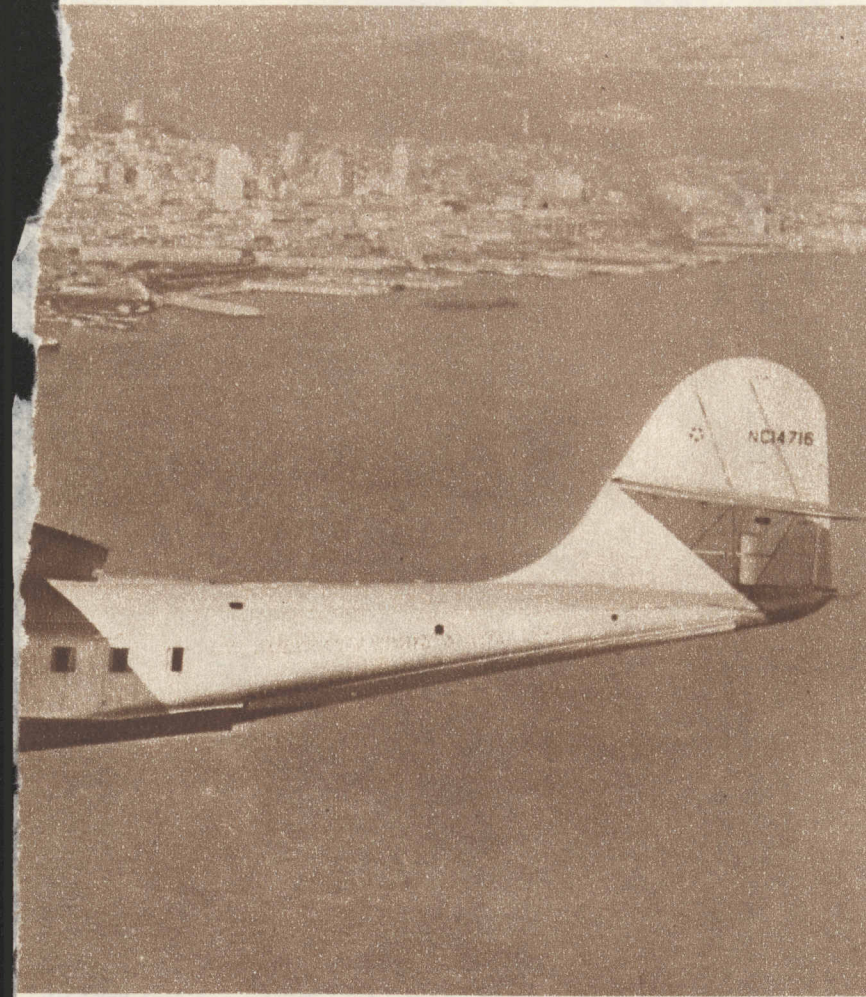

TRANSPACIFIC AIR MAIL becomes a reality with the November flight of the China Clipper from the Golden Gate (at right) to Manila and back.

NRA goes to the unconstitutional junk pile in May, a United States Supreme court decision jolting the New Deal with its greatest defeat to date. Seated: Justices Brandeis and Van Devanter; Chief Justice Hughes; Justices McReynolds and Sutherland. Standing: Justices Roberts, Butler, Stone, Cardozo.
(Acme photo.)

WILL ROGERS AND WILEY POST crash to death in the wreckage of this plane in an Alaskan tragedy of August.
(Associated Press photo.)

THE PHILIPPINES install a president. Above: Air view of the November ceremonies in Manila.
(Acme photo.)

THE STRATOSPHERE is pierced for a record altitude of 72,395 feet in the November flight of the Explorer II, at Rapid City.
(© National Geographic society photo.)

JOE LOUIS, Golden Gloves champion, whips Max Baer in September and Paulino Uzcudun in December along the heavyweight title trail. Above: A left to Baer's jaw.
(Acme photo.)

HUEY LONG is assassinated by Dr. Carl A. Weiss Jr., who in turn is slain by the senator's bodyguard; and throngs witness the September funeral (above) on the Louisiana state house lawn.
(Acme photo.)

HURRICANE in September snuffs out the lives of 282 war veterans on Florida keys as they await the rescue train that never came.
(Associated Press photo.)