CALICO.—Extensive preparations have been completed, and the calico ball will undoubtedly be a success. The whole affair is in the hands of "the Boys," and Dr. Conklin is floor manager, which is sufficient guarantee that all is right. Supper will be served in Mullett Hall; the music is first class, and the bill placed at $2.00. Music by Hamilton's Quadrille Band. This is the first corresponding one village has witnessed, and smiles lose "zig." All wishing to take part in this masquerade are requested to report at headquarters. Spectators admitted for ten cents. A good time may be expected.

LYCEUM.—A very pleasant evening entertainment was passed on Tuesday last. After the usual exercises, three young men gave the audience specimens of elocution. They each have the true talent and we hope to hear them addressing our old debaters should look well to their laurels, or the Union School will claim them. The essay by Mr. Vreeland was a happy hit and well received. Hereafter essays &c. will be compiled into a society paper, under the direction of the ladies.

The debaters for next meeting are as follows:

AFF.—Messrs. Vreeland, Scott and Barnes.

NEG.—Messrs. Kelly, Carey and Hemmens.

Essay by Dr. J. E. Self.

A RARE OPPORTUNITY.—We will club our paper with Peterson's Magazine for $3.50 per year. All our subscribers wishing this worthy periodical are requested to call and join a club we are now forming. Specimen numbers can be seen at our office.

☞ The Little Corporal for February, is a very fine number. The Publisher offers most beautiful premiums, and unusual inducements to raise Clubs. Terms, One Dollar a year. A sample copy will be sent free to any one who applies for it during February. Address ALFRED L. SEWELL, Publisher, Chicago, Ill.

FINE CUTLERY.—Messrs. Miller & Webb have just received a large stock of Shelf Goods, among which we notice the best pocket knives made. New styles of table cutlery, the latest removers and universal Chicken Whipper, Carpenters tools and many other articles generally used. This firm are in daily receipt of eastern circulars and do anything now appears they introduce it to their customers. If our readers are in want of "most anything" they should call at the Mammoth Hardware Store in Goodyear's Block, "where they keep the nearest pocket knives" manufactured.

DEDICATION.—The Baptist Meeting House of Manchester will be re-opened with dedicatory services, on Wednesday the 12th inst., at eleven o'clock A. M.—The Rev. Mr. Palmer of Jackson, will preach the opening sermon. All are invited to attend.

SOCIAL.—The Universalist Social will meet at the residence of Andrew Spafard on Wednesday evening, Feb. 12th. Oysters will be served to those who desire them.

HUMBUGS.—Look out for sharpers traveling through the country pretending to be agents of Insurance Companies.—Many of them are swindlers, others are only "subs" who's agreements will not bind their company. Don't be humbugged but for first class Insurance call upon G. R. Palmer.

Resolutions.

Passed by the Manchester Eastern Star Lodge No 7, February 4, 1868, relative to the death of sister Irene Lewis; wife of E. H. Lewis:

WHEREAS, In the Providence of our Heavenly Father it hath pleased Him to remove one from our midst whose many noble and christian virtues made her a bright star in our Order and endeared her to all who were permitted to enjoy her society; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That while deeply mourning our loss, knowing that it is not to be compared to the loss of that home circle whose she presided; in all the true dignity of a Christian Mother; we will ever cherish her memory, and do extend to Bro. L. wife and family, in this their deep sorrow, our warmest sympathies.

RESOLVED, That the usual badge of mourning drape our Lodge Room.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent the family of the deceased, and also inserted the Enterprise for publication.

Mrs. Cole is very ill at Napoleon, consequently her Exhibition is postponed until further notice.

For the Enterprise.

ANOTHER POOR MISS. STRICKEN.

OMRO, Wis. Jan. 10, 1868.

DEAR ENTERPRISE:—If I have been slow to fulfill my promise, you will I am sure, find it in your heart to forgive me, when you remember the multiplied cares and duties incident to moving.

It was my intention to have taken notice of our journey, but as we did not leave Jackson until 9½ P. M., the trip to Chicago was made in the night, a poor time for observation.

Owing to the great amount of travel, we were unable to secure a place to a sleeping car, and as a consequence the next day found me exquisitely unfit for anything. However, it were quite impossible to travel within the borders of Illinois and Wisconsin without noticing the broad extent of prairie, the magnificent farms, the rich alluvial soil, and the indications of prosperity and thrift everywhere visible. Westward the star of empire takes its way!

Omro, the home of ——— Sutton is a fine thriving village of about 2000 inhabitants, situated on the Fox River, a navigable stream which it is now proposed, by means of a short canal, to connect with the Wisconsin river, thus forming a connection with the Mississippi and the great Lakes.

The Omro Union matter is before Congress, and should it be consummated, the advantage to this town can hardly be estimated.

The growth of Omro as compared with some towns is not strictly unparalleled. During the past year twenty-five new buildings erected, besides much repairing and improvement.

The lumbering interests is perhaps the most prominent, while all departments of manufactures and trade seem to be eminently prosperous and flourishing.

There are in the village five saw and shingle mills. Four of these (of one I have not a full report) during the past season employed 157 hands; and I would astonish your readers by stating the amount of lumber, lath, shingles, and pickets manufactured, were not the sum peculiar aggregate altogether too much for either my memory or my arithmetic to!

At present our Rail Road facilities are not extensive, as we are situated at the terminus of a branch of the Mil. and St. Paul; but a new road between Omro and the city of Oshkosh is about to be built, and another is contemplated to Winneconne.

Omro has four churches and a good school, in four departments, numbering 204 schoolers.

A Republican paper, the Omro Union is well sustained, and it is on its public, or H. E. Beale Esq., I am indebted for the statistical information contained in this letter. We all know how much any town owes to the reputation and energy of its business men. In this respect I should think Omro is highly favored, and I believe no one will fail to be favorably impressed with the general character of its citizens. As an instance of the generosity of this people, I would state that one of our townsmen advertises 100 cord of wood to be cut and, which he will give away to any who may need it.

I have been about so little, and am so poor a judge of a country scene in winter, that I should hardly dare express an opinion of my own, but I am assured by authority for saying that a better farming country than that about Omro cannot be found.

The timber, oak, beech, maple, hickory &c., is abundant. Water in plenty and of the best quality.

In regard to the climate, it is generally thought there is little difference between this and Michigan. we have had some pretty cold weather; yet, while a greater discomfort is always the worst, I clearly remember some tedious winters before I came here.

It is considered remarkably healthy and the billious diseases so common in Mich., are hardly known to this locality.

Before I conclude—lest there should seem a disparity between this and my private letters—allow me to confess, that notwithstanding I am so well pleased with my new home, there is, to me, something infinitely sad in finding ones self compartively a stranger among strangers.

Circumstances, restless ambition, or love of change, may impel us to seek new homes, but though we may gain much, we always sacrafice something.

Old friends places cannot love so beautiful to us as the ones we have learned to love, and the heart will yearn with inexpressible tenderness and longing, for the dear familiar faces that are left behind.

Little G——, who, like her mother, is somewhat given to homesickness and was quite unhappy at first, expressed it very cleverly when asked why she could not like Wisconsin as well as Michigan, she replied quickly, "Oh it's not the place, one grieves after, but the PEOPLE."

Could I only transport a little colony of my Manchester friends, (oh, such choice souls as they would be) I think I could feel entirely contented. Hoping you will favor us with occasional communications of this very hastily written letter, I am Faithfully Yours, M. F. P.

AUCTION.—G. Sweet will hold his regular auction sale upon Exchange Place, on Saturday, next. Those wishing property sold are requested to deliver it on Saturday morning. All sales in the country attended on short notice, at reasonable rates. Leave orders at the Enterprise Office.

AMATEURS.—Home Talent will soon present a splendid programme for public approbation. Look out for something new.

MARRIED.—Feb. 5th, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. J. W. Scott of Manchester, Mr. Wadsworth W. Hess of Chicago, to Miss OCTAVIA M. STAND of Bridgewater.

A CARD.—The Doctrine at the M. E. Church in Sharon, on the evening of the 9th, inst., for the benefit of Rev. J. W. Scott, passed off pleasantly. Receipts, $100.00.

The Law of Newspapers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to continue their subscriptions.

2. If subscribers wish to discontinue their papers they should give notice to the publisher at the end of the term for which they have subscribed. Otherwise the publisher may consider them wishing to continue.

3. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publisher, and papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

4. If subscribers order their papers discontinued, they must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send them until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether they take the papers or not.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers or periodicals from the office to which they are directed, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
