The alternate steward shall serve in the absence of the steward. The Union shall notify the Board in writing of the names of such persons and such changes as may occur from time to time in such personnel so that the Board may at all times be advised as to the authority of the individual representatives of the Union with whom it may be dealing. Until the Board has received written notice from the Union, it shall not be required to deal with such employees purporting to be representatives.
- B. It is understood that grievance problems shall be handled at times other than when the employee is at work. In the event, however, in the handling of a grievance it becomes necessary for the steward to leave his work, he shall first obtain permission from his supervisor or principal and such permission shall be granted, provided that his work schedule can be maintained without additional help. The privilege of the steward leaving his work during working hours without loss of time or pay is subject to the understanding that such time shall be devoted to the proper handling of the grievance; this will be done as expediently and with as little interruption of work as possible. Any alleged abuse will be grounds for disciplinary action and/or the discontinuation of the above-mentioned privilege by said individual.
- C. Neither the Union nor any of the officers nor any steward nor any other representative or employee shall advise or direct employees to disregard the instructions of supervisors or administrators unless such instruction would endanger the health or safety of employees or other persons.

The members of the Union shall not lose time or pay for time spent in such special conferences. This meeting may be attended by a representative of MESPA.

- E. The Union representative may meet at a place designated by the employee on the Employer's property for at least one-half hour immediately preceding the conference with the representative of the Employer for which a written request has been made.
- F. The Employer will provide bulletin boards, or sections thereof, in a conspicuous place, for the purpose of posting Union materials. The Union shall also have the right to use school mails to distribute Union materials of the following types:
 - 1. Notice of Union recreational and Union social events.

- H. The Union shall have the right to the reasonable use of school facilities for Union meetings. The Union shall pay the reasonable costs of materials and supplies incident to the use of the same and shall be responsible for the proper operation and maintenance of such equipment and facilities.
- I. Nothing in this agreement shall limit in any way the rights of supervisors or the administration to perform bargaining unit work, with the following exceptions:
 - 1. Supervisors may drive extra bus trips only if bargaining unit employees are not available.
 - 2. No supervisor shall perform bargaining unit work if such performance shall cause the lay-off of any member of the bargaining unit regularly performing such work; and except further that in the event of a general reduction in force the terms and provisions of Article VIII herein shall apply.
 - 3. The administration shall not perform bargaining work except in an emergency situation.
- J. In order to provide continuing health protection for students, it shall be the policy of the Board that:

1. Upon initial employment, each employee will be required to have a medical examination certifying that the individual is capable of carrying out his particular assignment.
2. All employees must have a tuberculin skin test or chest x-ray as required by state law, the results of the same being filed with the personnel department when said results are available. The Employer will pay any costs required by the Michigan State Health Department in the providing of the tuberculin test.
3. A health certificate attesting to the continuing employability of the employee must be presented to the Board once every five (5) years after initial employment.

ARTICLE V - GRIEVANCE & ARBITRATION

- A. A grievance is defined as an alleged violation, misinterpretation, or inequitable application of a specific Article and/or Section of this agreement. If any such grievance arises, there shall be no stoppage or suspensions of work because of such grievance, but such grievance shall be submitted to the following grievance procedure.
- B. All time limits herein shall consist of working days. Time limits may be extended upon good cause shown or upon mutual consent of the parties. It is understood that the time limits shall set forth herein or agreed upon shall be considered as substantive, and failure to conform to them shall be in default by the party failing to conform. In any event, all grievances must be filed in writing within fifteen (15) days of the alleged violation.
- C. Step One. An employee who has a grievance shall first take it up with his immediate supervisor in an effort to resolve the matter informally.

Step Two.

- a. If an employee still feels he has a grievance, he shall discuss the grievance with the steward within two (2) days.
- b. The steward shall discuss the grievance with the immediate supervisor within two (2) days.
- c. If the matter is thereby not disposed of within two (2) days, it will be submitted within two (2) days in written form by the steward to the supervisor. The written grievance shall name the employee(s) involved, shall state the facts giving rise to the grievance, shall identify all the provisions of this agreement alleged to be violated by the appropriate reference, and shall indicate the relief requested.
- d. The immediate supervisor shall answer the grievance within two (2) days.

Step Three. If the written grievance has not been settled at Step Two, it shall be presented by the steward to the superintendent within seven (7) days after the supervisor's response is due. The superintendent shall respond in writing to the steward within seven (7) days.

Step Four. If the written grievance remains unsettled at Step Three, it shall be presented in writing by the Local Union President and/or Union representative to the Board of Education at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting. The Board shall respond in writing within ten (10) days of such hearing.

Step Five. If the answer at Step Four is not satisfactory, and the Union wishes to carry the grievance further, they shall notify the Board of Education of their decision within two (2) weeks or ten (10) working days whichever is longer. Within ten (10) days of such notification, the Board and Union shall meet for the purpose of selecting an arbitrator. If in the event they cannot agree on an arbitrator within five (5) days of the meeting set for that purpose, then an arbitrator shall be selected by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with their rules and procedures.

The Arbitrator shall hear the grievance in dispute and shall render his decision in writing. The arbitrator's decision shall set forth his findings and conclusions with respect to the issues submitted to arbitration.

POWERS OF THE ARBITRATOR

D. It shall be the function of the arbitrator, and he shall be empowered, except as his powers are limited below, to make a decision in cases of alleged violation of the specific Articles and Sections of this agreement.

1. There shall be no appeal from any arbitrator's decision. Each such decision shall be final and binding on the Union and its members, the employee or employees involved, and the Employer. The arbitrator shall make his judgment based on the express terms of this agreement, and shall have no authority to add to or subtract from, disregard, alter, or modify any of the terms of the agreement. Expenses for the arbitrator shall be shared equally between the Employer and the Union. All other expenses shall be borne by the party incurring them, and neither party shall be responsible for the expenses of witnesses called by the other.

2. If there is a question of the arbitrability of any grievance under the terms of this agreement, the arbitrator shall have to decide if the grievance is arbitrable. In the event that a case is appealed to an arbitrator on which he has no power to rule, it shall be referred back to the parties.

3. Claims for Back Pay: All grievances must be filed in writing within fifteen (15) days from the time the alleged violation was to have occurred. The Board shall not be required to pay back wages more than fifteen (15) days prior to the date a written grievance is filed.

a. No claim for back wages shall exceed the amount of wages the employee would otherwise have earned at this regular rate. Any settlement of back pay claim shall be limited to the amount of wages the employee would otherwise have earned from his employment with the district.

- b. No decision in any one case shall require a retroactive wage adjustment in any other case unless other cases were filed and pending on the representation case.
- E. The filing of a grievance shall in no way interfere with the right of the Board to proceed in carrying out its management responsibility, subject to the final decision of the grievance.
- F. Any written agreement reached between the Board and the Union is binding on all employees affected and cannot be changed by any individual.
- G. By mutual written agreement one representative grievance may be filed involving several listed employees grieving the same issue, and the ultimate disposition of the selected grievance shall then be applicable to the remaining listed employees.
- H. Withdrawal of Cases - After a case has been referred to the American Arbitration Association, the case may not be withdrawn by either party except by mutual consent.

ARTICLE VI - DISCHARGE & DISCIPLINE

- A. The Employer agrees to promptly notify any employee and the Union representative in writing of the discharge or the formal discipline of an employee in the district. The employee involved will be allowed to discuss his discharge or discipline with the steward of the district and the employer will make available an area where he may do so before he is required to leave the property of the Employer. Upon request, the Employer or his designated representative will discuss the discharge or discipline with the employee and the steward.
- B. Should the discharged or disciplined employee or the steward consider the discharge to be improper, a complaint shall be presented in writing through the steward to the employer beginning at Step Three of the grievance procedure within two (2) regularly scheduled working days of the discharge or discipline. Step Three of the grievance procedure will then be followed and if the decision is not satisfactory to the Union, the matter shall be referred to the rest of the grievance procedure. In opposing any discipline on a current charge, the Employer will not take into account any prior infractions which occurred more than two (2) years previously, "unless the employee's past written record demonstrates a pattern of serious misconduct which is the basis of the present discipline, then, the limit shall be extended to four years, but shall not precede June 30, 1981."
- C. Formal reprimands shall be in writing with specific recommendations for improvement. A signed copy of the formal reprimand shall be given to the employee, prior to inclusion in the personnel file.
- D. No employee shall be suspended or discharged without just cause.

ARTICLE VII - SENIORITY

- A. New employees hired in the unit shall be considered as probationary employees for the first thirty (30) working days of their employment. The thirty (30) days probationary period shall be accumulated within not more than seventy-five (75) calendar days. When an employee finishes the probationary period, by accumulating thirty (30) days of employment within not more than seventy-five (75) calendar days, he shall be entered on the seniority list of the unit and shall rank for seniority from the date of hire. There shall be no seniority among probationary employees.

The thirty (30) working day probationary period will apply unless, at the discretion of the Board, an additional thirty (30) working day probationary period is assigned to an employee, within not more than another seventy-five (75) calendar days. The Board will provide the employee and the Union with the written reason for the additional probationary period. A substitute employee who is placed on a regular basis will be given credit toward the probationary period up to thirty (30) days provided the days were worked during the previous twelve (12) months, the thirty (30) day probationary option would apply.

The Union shall represent probationary employees for the purposes of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment and other conditions of employment as set forth in Article I of this agreement, except that the Board will have the right to discharge and take disciplinary action for other than Union activity, involving a probationary employee without being subject to the grievance procedure.

Seniority shall be on an Employer-wide basis, in accordance with the employees last date of hire.

- B. Seniority shall not be affected by the race, sex, marital status, or the dependents of the employee.

The seniority list on the date of this agreement will show the names and job title of all employees of the unit entitled to seniority.

The Employer will keep the seniority list up to date at all times and will provide the local Union membership with up-to-date copies.

- C. An employee shall lose his seniority for the following reasons and only for the following reasons:
1. If he quits.
 2. Is discharged,
 3. Is absent for five (5) working days without notifying the employer,
 4. If he/she fails to return to work following recall from lay-off,
 5. Is voluntarily laid-off for two (2) years or the length of his/her seniority, is involuntarily laid-off for four (4) years.

Seniority shall not accrue during the layoff but shall be reinstated to the employee at the former level of seniority held by the employee when the layoff began upon his or her return to work. (It is the understanding that seniority will not accrue while the individual is laid off and that the other terms of this subsection will also apply).

6. If he/she gives a false reason for a leave of absence, or
 7. If a settlement has been made with the employee for total disability.
- D. Shift preference in the event of a vacancy will be granted on the basis of seniority within the classification. Extra work and extra bus trips shall be offered to employees on a rotation basis. A seniority list of drivers will be compiled and will be utilized by the transportation administrator. Extra trips will be offered to the most senior driver who did not drive the previous trip. A refusal to accept a trip will be considered as having driven the previous trip. The transportation administrator will offer and/or assign each extra trip within one week of departure, for trips that have not been mutually assigned at the beginning of the school year. "Bus trip means a request and approval of travel for school activity by school bus."
- E. No bus driver shall be eligible for an unscheduled bus trip unless they have volunteered for a maximum of two (2) scheduled extra bus trips per school year.

ARTICLE VIII - LAY-OFF & RECALL

- A. Nothing in this contract shall prevent the School District from reducing its work force when conditions of work load, school attendance, physical condition of premises or economics of the School District shall so dictate.
- B. The word "lay-off" means a reduction in the working force.
- C. No employee shall be laid-off unless said employee shall first have been notified thirty (30) days prior to effective date of the lay-off. The Board shall not be required to give such notice in the event of an emergency.
- D. If a reduction in the work force becomes necessary, the following procedure will be mandatory. Probationary employees will be laid-off on a district basis. Seniority employees will be laid-off according to seniority as defined by Article VII. In no case shall a new employee be hired by the employer while there are still laid-off employees who are qualified for a vacant or a newly created position.

Employees whose positions have been eliminated due to a reduction in the work force, shall have the right to assume a position for which they are qualified and which is held by a less senior employee.

In the event of a reduction in the work hours in a department or classification, an employee may claim seniority over another employee for the purpose of maintaining his/her normal work schedule, provided he/she has greater seniority and is qualified to perform the work of the person he/she seeks to replace.

Laid-off employees shall be recalled on a seniority basis to positions that they are qualified to perform. The most senior employee on lay-off basis will be the first employee recalled, for positions for which they are qualified. Notices of recall shall be sent by certified or registered mail to the last known address as shown on the Employer's record. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep an up-to-date address filed with the District. A recalled employee shall be given five (5) days from the date of receipt of the notice of recall to report to work. The Employer may temporarily fill the position until the recalled person is able to report for work. Employees recalled to work for which they are qualified are obligated to take such work. An employee who fails to respond to recall to perform work for which he/she is qualified shall lose rights to seniority as described in Article VII and VIII. Employees shall be entitled to recall for up to four (4) years.

- E. If a bus driver fails to qualify for the driving and operation of a bus by failing to pass a written or driving test, he/she shall be deemed to be on involuntary lay-off. Such driver shall remain on lay-off until such time as he/she succeeds in qualifying and a position as a bus driver opens in the district. In addition, such employee shall be given preference over other non-instructional positions which are open in the district and for which he/she is qualified.

In the event of lay-off, for any reason, the Employer agrees to provide the Union, through its Local unit, a list of all employees involved on the same day notification is given to the individual employees. Any bargaining unit member on lay-off shall be given preference in hiring for any position in the district for which he/she is qualified.

ARTICLE IX - VACANCIES, PROMOTIONS, TRANSFERS, TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENTS;

- A. Transfer of Employees. If an employee is transferred to a position under the Employer not included in the unit, and is thereafter transferred again to a position within the unit, he shall have accumulated seniority while working in the position to which he was transferred. Employees transferred under the above circumstances shall retain all rights accrued for the purpose of any benefits provided for in this agreement.
1. A transfer is lateral change where there is no addition or increase in pay.
 2. Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to prevent the Employer from transferring any employee covered by this contract from one location or one school within the district, or from transferring any such employee from one duty to another duty, provided that such transfer does not result in a demotion or reduction in pay. Consideration will be given to seniority, desire, classification and physical condition.
 3. The Employer agrees that in any movement of work not covered above in this section, he will discuss the movement with the Union, if requested, in order to provide for the protection of the seniority of the employees involved.

4. In the event of a vacancy or a newly-created position, employees shall be given the opportunity to transfer on the basis of seniority. A newly-created position shall include the situation where a position is increased from a nine month per year job to a twelve month per year job. In such cases all vacancies and newly-created positions shall be posted in a conspicuous place in each building in the district at least seven (7) calendar days prior to filling such vacancy or newly-created position.

No application of the seniority rule shall in any manner compel the Employer to transfer any person to any position for which he is not qualified or physically capable of performing.

5. Except in the case of a lay-off, no bumping shall be permitted by any employees.
 6. "Bargaining members who normally work a 180 day school year and are qualified to do the work will be given preference to do work in the district beyond that of the regular summer work force, providing work shall be paid for directly by the local district funds and Unit wage rates, during the summer months. Assignment to such work shall be based on seniority and willingness of the employee to do such work."
- B. Any promotions of persons within the unit covered by this agreement shall be subject to the following provisions:
1. A promotion is an upward change in an open job classification which results in additional rate compensation.
 2. Promotions within the bargaining unit shall be made on the basis of seniority, qualifications, and physical condition. Job vacancies will be posted for a period of seven (7) calendar days, setting forth the minimum requirement for the position in a conspicuous place in each building. Employees interested shall apply within the seven (7) calendar day posting period. The senior employee applying for the promotion and who meet the minimum requirements shall be granted up to a sixty (60) working day trial period to determine:
 - a. His desire to remain on the job.
 - b. His ability to perform the job.

In the event the senior applicant is denied the promotion, reasons for the denial shall be given in writing to such employees steward; in the event the senior applicant disagrees with the reasons for denial it shall be a proper subject for the grievance procedure.

3. During the sixty (60) working day trial period, the employee shall have the opportunity to revert back to his former classification. If the employee is unsatisfactory in the new position, notice and reason shall be submitted to the Union in writing by the Employer with a copy to the employee. The matter may then become a proper subject for the grievance procedure.

4. During the trial period, employees shall receive the rate of the job they are performing.
- C. Temporary assignments for the purpose of filling vacancies of employees who are on vacation, absent because of illness, et cetera will be granted to the senior employee who meets the requirements for such job. Such employees will receive the rate of pay of the higher classification for all hours worked while filling such vacancy, after they have performed the duties and functions of such vacancy for a period of three (3) consecutive days, but not before, and after three (3) consecutive days said rate of pay shall be retroactive to the first day on which said employee performed the duties and functions of the job. However, no application of the seniority rule shall in any manner compel the Employer to transfer any person to any position for which he is not qualified.
1. "If an illness occurs in which a vacancy is created in a Bargaining Unit position and the district has had no prior notification, the following procedure will be used in filling the vacancy: If a Bargaining Unit member becomes ill the district shall wait 3 days and then shall post the vacancy for 2 days. The employee who is sick or off from work must give the district at least one (1) day's notice of intent to return from the extended leave."
- D. Should an employee be temporarily transferred in lieu of a lay-off, from a higher paid job to a lower paid job, he shall be paid the rate of the lower paid job. Where an employee is temporarily transferred in lieu of lay-off from a lower paid job to a higher paid job, he will receive the higher rate of pay. Should the employee be temporarily transferred for the convenience of the Employer to a higher paid job, he shall receive the higher rate during such temporary transfer.

ARTICLE X - LEAVES OF ABSENCE

- A. General Leaves: Leaves of absence without pay for up to one (1) year will be granted, in writing, without loss of seniority for both personal illness or illness in the immediate family, whether the illness is mental or physical. Immediate family shall include parent, spouse, parent-in-law, brother, sister, child, grandchild, grandparent, brother or sister-in-law, or dependent living in the household.
- B. Sick leave benefits will be provided hereunder for pregnancy and pregnancy related disability. Any leave resulting from pregnancy or pregnancy related disability after expiration of the accumulated sick leave shall be without pay.

An employee may request a pregnancy related leave of absence subsequent to the use of her sick leave. The employee shall notify the district in writing of her intent to take such leave at least thirty (30) days prior to the expected date for such leave. The pregnant employee will notify the personnel office as soon as is practical concerning her pregnancy and will be allowed to work up until her physician requests her to terminate working. The employee will provide the district with a physician's report as to her fitness for the continuation of her job.

Said leave will be extended until the employee's physician certifies her fitness to resume the performance of her duties. The employee shall notify the district in writing of her intent to return to work thirty (30) days prior to her return. The employee shall not return to work after termination of the pregnancy unless and until she has provided the Board of Education with a written statement from her physician that she is physically and mentally capable of performing her employment. All seniority shall continue to accrue and any and all benefits held at the beginning of the leave or sick leave held at the end of the leave shall be reinstated upon return to work.

- C. Employees shall accrue seniority while on any leave of absence granted by the provisions of this agreement, and shall be returned to the position they held at the time the leave of absence was granted, or to a position to which his seniority entitles him.

The President of the Association shall be allowed one (1) funeral leave day in the event of a death of a member of the Union who is a member of the district for the exclusive purpose of attending the funeral.
- F. Military leaves of absence without pay or fringe benefits shall be granted to employees who are inducted or enlist for one (1) period of enlistment for military duty in any branch of the Armed Forces of the United States. Employees on military leave shall be reinstated in accordance with applicable laws and upon re-employment by the Board, they shall be credited with any unused sick leave held at the start of the leave, and reinstated to their former seniority prior to taking such leave.
- G. Sick Leave: Each employee shall be allowed one (1) sick leave day per month of work, accumulative to ninety (90) days. In the event of critical illness or other emergency in the staff member's household, reasonable amount of lost time will be allowed the staff member with loss of pay or sick leave.
