AutumnFest harvest time...

Elkton's annual AutumnFest is the summer's last town-wide event in the Western Thumb, and it's a time to sell home-grown garden goodies, too. Here, Thera Heck of Elkton displays melons for sale at the AutumnFest.

Pigeon road, sidewalks getting done

The ongoing repaving of Highway M-142 through Pigeon and its accompanying sidewalk replacement program is nearly half done, with the underground wiring being laid beneath the coming sidewalk, as this photo shows.

'93 Huron road projects set

Area residents traveling to Bad Axe from the Western Thumb may find the trip a little smoother, if the Huron County Road Commission follows through on its anticipated 1993 projects.

Construction proposals are to improve:

- One mile of Sebewaing Road near Owendale from Caseville Road to Notter Road, at a cost of $160,000 with hopes of $128,000 in federal financing;
- Eight miles of Sebewaing Road from Notter Road to M-53, costing $640,000 (with $512,000 in federal financing), and
- 3.5 miles of Caseville Road from Fillion to M-25, costing $250,000 (with $200,000 in federal financing).

Elkton oks zoning request

The Elkton Village Council approved a zoning variance at the short regular meeting last week.

Lee Deneen, a resident of Brown Street, received the variance in order to construct a 24 ft. by 24 ft. garage to within two feet of the property line.

Council also decided to seek bids to sell a truck used by the Department of Public Works. Bids are due by the next meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 13 at 4 p.m. The truck can be inspected at the village hall, according to Clerk Janet Santos.

Council members also heard a report on the AutumnFest celebration, and thanked all those who worked to make it a success, Santos said.

Immanuel volunteers put pieces back together

DAMAGE in nearly every room cancelled classes...

By WALT RUMMEL

Pupils of Immanuel Lutheran School in Sebewaing— together with teachers, parents, members and community friends — joined in a service of thanksgiving before the start of classes Monday morning, following cleanup of the $100,000 vandalism rampage early Labor Day morning that had closed the school for a week.

"Even though we were shocked, saddened, angered and bruised by the act of vandalism," Pastor Martin Hagenow told the audience Monday, "God again proved to us that 'all things work together for good to them that love God'," basing his sermon text on Romans 8:28.

"We are thankful," he said, "that the things destroyed are not as important as the one thing that cannot be destroyed, namely, God's Word."

Immanuel School classrooms, offices, restrooms and locker rooms were devastated in destruction that Sheriff Mike Gage called "the worst case of vandalism Huron County has ever seen."

HEALING IS NOW UNDERWAY

Pastor Hagenow said the prompt and complete participation in cleaning up the carnage had a great healing effect on all concerned.

It was a beautiful "binding together," the pastor said, uniting the Immanuel people with the many inside and outside the congregation who stepped forward to help us and support us.

Despite the destruction, he told his listeners, God made good come out of this ordeal.

As for the perpetrators, Pastor Hagenow said, we despise the act, but as Christians we love the sinner.

School Principal Richard Cohrs said he couldn't believe the speed with which Immanuel members and the total community came to the church-school's aid.

NEIGHBORLY SUPPORT "GREAT"

What had looked like total chaos on Labor Day, was mostly cleaned up by Wednesday evening, Cohrs pointed out.

All the while these many individuals were performing the demanding tasks, they regarded it as "happy work," he said. "It proved again that all of us were strengthened by the test which the vandalism imposed on us."

Juvenile felony charges being made against 3 youths

By MARY DRIER

After a week-long hiatus from school following the devastating $100,000 vandalism by three area youths, Immanuel Lutheran School's 155 students are back in classes this week.

Virtually every room in the three-story school sustained

"And that is what God promises us," Cohrs concluded.

The vandalism was discovered Monday morning (Labor Day) when School Secretary Betty Bauer entered the building. "As soon as I opened the door, I knew that something evil had happened," she explained.

"TURNED TO ICE" "I felt as though I'd turned to ice," she continued, "that everything was covered with evil."

Police and sheriff's officers spent all of Labor Day in the building, permitting only a few essential school officials to enter. They photographed the damage, took fingerprints and tried to piece together how the crime was carried out and how many and who were involved.

On Wednesday morning insurance adjusters arrived, and they brought a team of about 10 professional personnel who removed the most dangerous debris so cleanup personnel could begin work.

Those professionals removed broken glass from shattered windows and doors, picked up the most risk-giving glass and other debris and prepared for volunteer workers to begin their work.

By then it was about 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, and most officials thought that several days' work lay ahead.

However, with about 100 people anxious to pitch in, they took load after load of smashed machines, soaked debris, equipment and supplies onto waiting trucks. By 6 p.m., a sense of order had returned.

VOLUNTEERS BY THE DOZENS

Through the day, dozens of volunteers from Sebewaing and other communities, from other churches and additional people who simply called themselves "incensed by the act" came to offer their assistance.

Some brought food and refreshments, many came with pails, mops and cloths — and still others brought warm words and handshakes for church leaders and members.

Finally the word went out, "We're so far along that we won't even work a night shift."

The "beautiful spirit and helpful attitudes of so many people" prompted Mrs. Bauer to see the event as moving her "from the depth of sorrow to the height of joy."

It would be wonderful if the "pulling together" attitude could stay with all of us," she concluded.

damage in the Sept. 6 rampage, including the kitchen, gym and offices along with computers, typewriters, equipment and books.

The youths involved are a 16-year-old boy and his 10-year-old brother, both of Sebewaing, and a 16-year-old Unionville boy.

"They will all be tried as juveniles and each is charged with breaking and entering a building, malicious destruction of property over $100," said Huron Prosecutor Leslie Hagen. "Each charge is a felony." According to Hagen, the maximum penalty is county placement outside the home until age 21.

The youths are slated for pre-trial at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday (today), before Huron County Probate Judge David Clabuesch.

Hagen noted it was a matter of conscience whether or not to recommend trying the older youths as adults.

"It was a very difficult decision, but I feel it is in the best interest of the youths, the community, and the court to try them as juveniles," Hagen said. "I was under a lot of pressure to try them as adults."

"In the adult system, there wouldn't be much of a chance to rehabilitate them." The fact this is the first offense for each of the youths played a factor in the decision.

Also, Immanuel Lutheran Principal Richard Cohrs requested the youths be tried as juveniles, Hagen said. "I (also) took into account his (Cohrs) feelings on trying them as juveniles rather than adults," Hagen said. "Hopefully, this will give them an opportunity at a second chance."

The school is following the philosophy of turning the other cheek, she said.

"From what I understand, the boys will be able to get best help as juveniles," said Cohrs.

"I feel sorry for the children. They need help.

"The anger and the rage in them that I witnessed in by what they did to our building needs to be resolved and taken care of professionally."

The two 16-year-old youths have been placed in a detention home in Jackson until the pre-trial and the 10-year-old is staying with family members in another county.

"Virtually all glass inside the school was broken," said Huron County Sheriff Michael Gage. He called this the county's worst case of vandalism ever.

IMMANUEL Principal Richard Cohrs surveys part of the damage done by the youths, who have never been students at the Lutheran School in Sebewaing.

Sunday benefit for Kretzschmers at Owendale

The entire Owendale community and neighboring towns are cooperating in the Pig Barbecue Benefit for the Karen/Brenda Kretzschmer kidney project.

The benefit will involve a pigbarbecue at the Owendale Fire Hall this Sunday, Sept. 20, starting at 1 p.m. and running "until all are fed or the food's all gone."

In addition to the pork barbecue, there will be an auction, starting at 5:30, with donations from many neighboring communities.

The benefit will help offset costs of the surgery in which Brenda (Beers) Kretzschmer will donate a kidney to her 11-year-old daughter, Karen. All donations above the dinner ticket prices will go to the Karen Kretzschmer Benefit.

"We're inviting everyone, from every town in the area, to turn out and help in this project that's so important to Karen and to all of us," says Karen's grandfather, Homer Kretzschmer.

Susan is Michigan Bean Queen!

Susan Engelhardt of Sebewaing may just have to build a shelf for all the crowns she's been accumulating in recent months.

The 18-year-old lady was crowned Michigan Bean Queen on Labor Day during the State Bean Festival in Fairgrove, adding to her Huron County Bean Queen crown awarded at the Huron Community Fair.

"I'm looking forward to meeting new people and representing the farming industry this coming year," Engelhardt said.

She was crowned by State Rep. Dick Allen (R-Caro) and Tuscola County Queen Robin Hickey of Fairgrove is first runner-up.

The 1992 Laker High School graduate is the daughter of Orin and Frances Engelhardt. Her family raises about 100 acres of navy beans, other cash crops and dairy cattle in Kilmanagh.

She is registered in the nursing program at St. Clair County Community College, but says she'll find time to attend meetings explaining the bean industry.

All The News That Fits We Print! by Mark Rummel. Two wonderful ladies — The Western Thumb lost two great women this past week, with the deaths of Bay Port's Edna Engelhard and Pigeon's Millie McIntyre. Both ladies were strong family leaders, who lovingly contributed what they could to their chosen fields — and they helped make this little corner of the world a far better place than it would have been without them. They each shared a love of Bay Port, coincidentally, but also they both set wonderful examples as Christians, too, in church and community leadership roles. We say this far too often in this space, but we'll miss them... — 30 —

DESK-CLEARING: ■ Thanks to the 40-plus homes that are welcoming The Newsweekly for the first time, after signing up this past week. We're growing with speed, and we appreciate your votes of confidence, folks.

At 7,500 copies circulated weekly, we have become the largest-circulation weekly newspaper in Huron County — but we're only a few hundred copies away from being the largest-circulation NEWSPAPER in the county, too. We're working on that, too! Thanks again, new (and longtime) readers...

■ PUTTING THUMB ON THE MAP: Pigeon resident Nelmer Wright couldn't sleep well the other night, so he turned on his radio to WJR-Detroit and caught Bob Haynes, host of the midnight talk show, which airs 12 midnight to 4 a.m.

Haynes always invites listeners to call in, so Wright did just that and talked about a "near and dear" topic — Pigeon — for about 10 minutes!

Wright told Haynes and WJR's listeners all about Pigeon's streetscape, light and sidewalk project and invited Haynes "to come see us some time." He also told Haynes about his Detroit memories, saying he and Verna were married there in 1939 and saw "Camelot" at the Fisher Theatre.

I'm a frequent WJR listener and my work schedule allows me to hear Haynes' show often, but I missed "Nelmer's night." He invites any other "midnight owls" to call WJR and tell "the great voice of the Great Lakes" more about Pigeon!

■ USA TODAY carried a short story about Immanuel Lutheran School's vandalism in its Wednesday edition, and the story reminded me again about one primary journalism truth.

The story totaled 40 words (typically short USA TODAY style) — but it included a "typo" mistake, too. This journalism business can spell 99 of every 100 words correctly, but we'll hear about that 100th word, it seems. And in truth, we spell more than 99.5% of all words correctly here, yet it ALWAYS seems the mistakes happen in important places. Oh, well...

■ Have there REALLY been 25 shuttle missions since the Challenger exploded? And can they really have launched 50 shuttles in all? Impossible (but true...).

If You "LIVE" On The Road ... You Need a Phone Where You Live.

Just ask Huron County Commissioner Dale Wertz of Great Lakes Auction Company

"My portable cellular phone is mobile and so am I. I spend about 60% of my time in my van, and in that time, I get most of my business done.

"It's just one of those things that I don't think I could get along without.

"The connections I can make anywhere in the country allow me to 'go the extra mile' for the people in my district and my clients in the auction business."

Dale uses his cellular phone to keep in touch with trustees, banks, attorneys, clients, the commissioners' room in Bad Axe, the Lansing office and, of course, his wife. He is able to return calls promptly and not miss out on business opportunities.

"I don't like to have something if it does not work, and this phone always works."

"The service from Thumb Cellular has been excellent."

THE VANISHING LIBRARY

You walk by one morning and WOW! The library is vanishing. Right in front of your eyes.

Why? It seemed like a nice place. Even though you never went there.

Plenty of people did. They came and went, with books and cassettes and magazines.

Mothers with their kids. And students. And working people. So what happened?

Maybe people like you just outnumbered the others.

And maybe the library folded waiting for you and your crowd to come around.

So what are you waiting for? The library's still in business, with books, magazines, cassettes, films, classes.

And whatever you need to get your head into shape.

So why shortchange yourself? And kill a good thing. YOU'VE GOT A RIGHT TO READ.

DON'T BLOW IT.

SHE'S 15 & PREGNANT

(Editor's note: While Percy Ross is out of town helping people for the next two weeks, his editor Nancy Webber is writing the column.)

DEAR MISS WEBBER:

I'm in big trouble and don't know where to turn. I'm 15 years old and pregnant. There's more to it than that. See, I'm pregnant by my father, but he doesn't know about my pregnancy. At least, not yet.

I can't imagine what he'll do if he finds out. I can't have this baby, but I don't have the $350 for an abortion.

My aunt said she would sign for me to have it done and that I could live with her. I figure Mr. Ross might not send me money because I'm a juvenile, but if you could send it to my aunt, she would think it came from whoever got me pregnant.

I know it's wrong for me not to tell her the truth, but I can't possibly tell her or anyone else I know.

—Miss J.T., Dayton, Ohio

DEAR MISS T:

Your pregnancy is a result of an extremely serious problem. Your father is having an incestuous relationship with you, and that needs to stop NOW.

I can't give you money for an abortion until you tell an adult, like your aunt or a doctor, that you're pregnant by your father.

If you keep this a secret, the real problem will never stop. Time is of the essence. Tell someone immediately, so I can be in a position to

BYFC sponsors Oct. 3 golf scramble

Bluewater Youth For Christ will sponsor the first annual "Last Chance" Benefit Golf Scramble on Saturday, Oct. 3 at Verona Hills Golf Club, Bad Axe, with tee times starting at 12 noon.

According to YFC staff member Dan McLaughlin, this fund-raiser is one of three events planned in the Bad Axe area.

"It caters more to 'regular golfers,'" explains McLaughlin. He is referring to the difference between this tournament and the "Iron Man Event," which places a golfer on the course for a 100-hole event.

This Benefit Scramble is open to men and women and the entry fee includes green fees, cart, buffet dinner and prizes.

Over $2,000 worth of cash prizes will be offered, and a lucky hole-in-one golfer could drive home in a new car!

Deadline to enter is Sept. 26. For more information, call Bluewater Youth For Christ, 453-3239.

DEAR MISS WEBBER:

The first weekend in October, the American Heart Association will conduct its first national event—the American Heart Walk (AHW).

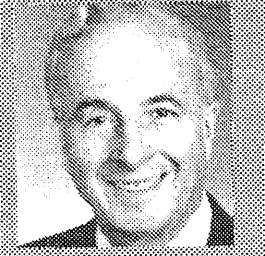

This non-competitive event is expected to draw participants of all ages. The walkers will raise money for cardiovascular research by obtaining pledges from friends and co-workers.

The American Heart Walk in Bergen County, N.J., will be one of 18 throughout New Jersey and one of 800 nationwide. We anticipate having approximately 300 walkers locally, 10,000 statewide and 400,000 nationally.

Our request is for Mr. Ross to donate plastic garbage bags to be used to keep our site clean. With your support, we can help fight against our nation's No. 1 killer, heart disease.

Thanks
A Million
by Percy Ross

—Ms. Lisa Dash, Fair Lawn, N.J.

DEAR MS. DASH:

Percy Ross, the philanthropist, directed me to Steven Ross, the plastic bag tycoon, who has agreed to fill your request.

The good folks at Poly-America, Inc., of Grand Prairie, Texas, will supply 5,000 Husky plastic bags, enough to handle all 18 sites in New Jersey holding the American Heart Walk.

As for shipping costs, the plastic-bag tycoon re-directed me to the philanthropist, who has agreed to pay freight charges. As for my part, if I can find my way out of the "Ross Zone," perhaps I'll be a participant in the event.

DEAR MISS WEBBER:

I read Mr. Ross' column in the Savannah Pennysaver. This is a long shot, but I need $325 for books this quarter.

I'm starting my sophomore year of college, and although I've received a grant for tuition, it doesn't cover books. My major is business, so maybe after I graduate I can pay Mr. Ross back by managing his investment portfolio.

I'm not a starving student, but without a college degree, eventually I'd have to write for food and rent. Am I worth the risk?

—Mr. P.D., Savannah, Ga.

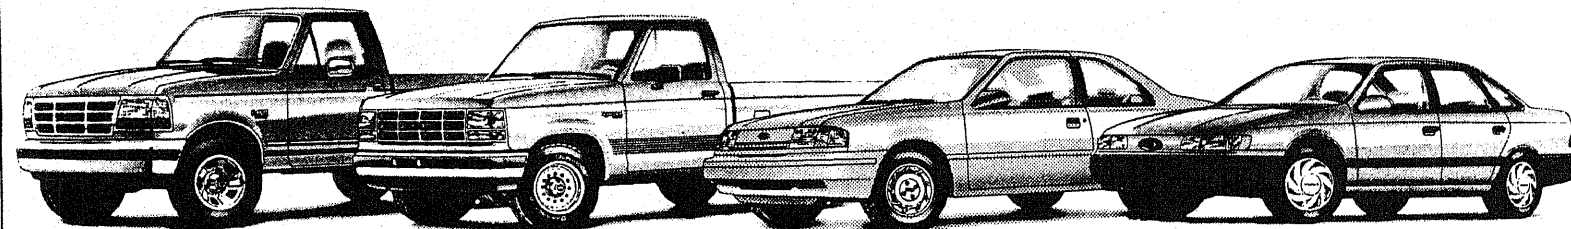

DEAR MR. D.:

The only investments Mr. Ross makes nowadays are in people. Given that the recent market is somewhat bullish, we've agreed to make an aggressive move and take stock in your future.

Please accept our Thanks a Million check for $325 to cover books this quarter.

Berne students learn while firing rockets

Rockets were rising and falling one after the other on Friday, as St. John's Lutheran School of Berne students learned first-hand about aerodynamics, thrust and flight paths.

Sixth through eighth graders at the school, guided by teacher Jon Biedenbender, built and launched the rockets as part of a focus on hands-on science experiences. The students were graded on the quality of their rockets, appearance, flight and recovery.

"We're participating in a number of experiences this year to hopefully encourage these students to continue studying science and math as they relate to our real world," Biedenbender says. "Successes as well as failures will be learning experiences for all of us."

HIGH-LEVEL LEARNING: Mike Strieter, far left, watches as St. John's - Berne teacher Jon Biedenbender and Josh Gorsegnor and Josh Dressler get ready to launch their rocket.

Derek Ricker, Owendale, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer.

Ushers were Rich Gundlach, Bad Axe, brother of the bride and Darren Schuotte, Pigeon.

Steve Jias, Elkton, provided the music with soloists Tricia Picklo, Pigeon and Kim Gebauer, Elkton.

Six-hundred guests attended the reception conducted at the Colony House, Cass City.

The bride is a graduate of Bad Axe High School and is employed at Kent McKenzie Jewelers, Bad Axe.

The groom, a graduate of Ferris State College, is employed by Osentoski Equipment, Pigeon.

The couple is residing in Owendale.

Mr. & Mrs. David Lewis wed in Caseville

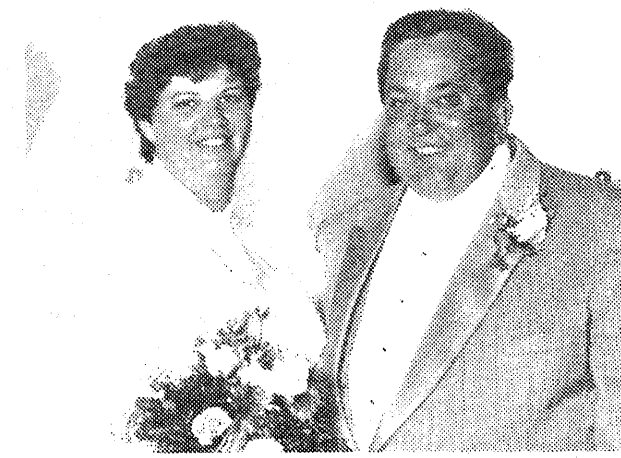

Jane Lowe of Gageton and David Lewis of Caseville were united in marriage on Saturday, June 13 at the Caseville United Methodist Church.

Pastor Gregory Mayberry performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lockwood of Cass City and Dale Lowe of Snover. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis of Pigeon.

Organist was Al Makesha of Bad Axe. Soloist was Al Pittenger of Caseville. Songs included "Ave Maria," "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin imported gown with hand-beaded sequins and pearls on the bodice and sleeves. The gown featured a semi-cathedral train accented with schiffli embroidered lace ruffles and a victorian styled neckline with leg o' mutton sleeves.

The veil was a crown effect with pearl and sequin accents held in place with silk illusion veiling.

The bride carried a bouquet of bridal white and peach roses, accented with pearls and peach ribbon. The bouquet featured fresh spring arai and flowing ivy, sprinkled with iridescent dusting. Sally Draschil was maid of honor.

Erin Bulgrien and Lindsey

Bulgrien, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

Roger Keillor was the best man. Ushers were Jeff Barr, brother-in-law of the bride and John Hoemke, brother-in-law of the groom.

After the ceremony, a dinner took place at the Pigeon District Library for 120 guests.

The couple honeymooned in Northern Michigan. They will reside in Caseville.

Cross-Country...

USA CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM STARTS SEASON

The USA Cross Country Team made its 1992 debut at the Akron-Fairgrove invitational.

USA finished seventh among the 13 schools.

USA was led by two juniors, Ryan Schaaf in 10th 18:15, Mike Alderson 18:29 18th, Matt Lewis was 41st with 19:30 followed by Chad Mead 55 and Jesse Karls 56th 20:19, 20:21 respectively.

USA has only one girl runner again this year.

"Christie Achenbach is running well as she finished fourth overall with a 21:54 time," said Kirk Scharich. "Great job for her first race ever."

USA has three junior high runners this year.

Ryan Kohl ran an incredible race just missed winning by one second - 12:02 for two miles.

Another great performance by Tim Kern sixth place 12:45, Trevor Bitzer also ran well finishing 10th 13:40.

USA INVITATIONAL HOSTS 500 RUNNERS

Once again it was a great day for the USA Invitational, held at USA High School.

Special thanks to all the teachers and parents who helped with the invitational.

Twenty-two schools competed with over 500 runners.

USA was led by Ryan Schaaf who finished fourth 18:02 in the junior race.

Mike Alderson was seventh 18:12 in the same race. Both received medals.

Christy Achenbach finished third in the girls 9-10 race with 21:54 to also receive a medal.

Jesse Karls ran well just missing the medal in the sophomore race with a 19:50. Ryan Kohl ran well again in the junior high race to pick up a medal with a tenth place finish.

LAKER CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM SCORES AT USA INVITATIONAL

The Laker cross-country team traveled to USA last week for the USA Invitational, where each member of the team competed in his or her own grade division.

Jeremy Meyerseck medaled in his division, with a sixth place time of 18:04. Imagene Aguilera also medaled in her division with a time of 25:07.

Justin Maust was just out of the medals in eighth place with a time of 18:25, and Shawn Diebel also just missed out with an eighth place time of 19:45.

Seth Maust took a ninth place in 21:31, and Ben Sturm placed 14th with a time of 20:58.

Football... LAKERS GET PAST HOT RED HAWKS FOR LEAGUE WIN

By AMY HEIDEN

If anyone needed proof that the Blue Bay Conference is pretty evenly matched this year, Friday's game between the Lakers and the Cass City Red Hawks would provide that proof.

"It was close all the way," said Laker Coach Bill McLellan. "There's a lot of good balanced teams around this year. It was a good match-up."

The Lakers finally prevailed over the Hawks 13-6, but not before the Hawks got on the scoreboard first. After a 65-yard TD drive in the first quarter, the Hawks led 6-0.

But late in the second quarter, Scott Herbert picked off a Jason Krohn 18-yd. pass in the end zone for the Laker score. The Hawks defense hung tough throughout the first half, allowing the Lakers to mount only four plays in the first quarter.

Then in the third quarter, the Lakers' first drive of the period netted another score, as Chris Schember ran 35 yards for the TD. That drive was set off when Brian Gebauer returned a Cass City punt 37 yards to put the Lakers in good field position.

Schember was the leading rusher for the Lakers with 78 yards in 11 carries, while Kendall Truemmer had 37 yards in six carries and Eric Maust had 34 yards in six carries.

Krohn completed five of ten passes for 73 yards and one TD. Truemmer and Maust were also the leading tacklers for the Lakers.

They'll travel to Marlette Friday night for a conference match-up.

USA LOOKS AHEAD AFTER FRIDAY LOSS

The USA Patriots are still looking for their first win of the young football season, as they lost to Houghton Lake on Friday evening 20-8.

The Patriots did score first, but not without a scare first.

Houghton Lake drove to the Patriot three yard line, but fumbled the ball. After a 97-yd., 14-play drive back down the field, quarterback Bill Nietzke caught Tony Sokol in the end zone with a 12-yd. pass. Nietzke then passed to Jason Achenbach for the two-point conversion and the 8-0 lead.

Houghton Lake then scored on a 30-yd. run midway through the fourth quarter but their two-point try fell short.

After the Pats got the ball back, and on a third-and-12 situation, Houghton Lake pulled down a pass interception and took over on their own 45-yd. line.

Lew Johnston later scored on a one-yard run and the score went to 12-8.

The Patriots took the kickoff after the score and soon Houghton Lake's Perry Brachter picked off Nietzke pass and ran it back for the TD with two minutes left in the game. The two-point conversion was good and Houghton Lake had their 20-8 lead.

"We played a much-improved game compared to last week," said Coach Tim Travis. "Only 84 yards on the ground isn't so good, but our passing game is much better. But it was a pretty even game."

"We had plenty of other scoring opportunities. We got to the one-yard line and were stopped three times and lost the ball on downs. We're going to have to work on not letting up near the goal line."

Jeff Ertman led the Patriots in rushing with 39 yards in 14 carries, and Nietzke completed 11 of 19 passes for 176 yards.

Achenbach caught five passes for 64 yards and Sokol caught three for 47 yards.

Greg Eremia led the defense with 12 tackles, Paul

Wiese had 11 and Aaron Yenglin had 9.

The Pats travel to Deckerville for an important Thumb C Conference game this Friday. The Eagles won Friday's game 46-3, so the Patriots will be looking for every advantage.

The Caseville Varsity Basketball Team is still hoping for their first win of the season, as they lost to Port Hope last week 51-25 in North Central league action.

The Eagles could only score one basket in the first quarter, but soon got over their jitters and challenged the Blue Stars. But the 'Stars outpaced the Lady Eagles 26-16 in the second half for the win.

Stephany Zlotkowski paced the Eagles with 7 points, and Celeste Leach pulled down 13 rebounds.

The Eagles meet Kingston at home tonight (Tuesday), and host North Huron on Thursday.

LADY PATS' COACH SEES POTENTIAL AHEAD

Even though the Lady Patriots fell to the Deckerville Eagles 51-47 last week, their efforts gave Coach Steve Fletcher hope for a win just down the road.

"We had a good team effort, we just fell a little short at the end," Fletcher said. "But if we keep playing like this, we'll have a win pretty soon."

The Pats got out to a 12-10 first quarter lead, but the Eagles stormed back with a 21-pt. second period. But the Pats defense let the Eagles get some easy baskets in the third, and that lead was extended even further.

The Lady Pats regained their composure and their offense went to work in the final period, though, and outscored the Eagles 17-7.

"If we had gotten a few breaks, the outcome of the game might have been different," Fletcher said. "We didn't make some key free throws and a couple of shots just didn't fall."

Mandy VanSteenhouse was the leading scorer for the Patriots, with 14 points and 10 rebounds. Chris Doud followed with 11 points and 12 rebounds, and Debra Mitchell added 9.

The team will meet Garber tonight (Tuesday) at home, and host Harbor Beach Thursday night in a Thumb C Conference game.

JUNIOR VARSITY: The JV team lost both of their contests this week. On Tuesday, they lost a close one to Bad Axe 36-34. Dawn Diebel led the scoring with 11 points and 6 rebounds.

On Thursday, the Patriots lost to Deckerville 58-15.

Soccer... 3 EAGLE SOCCER LOSSES

Since Caseville's soccer program is only a couple of years old, it's to be expected that they'll come out on the losing end of some games.

And that's just what happened in the Eagles' first three games.

First they met Bay City John Glenn in a scrimmage, falling 8-1. Scott Briesmeister was the sole scorer for Caseville, with Gene Dombrowski playing his first game as goalie.

Then in a regular season game, John Glenn topped the Eagles again, with the same score of 8-1. Bobby Samborsky scored the Eagles' only goal.

Then Valley Lutheran, with a strong soccer tradition, shut out the Eagles with a 9-0 win on Thursday.

"We're still in the learning process," Coach Mike Remar said. "We looked a lot better as a team against Valley Lutheran but the score doesn't reflect that. We were also playing against the wind goal. We're playing other teams that have been playing soccer for years, and their schools have had soccer for years."

The Eagles met Valley Lutheran on Monday evening, and they'll play Michigan School for the Deaf on Thursday and Frankenmuth on Friday.

Spasms Of Tiny Blood Vessels... the Culprit Behind Raynaud's Disease

The condition known as Raynaud's Disease involves the blackening of the toes and fingers along with stinging pain upon cold exposure.

It is a normal physiological reflex mechanism for blood vessels in your extremities to narrow when it is cold. However, for unknown reasons, in those with Raynaud's Disease, the vessel response to changes in the circulation in the feet and hands is highly exaggerated. The result? A finger or toe may appear white and lifeless. The skin color may turn blue or red before recovery.

In contrast, Raynaud's Phenomenon, which gives a similar clinical picture, may be a consequence of a more serious disease such as scleroderma. Certain tests are needed for the physician to distinguish the disease from the phenomenon.

To avoid attacks of Raynaud's Disease, protection from cold is crucial! Dress Warm! Do not smoke. Nicotine decreases the blood flow to your skin. Avoid cold remedies and diet pills containing the drug "phenylpropanolamine." Birth control pills also affect circulation and may induce attacks. Large amounts of caffeine should be avoided.

If these measures fail, prescribed medication may be used to prevent the vascular spasms. In extreme cases, surgical procedures to cut the nerves that control the blood vessels may be performed. This is not always successful and is usually a last resort...

The best treatment? Stay away from those factors which are known to cause an attack! For more information regarding this condition or any others involving the foot, call the physicians at...

Basketball... LADY LAKERS COME UP SHORT IN LEAGUE ACTION

After winning their first two non-league games, the Lady

Pats' JV squad shut out the Little Houghton Lakers 20-0. Quarterback Aaron Eurich tossed a 12-yarder to Paul Mitchell for the first score, and Roger Jacoby ran for two TDs, with Craig Vermeesch doing some heavy inside running.

Next game is Thursday at 4:30, at home.

Lakers lost their home opener and first league contest to the state-ranked Lady Red Hawks of Cass City, 41-36.

According to Coach Paul Beachy, the Lakers were "too tight to start the game but came on strong and outplayed the Hawks in the second half."

For the first quarter and a half, the Lakers couldn't hit their shots inside or out and fell behind by as many as 13 points.

Finally, the tight man-to-man defense started to wear on the Red Hawks as the Lakers ended the first half with a spurt. Jenny Smith scored six points in the quarter, but the team in Green still trailed 21-15.

The third quarter featured more defense on both sides and the Hawks were still ahead 29-20 when the quarter ended.

The fourth quarter brought the home crowd into the game. Kelly McLellan's eight points in the half and Kim Sturm's rebounding and scoring led the Lakers back into the game.

After a triple by Carolyn Bollenbacher with less than a minute to go, the Lakers trailed by only two points, 38-26.

However, the Red Hawks scored the last three points on foul shots and the Lakers couldn't get their key shots to fall.

Red Hawk Coach Marty Daniels said, "We haven't played a team with such an aggressive, tough defense before and that made for a low-scoring game."

McLellan led the Lakers with nine points and Sturm and Smith added eight each.

JUNIOR VARSITY: The JV team recorded their second victory with a score of 46-33 over Cass City. Michelle Bolda led with 14 points and Nicole Kolar chipped in with 10.

FRESHMEN: The Laker freshman team opened their season with a 40-21 victory over Bay City All Saints. Betsy Drury led the scoring with 14 points and 9 rebounds.

They then were defeated at Valley Lutheran last week, 51-39. Leading the Lakers was Julie Esch with 12 points.

EAGLES FALL TO BLUE STARS

The Caseville Varsity Basketball Team is still hoping for their first win of the season, as they lost to Port Hope last week 51-25 in North Central league action.

HUNTING PLACES

Used to be, finding a place to hunt was no problem at all. Growing up in a rural countryside surrounding a small town was like living in a hunters' paradise.

First of all, there weren't many hunters, at least not in comparison with today, and most farmers were glad to have you harvest a few of those roosters they had been feeding all summer long.

Even if you lived in the city, all you had to do was drive up to the Thumb, knock on a few doors and soon find yourself in the midst of some fine hunting land.

But times have changed. Perhaps it's the general growth in population, or maybe we have entered into a time when you don't trust anyone you don't know, whatever the reason, if you don't own or lease a large tract of huntable land, or are good friends with someone who does, you may be out of luck, or worse yet, have to hunt on (ugh) public land.

Many people, like myself, who were born and raised in a rural community sometimes look with disdain upon public hunting land. They conjure up visions of

Caseville School Open House Sept. 22

The Caseville Public Schools, in cooperation with the Parent-Teacher Group, will hold an Open House and a public presentation of their 1991-92 Annual Report on Tuesday, Sept. 22.

The event will begin at 7 p.m. as teachers will be available in their classrooms to meet parents.

At 7:30 p.m., a program will be held in the gym which will include introductions of school personnel, an elementary musical program and a short presentation about the Annual Report.

The presentation of the Annual Report is held in compliance with P.A. 25, which guides school districts in setting up specific plans to improve the educational process of each school, says Supt. James Stahl.

A written report will be distributed at the meeting and will include the status report on the school improvement process, student achievement, retention and drop out rates, a description of specialized schools and programs, parent participation report, an accreditation status report and a core curriculum and implementation plan, he adds.

All parents and members of the community are invited to attend.

Tire collection successful in Sebewaing

Sebewaing Village's used tire collection project was a real success, council members agreed, with the second trailer more than three-quarters filled.

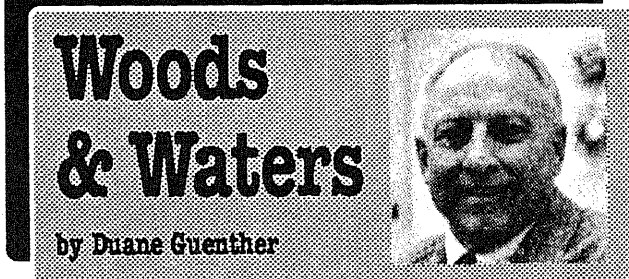

Councilmen, in discussing the tire collection at last week's meeting, said they had many favorable comments from residents.

"It was a good project, and a big help to folks who had one or many tires clogging up their garages or sheds," said Don Kothe, who chaired the project.

There was still some space left on the trailer at Sebewaing DPW Yard on Friday, but anyone who still has tires to be disposed, should act promptly, they said.

In other council business, there was discussion on seeking additional grants, involving tourism projects to be used in three areas of Huron County.

Another project to be offered involves a grant to study the entire Sebewaing River watershed, with participation by the U.S. Soil Conservation Service.

This may have been true when state-owned public hunting areas first began to appear in the southern portion of Michigan, but nothing could be further from the truth today.

Michigan is one of the few states blessed with an abundance of public hunting land. I'm not talking about the great expanses of state and na-

Thumb outdoor report

Week of Sept. 14-20, 1992

Walleye fishing has been the hottest in the middle of the Bay. Hot 'N' Tots on downriggers and planing boards are the bait and method of choice and fishing.

Heavy rains and strong winds near the end of the week kept many fishermen off the water, but the die-hards know that as hunting season rolls around, the fishing always gets better.

Salmon are beginning to mass off harbors and stream mouths in the southern part of Lake Huron, and are moving slowly northward. Anglers in Harbor Beach have been picking up quite a few fish just outside the breakwall.

If you have been wanting to take a Western hunting trip, this may be the year. Wyoming is begging for hunters to thin out their deer, antelope and even elk population. Blessed with a meager human population, the state is soliciting non-resident hunters to help them with the overcrowding animal population.

If you're interested, a phone call can tell you how to apply for a license, where to apply and sometimes where to hunt. The number to call is (307) 777-4601.

U'ville Mini-Mart raises $400 for Little Leaguers

The Mini-Mart in Unionville conducted a fund raiser recently for the Unionville Little League program.

The company donated a penny per gallon of gas sold, which totaled over $400 to help purchase equipment for little league participants to play America's favorite sport.

Little League organizers thank the Mini-Mart owners and employees for helping support the program.

tional forest that encompass thousands of acres in the U.P. and northern portion of the lower peninsula.

But rather, those smaller state game areas located right around the corner from almost anyplace in the state. If you want to find them, all you have to do is look around.

I visited such a place last weekend and was impressed with what I found. I'm not going to tell you where it's located because that would be unfair to the hunter who pointed it out, but rest assured, I plan on spending at least a few days poking around this new, and exciting hunting place.

It is several hundred acres in size and surrounds a good-sized lake. The tiny parking lot indicates little use, and the absence of roads tells me that those who hunt or fish there are only the hardy.

A dike splits the lake, and each fall one side becomes a waterfowl sanctuary and the other side open to hunting. That makes a great holding spot for ducks and geese, and since you can't hunt from the dike, one must look for a quiet cove or a tiny layout rig to be successful each fall.

A small, one-man canoe, a dozen mallard decoys and a hiding spot near one of the islands could make for an interesting morning this fall.

Beyond the dike is a great stand of hardwoods. Maples, chestnuts, and majestic oaks are scattered across the hill-sides. When the mast crop falls deer will forage beneath the spreading branches until the first snow.

Even then they will return to paw and scrape out a final meal before yarding up for the winter. A sprinkling of apple trees litter their fruit on the pathways to add desert for the whitetails.

Early in the fall, the limbs have got to be loaded with fox, squirrels, and my host confirmed those suspicions when he told me several tales of last year's hunts.

Further down the path were half a dozen weeping willows. These trees come from China, and by the looks of the nipped sprouts, and stripped branches the deer, beaver, and muskrats who make this place home love to eat Chinese.

I'm sure there will be plenty of pheasants and grouse picking in the wild raspberry fruit I see in the distance, and upon examining a few different tracks in the soft earth, a turkey or two has passed this way.

With the possibility of deer, squirrels, rabbits, ducks, geese, pheasants, grouse and maybe even a turkey, located in one spot this certainly looked like a fine hunting place.

And you know what? I don't have to ask anyone to hunt there...

MARY MARTHA GUILD

The Mary Martha Guild Ladies of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Sebewaing met on Wednesday, September 9, in the church fellowship hall, with an opening devotion "Anyone for Tea."

BAY PORT WOMAN'S CLUB

The Bay Port Woman's Club conducted its September meeting at the home of President Jan Forge, with Nellie Dutcher as co-hostess. A perch dinner was served.

The usual business consisted of reports, receiving the new club books and making future plans.

Roll call brought back memories by each, telling a former club meeting she especially remembered.

Mrs. William Shaw will be hostess for the Oct. 13 meeting.

KIWANIS CLUB OF CASEVILLE

By CHARLIE KIRK

In the absence of Bill "Alaska" Anderson, the opening song fest at last week's meeting was led by an unidentified member.

He was either a lyric soprano or had a severe case of Constrictus Fruit fedlooms for only the gals could reach those notes. Hurry back Bill!

President Len read a letter of appreciation from Jill Miller thanking us for our financial support to her continued education. Len also pinned Jeanette Beadle and Mike Groff as new members and they were welcomed by club members.

Nancy Buhholz, at Mike Power's reminder, called upon those needing to complete the Round Robin to get with it. She also spoke of the 9-30 outing and 9-23 Board meeting.

John Kavalara added a call for volunteers for the highway clean-up on Oct. 1 while Len chipped in with his reminder of the Fall Leadership Conference to be held in Troy. He then pushed for the holding of the 50/50 drawing and for a good reason — he won! Perhaps he can be persuaded to present a program on crystal ball reading.

Kavalara introduced the speaker, John Watzke, whose topic was "Cameras." John informed us a camera lens picks up only light which is reflected.

He then moved from the invention of the first camera (pinhole) to the latest automatic "point and shoot" camera. Also covered were the box and the bellows camera, their limitations, the compound lens and camera set up priorities, depth of field was covered, film speed, setting the aperture, color corrected lens and the greatest handicap of any camera, the photographer.

It was a very educational program but I was overrun by some of the technical aspects and a wandering mind. However, I did remember one suggestion vividly!

Since the camera picks up only reflected light, lighter subjects pose less of a problem in the setting of the aperture, depth of field, etc.

White teeth are great reflectors of light, thus when photographing humans, take your reading (and writing)

RESOLUTION NO. 92-76
A Resolution to amend the Rates established by Section 1048.13 of Ordinance Chapter No. 1048 entitled Village of Caseville Water Collection and Treatment System Ordinance.
WHEREAS, Section 1048.13 of the Village of Caseville Wastewater Collection and Treatment System Ordinance authorizes rates to be revised from time to time and fixed by resolution as may be necessary to generate sufficient revenues to pay all costs incurred by the system; and

WHEREAS, Farmers Home Administration Regulations adopted since approval of the rates and charges for the system allow the Village to revise commercial charges for debt service to be equivalent to residential charges on a residential equivalent use basis; and
WHEREAS, the Public Works Committee of the Village Council has reviewed and recommended the changes set forth herein.

1. Commercial and residential users shall pay a quarterly charge for sewer service by metered water use as follows:

Letters from our readers

He remembers Ribble, too

DEAR EDITOR:

The letter to you by Carl Dast concerning Ribble aroused my interest. I also remember Ribble.

In Feb. 1917 I was 15 years old. My parents, Dan Esch, moved from Missouri to Michigan. We rented the farm presently owned by R. D. Wertz, at that time owned by Joseph Gunden, father-in-law of William Wertz, grandfather of R.D. Wertz. This farm is located on what was named the Ribble Rd. at that time.

Dast speaks about the closing of the Post Office at Ribble. He doesn't say when that was. There was no post office there in 1917.

I do recall some of the names Dast mentioned. The Ed Wichert family and I remember the name Herholtz. They worked at the quarry and lived at Ribble.

We lived on that farm for two years. The road was known as the Ribble Road. It was the main route between Bay Port and Pigeon. Later it was closed by the Wallace Stone Co.

In 1918 my parents bought the farm on Geiger Rd. from Sam Wurtz. We moved there in the spring of 1919.

I was also interested in the article by Dave Geiger concerning the Noah Geiger farm sale. I remember those sales by auctioneer W.A. Schriber and clerk E. Clabuesch.

I would like to make one correction about the location of the Noah Geiger farm. It was two miles south of Pigeon. I was 1/2 mi. east of the Caseville Road on Geiger Rd.

Sincerely,
LEWIS C. ESCH
Glendale, Ariz.

10 YEARS AGO SEPT. 15, 1982

John Draschil found a bright yellow balloon bearing the words "Iowa Hawks" as he harvested beans Monday morning, about 2-1/2 miles southwest of Owendale. The mystery is did someone drop off the helium-filled balloon? Or did it catch a favorable wind current and travel the 600 miles from Iowa here by itself.

Funeral services were held Sunday for Robert A. Neuman.

HOW MANY POTATOES does it take to fill a 10-lb. bag? Not more than a handful, when you're talking about 2 1/4 lb. potatoes!

Joe Ruby of Pigeon is holding two potatoes that he grew in his garden, plus a 1 1/2 lb. potato that Nelmer Wright grew in his Pigeon garden. John Diener also brought in a 2 lb. potato from his Pigeon garden, but we weren't able to catch him for a photo.

Looks like a lot of good eating from local gardens that flourished in spite of this summer's unpredictable weather!

Is Sunday hunting finally coming to Huron County?

By MARY DRIER

A movement is underway to repeal the long-time Huron County prohibition on Sunday hunting, now banned everywhere except on government-owned land.

During the Sept. 8 County Board of Commissioners' meeting, a petition with about 100 signatures was presented, seeking repeal of the 1937 law banning Sunday hunting. The ban was meant to keep Sunday as a day for God.

The Board also received several letters supporting an end to the Sunday hunting restrictions, including one from Sebewaing resident Daniel Beringer.

"A person who doesn't want to go to church to start with will find an excuse not to go to church no matter what," said Beringer, an elementary teacher at Immanuel Lutheran School and an avid hunter.

Secondly, he wrote, deer hunting starts Sunday, Nov. 15, and "a lot of law-abiding citizens will become violators on that day because they will want to go hunting opening day."

Huron County's law prohibits Sunday hunting on privately-owned land and only allows hunting on government-owned land that is designated for hunting or on Saginaw Bay.

"Those people who abide by the law will be hunting on state property and there will be too many hunters converging on that land, making safety an issue with all of the extra hunters," Beringer said. "You can't even hunt on your own property on Sunday in Huron County."

Beringer noted the hunting restriction hinders the county's efforts to promote tourism.

"Hunting does provide tourist dollars. People who would come up to hunt on Sundays are turned away," said Beringer. "It is an antiquated law."

"Things have changed. There are more churches offering weekday services, services on Saturdays and at different times - it's not the same as it used to be."

Commissioners took no action on repealing the law. It will take a legislative act to repeal the law.

Eleven other counties have Sunday hunting restrictions in Michigan.

Tuscola County allows for residents to hunt on their own land on Sunday or on state land.

In addition, several area businesses and service organizations are leading petition drives to have the law repealed. Ronald Bolzman of Ace Hardware in Sebewaing is one.

Bolzman said he has gathered more than 1,300 signatures to have the law overturned and plans to present the signatures to the County Board soon.

In other concerns, Huron Medical Care Facility Administrator Arthur Woelke broached the subject of expanding the facility on M-53 just west of Bad Axe.

He said space limitations exist, and listed some possible ways to deal with the problem - including a three-story 7,500-foot expansion.

Comm. Julia Heilig asked Woelke to explore the cost of such an expansion and the possibility of adding more beds.

Approval was given for the purchase of an EZ Loader Trailer from Don's Sport Shop, Sebewaing.

Family Reunions

SCHUETTE REUNION

The 25th Annual Chris and Sophia Schuette family reunion was conducted Sunday, Sept. 6, at the Pigeon VFW Hall with 128 members and three guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renn and family hosted the potluck dinner and supper.

In observance of the 25th annual reunion, Elna Mae Kanyak presented President Bill Renn with an engraved gavel to open the meeting and to be used by all future presidents.

Historian Elna Mae Kanyak reported in the past year there was one birth, five marriages and no deaths. There are 275 living members. Walter Schuette at age 90 is the oldest member.

President Bill Renn of Pigeon, Janet Konen of Grand Rapids, Secretary-Treasurer and Historian Elna Mae Kanyak of Fenton were re-elected to serve another year.

The Carl Schuette family provided games and prizes for the children. Arrangements were made for a group picture to be taken by a family member Kevin Dutcher.

The next reunion will be Sept. 5, 1993 at the same location. Mrs. Hulda Baur and family will be the host and the Fred Renn family in charge of entertainment.
