Military authorities today declare that the coast defense is the most impregnable of all fortifications. Hours of heavy bombarding from a powerful may should have little effect upon it while in return the probabilities are which has a slope of two to one, will that it would send many battleships to the bottom.

The mainstay of the coast defense is the disappearing gun. Those to be used at Panama are to be of 14 inch caliber. They will be placed for blocks, exch four by six feet and eight fortifications which are nothing less than mountain ridges, for the coast defense station is sunken underground at the brow of some eminence.
