Oregon vs. Michigan Fruit.
After inspecting a richly illustrated pamphlet from the Hood river valley in Oregon recently, we could not help saying: "They are good advertisers." It is true they have a good climate and soil for certain kind of fruit and they raise lots of it but the man that raises fruit in Oregon raises but little of anything else.

My Company of Friends

By Wilbur D. Nesbit

"That I may publish with the voice of Thanksgiving"—Psalm xxvi, 7.

Lord, let me thank Thee for the rains,
And for the sunshine and the dew,
For grass that carpets hills and plains,
For flowers that make glad the view,
For snow that hides the naked trees,
For all that in completeness blends,
They have brought comfort, all of these—
These, and my company of friends.

These are the things that make me rich,
My heart where faith still holds its place,
My hands that have no miser-trick,
To grasp the prize beyond the race,
My soul that waits its day serene,
A hope that falters not, nor ends
When life seems sordid, crude and mean
These, and my company of friends.

As some worn pilgrim tells his beads
I count today my scanty store
That is sufficient for my needs,
But deep within my being's core
There is a truer thankfulness
For this rare goodness that life sends,
I would not ask for more to bless
Than this, my company of friends.

Though I might heap up gold and gear
And proudfly have a ruler's sway,
Without my friends, I know my year
Would not have held a happy day,
Though I am grateful for what gain,
My simple toiling comprehends,
I know my life would be in vain
Without my company of friends.

Lord, bless them all, for I am glad—
Because today I call them mine,
I would not give them up to add
Unto my store of corn and wine,
I thank Thee for this year of peace,
But am one who now commends
To Thee for blessings without cease
His goodly company of friends.

Then and Now

TIME LIMIT CALLED A Thankful Spirit

Due Notice Herewith That Venerable Examples of Humor Must Be Laid on the Shelf.

"It is turkey tomorrow," "It is turkey today," "From roasting to sorrow, Tomorrow we want," "What today we rejected; And tomorrow we miss; And tomorrow we expect; And tomorrow we miss."

For the benefit of a number of people who are hurriedly making their purchases this morning, the Thanksgiving spirit is being kept in mind. The turkey is the centerpiece of the feast, and the turkey is the centerpiece of the feast.

John Collier, the secretary of New York's Board of Moving Picture Censors, said the other day:

"It is no good getting up objectionable pictures. They never pass. In fact, we turn them down so fast that it seems to me that the censors are the only ones who are not being deceived by the pictures."
