On other days the Bargaining Unit Member will work the same shift as the other members of the crew, except by agreement.
- I. EXCEPTION: The normal Summer work day for Maintenance and Custodial Bargaining Unit Members will be 7 A.M. to 3 P.M.

All time worked over eight (8) hours in one day or over forty (40) hours in one week Monday through Friday will be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1-1/2); provided that overtime rates shall not be paid as a result of bargaining unit members trading shifts for their own convenience. The person with the least seniority in the building department may refuse to work overtime once. If all employees within the building department refuse to work overtime a second time, the least senior Bargaining Unit Member must then perform the work.
 2. Overtime will be covered by the use of the Overtime Chart and will be offered to each Bargaining Unit member in rotation based on seniority. Overtime that is missed will be charged on the Overtime Chart for the purposes of balancing the overtime in L (1) above.
- N. Overtime that is unused by a Bargaining Unit Member who has suffered injury on the job will not be charged against him/her on the Overtime Chart for one (1) calendar year. Upon his/her return, effort will be made to adjust this loss by giving him/her first assignment on the overtime as much as possible.

- P. Substitutes will be obtained as required but first an offer will be made for the time to the other Bargaining Unit members in the same classification regularly assigned to the building and possessing the necessary qualifications and certifications. When a substitute is called for a Bargaining Unit Member, it is understood that the substitute shall perform the work in the position that remains after all moves are made. A substitute shall be used only when a Bargaining Unit Member is absent or when an unfilled temporary vacancy exists. All work including peripheral work will be offered to other Bargaining Unit Members, including those on layoff, prior to being offered to a substitute.
- Q. When substitutes are called for Bargaining Unit members, those Bargaining Unit Members working at a lower rate of pay and possessing the necessary qualifications and certifications than the absent Bargaining Unit Member will have an opportunity to move into a position which offers a greater rate of pay until there is a final position vacant for the substitute. The Bargaining Unit Member shall receive the higher rate of pay of the position they move into.
- R. Whenever an event at the school, during the school year, requires the use of the food service department, at least one culinary bargaining unit member shall be allowed to work the event. Such assignment shall be offered on the basis of seniority, by rotation.
- S. All school year employees shall be allowed to work at least a one-hundred eighty day year, regardless of any changes to the teacher school year calendar. On any such days when school is not in session, employees may choose not to work such days with the approval of their supervisor.

ARTICLE IX---COMPENSATION

- A. Hourly Pay Rates (Wage Schedule See Appendix B):
- B. Thirty cents ($.30) per hour premium shall be given to the night shift (3:00 p.m. – 11:00 p.m.). Night premium will not be paid to night shift workers for work done on the day shift during the Christmas or Spring Breaks or during the summer. Night shift workers otherwise called in early shall receive the night premium. Lead custodian positions shall be eliminated from this agreement but those employees currently receiving the additional forty cents per hour shall continue to receive that premium until he/she retires or leaves the district.

- F. An annual expense reimbursement of one hundred sixty dollars ($160.00) shall be granted to each Custodial, Maintenance, and Culinary Bargaining Unit member for shoes and/or uniforms. Said reimbursement shall be included in the employee paycheck on the next payday after receipts have been turned in to the business office.
- G. Fifteen cents ($.15) per hour will be added to the hourly wage rate for those Bargaining Unit members certified by American School Food Services Association in the Culinary Department.

ARTICLE X---WORKLOAD AND ASSIGNMENTS

- A. The Board has the right to establish new positions and assign the classification and rate of pay for that position.
- B. The Association reserves the right to negotiate wages, hours, and other conditions of employment for these positions and will, if deemed necessary, ask for a meeting with the representatives of the Board to discuss the conditions, hours and wages for a new position and in those cases where agreement cannot be reached, the Association will have the right to process the matter through the grievance procedure.
- C. In those cases where a bargaining unit position undergoes a substantial change in responsibilities, the Bargaining Unit Member involved or the Association may contest the rate of pay, hours and conditions of employment in the same manner described for new positions and in the event the parties fail to reach agreement, the Association will have the right to process the dispute through the grievance procedure.

- D. It is agreed that job descriptions may be the proper subject for the grievance procedure, after the description is written.
- E. The employer agrees that supervisors or non-unit personnel shall not be used at any time to displace Bargaining Unit Members regularly employed in the bargaining unit, except in emergencies when Bargaining Unit Members are not available or have refused to do the work as assigned except in cases where unsafe conditions are being charged by a Bargaining Unit Member. For purposes of this provision, an emergency shall be defined as an unforeseen circumstance or a combination of circumstances which call for immediate action in a situation which is not expected to recur.
- F. Custodians are expected to perform repairs and replacement tasks which may be performed without the assistance of the maintenance person or contracted service.
- G. No bargaining unit member shall be required except in an emergency or as referenced below, to perform tasks which would normally be associated with qualified medical personnel (e.g. catheterization, stoma bags, injections, suctioning etc.). Should a member accept such assignment, he/she shall be provided with full training at no cost to the bargaining unit member and safety equipment necessary for the work. Any member performing such duties on a voluntary basis or as referenced here below shall be paid an additional twenty five cents ($.25) per hour. This work shall first be offered to the classroom or building employee who has regular contact with the situation. If such bargaining unit member is not able to accept this assignment, work will be offered to the rest of the employees in that classification and then to the rest of the bargaining unit (if they are able to be made available) on the basis of seniority. If no one volunteers for the work, the Administration may assign the work.

Work areas shall have adequate first aid equipment and members shall receive instruction in their use. Bargaining unit members shall be provided with the proper equipment and training at no cost to the bargaining unit member for dealing with situations involving possible blood-borne pathogens or situations which may require contact with the body fluids of another person.

ARTICLE XI---SENIORITY

- A. Seniority shall be defined as length of service within the district as of the Bargaining Unit Member's first working day in the department. In the circumstance of more than one individual beginning employment on the same date, all individuals so affected will participate in a drawing to determine position on the seniority list.
- B. A Bargaining Unit Member shall lose his/her seniority rights if he/she retires, resigns or is discharged for just cause.

In the case of a tie, the affected members shall participate in a drawing to be conducted by the Association to determine the order on the seniority list.

ARTICLE XII---VACANCIES, TRANSFER AND PROMOTIONS

- A. A vacancy shall be defined for purposes of this Agreement as a position previously held by a Bargaining Unit Member, or a newly created position within the bargaining unit. No vacancy shall be filled until it has been posted for at least ten (10) working days.
- B. Whenever a vacancy occurs, the Business Office shall immediately notify the Association. Notice of such vacancy shall be sent to the Association Secretary. A copy of the vacancy notice shall be mailed to each laid-off Bargaining Unit Member and posted in each building office.
- C. The Board declares its support of a policy of filling vacancies from within the bargaining unit except where as maybe impacted by the Board's discretion regarding subcontracting or the use of volunteers. Therefore, each vacancy shall have a minimum set of qualifications which will be developed jointly by the Administration and the Association prior to posting. The vacancy shall be filled on the basis of seniority from candidates possessing the above qualifications first on seniority within the department, and then by seniority within the school system.
- D. Any Bargaining Unit Member may request a transfer after the satisfactory completion of the probationary period, which shall be for a period of ninety (90) days. The Bargaining Unit Member shall remain in any new assignment for a period of one (1) year before being eligible to apply for another transfer, unless conditions prevail where change would be in the best interests of the Board and the Bargaining Unit Member.
- E. Request for transfer shall be made in writing, one copy of which shall be filed with the Business Office and one copy shall be filed with the Association.
- F. Unless a vacancy is filled through subcontracting or a volunteer, Bargaining Unit Members who have requested transfers shall be given preference over new appointments or promotions to available vacancies within their same classification. Involuntary transfers will be made only for reasonable and just cause. Bargaining Unit Members shall not be placed on a lower step of the pay scale due to involuntary transfers or a temporary assignment to another position.
- G. All promotional positions shall be announced in all work locations. Any Bargaining Unit Member who assumes a position of higher rank in any of the classifications outlined in schedule B of this contract shall be placed on that step of the pay schedule which would be more, but not less than, his/her current rate of pay as of the effective date of his/her assignment.
- H. All promotions shall be made in accordance with the levels and criteria established in the job descriptions on file in the Business Office. Bargaining Unit Members who are considered for promotion must be willing to accept an assignment anywhere within the school system.

- F. Laid off Bargaining Unit Members shall be rehired in accordance with Department seniority; that is, the Bargaining Unit Member with the greatest seniority shall be rehired first; provided they have the ability and are physically able to perform the duties of the job that is open. Laid off Bargaining Unit Members shall remain on the recall list for a period of ten (10) years.

When rehiring laid off Bargaining Unit Members, the School District will notify them by certified mail at their last known address, as provided by the employee. If such Bargaining Unit member does not notify the School District within ten (10) days from the mailing date of such notice that he/she will report for work on the date specified, or give reasons for delay beyond such time, he/she shall be considered as having quit and all seniority shall be terminated. If the person called is not readily available, the School District may call the next Bargaining Unit Member in line and he/she shall be given a minimum of five (5) days work, after which the proper person could come in to work. If the employee is not readily available the second time, he/she shall be considered as having quit and all seniority shall be terminated.

- G. In the event of a reduction in the work hours in a department, Bargaining Unit Members with the greater seniority may use same to maintain his/her normal work schedule by displacing Bargaining Unit Members with less seniority on the work schedule.
