Put Oil in Your Lamp. The human body has been compa ed to a lamp, the life being the flame the lamp, or body, is kept supplie with oil the flame will burn steadily much longer than when not. The patriarchs lived much longer than aen live today, and olive oil was with out exception one of their "blessings." which they daily used. Whether comparison is merely fanciful or not it is hard to say, but there seems to be an element of truth in it.

The word affinity, in the eyes of the law, is rather respectable. The encyclopedia says: "Affinity, in daw, is the relations contracted by marriage be tween a husband and his wife's Finired, and between a wife and her husband's kindred, in contradistinction om relation by blood; but the kin of the husband ard in no way related the kin of the wife."

-Genuine regret is felt in educational circles because of the resignation of Dr. Henry Van Dyke as Murray pro fessor of English literature in Prince ton university. He had been at Prince ton since 1900 and his historical lec tures were the most popular at this owned seat of learning. Dr. Van Dyke is one of the foremost lucators in the country and is a distinguished author. He was born in ermantown, Pa., in 1852 and graduated from Princeton in 1873 and late from the University of Berlin. In 1878 he was pastor of the United Congre-gational church of Newport, R. L. and from 1883 to 1900 and again in 1903 of the Brick Presbyterian church, New York. Latterly he had been "minister in charge" of the Brick-church, but has severed that relationship. He has also been a lecturer at and Harvard. Dr. Van Dyke has written many works, among them. "The Reality of Religion," "The Story of the Psaims," "The Christ Child in Art," "The Gos-
