DR. ANDREW B. SPINNEY,

W. Adams Ave., Detroit, Mich. Silent Forests of Cuba. Silence reigns in the vast forests of "Cuba. Says a traveler: "No beas crashes through the undergrowth, no bird sings in the branches, no wind sighs through the mighty tops. The living creatures of that world glance noiselessly through the air or glide stealthily through the heavy, sounddeadening verdure." Cuba has practically no song birds; they are merely gaudy creatures of the ballroom. She is happy also in having no venomous
