

SOCIETY

DIPLOMATIC BELLES—Two popular members of Washington's younger official set are the Princesses Antoinette and Elizabeth de Ligne, daughters of the Belgian ambassador. They appear here in a personally selected portrait.

(Photograph from Underwood & Underwood.)

LIKEWISE of the diplomatic set, and prominent in Washington for social activity, is Baroness Marie Louise von Prittwitz, wife of the German ambassador. Nee Countess Strachwitz, she is a member of an old Silesian family.

(Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

A ROYAL RUSSIAN VISITOR—Her Imperial Highness the Grand Duchess Marie of Russia, first cousin of the late Czar Nicholas II., was in Chicago recently on her way to the west coast for Christmas. She is the former wife of Prince Wilhelm of Sweden.

(Photograph from Wide World.)

A ROCKEFELLER BRIDE and her husband, pictured after their wedding at New York. Mrs. Brooks Emeny was Miss Winifred Rockefeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rockefeller; and Mr. Emeny is an instructor in international relations at Yale.

(Photograph from International.)

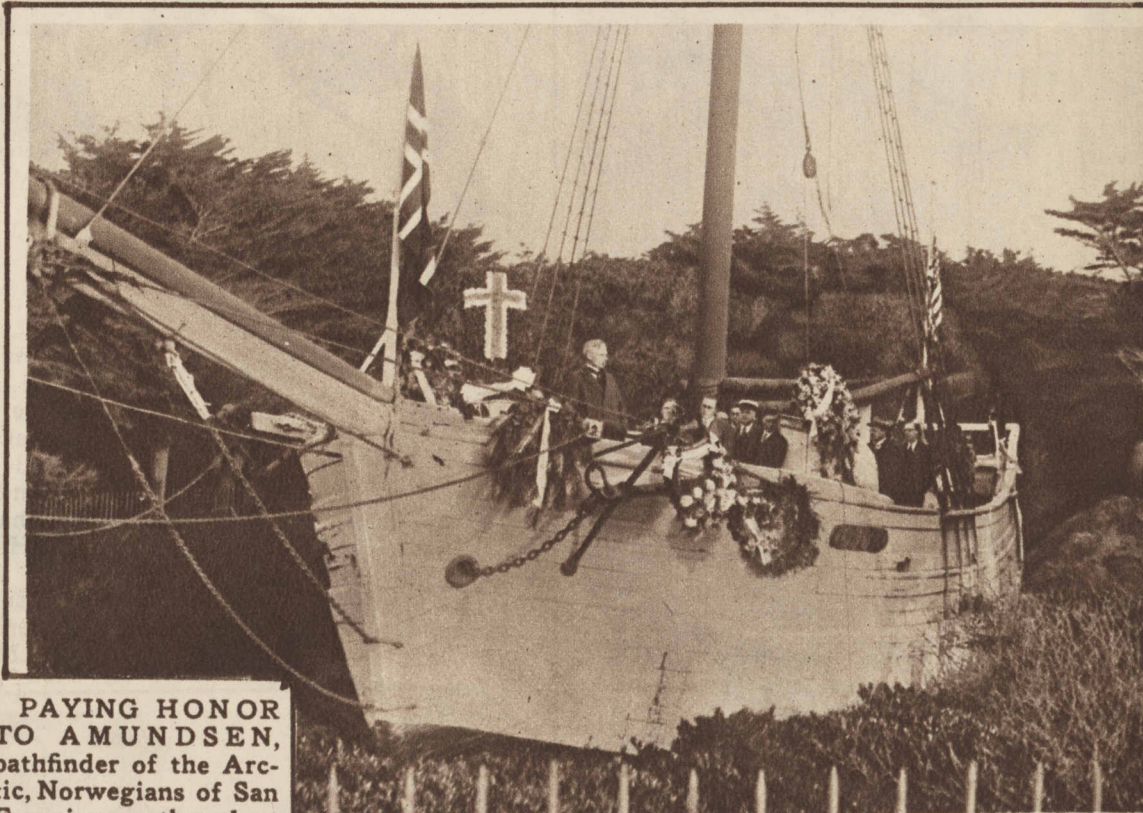

ETHEL BARRYMORE IN SCULPTURE will adorn a skyscraper. This statue of the famous actress, by A. Stirling Calder, is to decorate the facade of a new building in New York. The sculptor sits beside it.

(Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

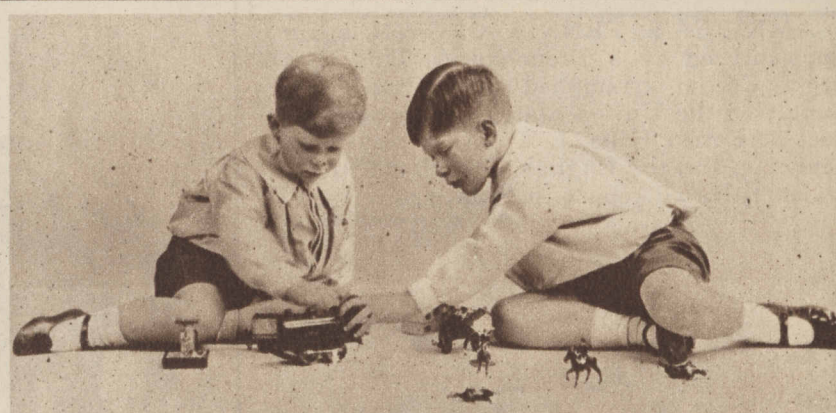

A NEW THRILL in big game hunting has been invented by Donald Ker of Africa, who goes out to the chase by motorcycle. The leopard is one of seven he has thus bagged.

(Photograph from International.)

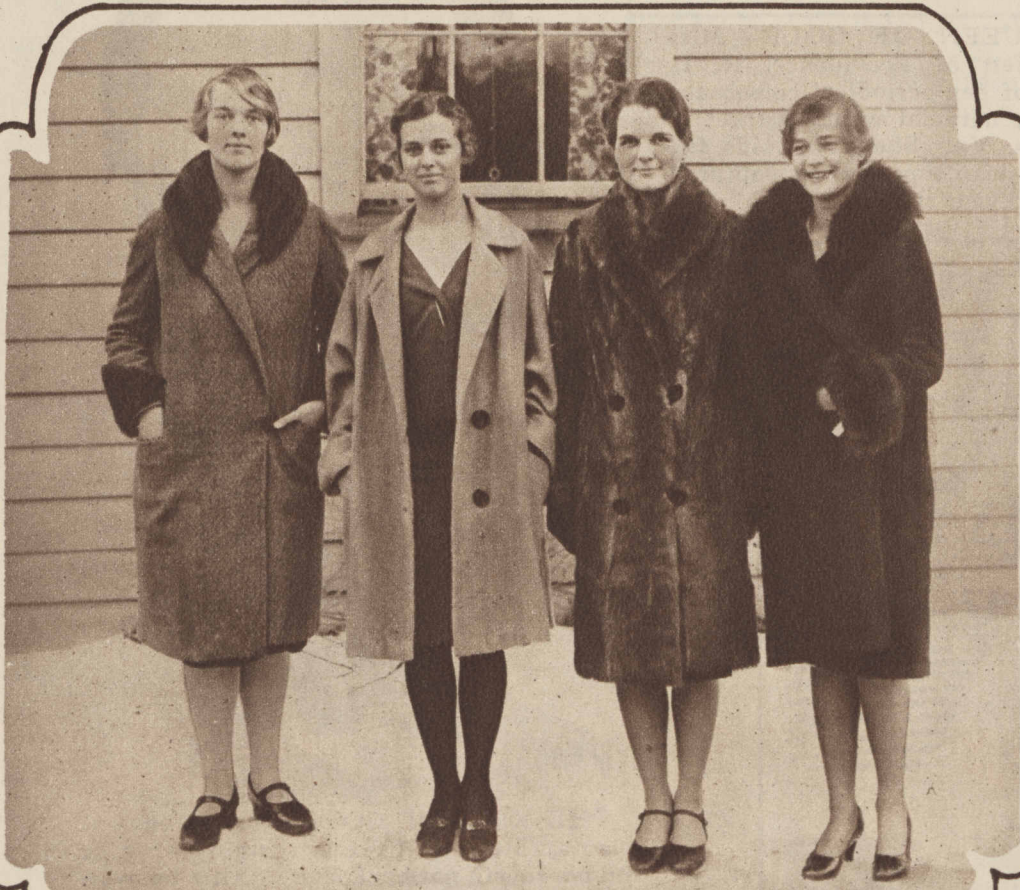

PAYING HONOR TO AMUNDSEN, pathfinder of the Arctic, Norwegians of San Francisco gathered at the Gjoa, the little fishing boat in which the explorer first won fame by navigation of the northwest passage. There was a note of mourning for Amundsen's heroic death, which resulted from his flight into the north to attempt the rescue of Gen. Nobile and his party of the ill-fated Italia.

(Photograph from P. & A.)

KING GEORGE'S GRANDSONS, the Hon. George and Gerald Lascelles, enjoyed their Christmas toys just like any other children.

(Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

WELLESLEY'S CLASS PRESIDENTS include a Chicago girl. Here they are: Miss Frances Eldridge, freshman; Miss Elizabeth Granger, sophomore; Miss M. Carr of Chicago, junior, and Miss Alice Abbott, senior.

(Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

GERMANY'S FAIREST—Fraulein Rodzyn, in the center, a 20-year-old Berlin girl, has been chosen Germany's beauty queen. On the left is the lass who won second prize, and on the right is the winner of third honors.

(Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)

REINALD WERRENRATH'S FAMILY held a reunion when the noted singer gave a concert at Tabor academy, Marion, Mass. With Mr. and Mrs. Werrenrath as they faced the camera were George and Reinald Jr., students at Tabor, and Dorothy.

(Photograph from Pacific and Atlantic.)