Forgo million banks of America if fifteen million during the past year, and yet some people say forgery is not a success.

A food expert advises us to substitute the fat portion of butter that would be no fat in throwing rice at the lip players.

Up to date nobody has attempted to compile a list of the 20 greatest wretches or men. This reason is simple—there ain't no such thing.

We are told of an animal trainer who has taught turtles to do tricks, but we never have heard of anybody training a mink turtle.

Hetty Green's son received more than $100,000 in a single day. We wonder if he thinks of his trials during leap year.

An Oregon man who killed 275 rattlesnakes in one day claims to be holding the rattlesnake record. We are willing to let him clinch it.

Treasury official report that there are 300,000 dollars in gold in the vaults. We didn't know it without a report from the treasury official.

One of our contemporaries advises us to let the weather alone, but we would be far more pleased if the weather would let us alone.

Texas washerwoman has been questioned $10,000 by one of her neighbors. It is safe to bet that she never put too much starch in her shirts.

The habesbahe is said to be growing rapidly in popularity—especially with small boys who know the warming qualities of the wooden duck.

Maine farmer claims that he has a duck which has laid three eggs a day for the last six months. If anybody deserves a Carnegie medal, that duck does.

Michigan professor has invented a new alphabet with seventeen letters. Much to the jubilation of actors and statesmen, he has retained the capital letters.

St. Louis has a hale and hearty citizen of 80 who claims he never had consulted a physician. Nevertheless, the undertaker will nail him at the funeral.

Pennsylvania girl, we are told, has made two-year year problem. She has refused both times. In her case this is not what might be called a happy year.

A highway tell us that most great men have big noses. We are willing to risk a few shakels on the theory that this particular highway has eyes of toasty hue.

Professor Babb of Harvard advises that there is no such thing as a free lunch. If the professor's suggestion was carried out some of our plays would be one long lunch.

Trus Cobb tells us that the stage is a starry and brilliant. It is a fact that he has acquired a batting average of .602 in the theatrical league.

A Tacoma woman has the distinction of being the first woman to serve on a jury with her husband. Possibly she also has the distinction of being the first juror to cast two votes.

Don't worry about the high price of potatoes. A pound of rice, which costs ten cents at retail, contains as much nourishment as several pecks of potatoes, and the supply of rice is ample.

The man who insists that he still takes a perfectly cold bath every morning is clearly entitled to a Carnegie medal. He is taking the risk of being "transferred either here or there."

Another year of eight winters is not considered a long time by the manufacturers any happier. We're not sure for some of them to suggest government regulation of the fashion as the mills can be kept busy.

Fashionable Pictures. Women are suffering from the disease known as "dog mouth" as a result of kissing pictures. It behooves the humane owner to do something for the protection of defenseless poodles.

The Wright brothers claim to have invented a foolproof aeroplane. The claim is so great and so fraudulent that the public will be half afraid to believe that anything else of the class of Solon has been able to do.

GOOD SERVICE IS GOOD ADVERTISING

By William C. Freeman. An special case happened in an advertising office recently. A gentleman bought a pair of gloves. He had gone to the store and found the methods of the store and had been told that any reasonable request made by the customer would be instantly complied with.

There are certain laws that govern men advertising and they are suggested in the following questions to which every advertiser should have an answer before investing his money.

1. Am I willing to tell the truth about my goods? 2. What are the people to be interested in? 3. Who are the "talking points"?

4. What are the "talking points"? 5. What is the best way to tell my story? 6. How much will it cost to do it properly?

INTERNATIONAL LESSON

By Rev. William Brewster, D. D., Director Bible Course. LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 25. BAPTISM AND TEMPTATION OF JESUS.

SOME things are fundamental in the organization of the local church. Many churches are failing in the particular because they have no well-thought-out plans. They are not applying the same tact and business sense in this department that they are in their local church affairs.

It is not in the province of the stewardship committee to order the plan of a church school. Every church will pursue the plan which seems most desirable to the congregation.

Several years of experience and careful observation of churches of every denomination have led me to believe that we can safely make some suggestions as to the requisites for success.

There must be a separation first of the church from the world. This organization must have, first, a pastor with a vision. The religious work is the life of the church.

Second, there must be a strong benevolent committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various benevolent agencies.

Third, there must be a cooperation of the various departments in the church. The church is a living organism and every part must be kept in motion.

Fourth, there must be a benevolent fund which will include all the benevolent work of the church. This fund should be maintained in a separate account.

Fifth, there must be a strong financial committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various financial agencies.

Sixth, there must be a strong membership committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various membership agencies.

Seventh, there must be a strong evangelistic committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various evangelistic agencies.

Eighth, there must be a strong educational committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various educational agencies.

Ninth, there must be a strong social committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various social agencies.

Tenth, there must be a strong music committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various music agencies.

Eleventh, there must be a strong drama committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various drama agencies.

Twelfth, there must be a strong athletic committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various athletic agencies.

Thirteenth, there must be a strong literary committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various literary agencies.

Fourteenth, there must be a strong scientific committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various scientific agencies.

Fifteenth, there must be a strong artistic committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various artistic agencies.

Sixteenth, there must be a strong historical committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various historical agencies.

Seventeenth, there must be a strong geographical committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various geographical agencies.

Eighteenth, there must be a strong political committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various political agencies.

Nineteenth, there must be a strong philosophical committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various philosophical agencies.

Twentieth, there must be a strong theological committee. This committee should be chosen wisely and be in touch with the various theological agencies.

TEN YEARS OF SUFFERING

Restored at Last to Perfect Health by "The Holy Lingers." Mrs. C. K. Miller, 1111 N. 1st St., Philadelphia, Pa.

"I have suffered for ten years with a terrible disease of the kidneys. My back ached, my head ached, and I was unable to do any work. I had tried every remedy, but nothing helped me.

"I had heard of 'The Holy Lingers' and I decided to try it. I bought a bottle and started taking it. After a few days I began to feel better. My back ached less, and my head ached less.

"I continued to take 'The Holy Lingers' and after a few more days I was able to do some work. My back ached no more, and my head ached no more.

"I am now perfectly well and I am able to do all the work I want to do. I am very grateful to 'The Holy Lingers' for what it has done for me.

"I have written this to let other people know that 'The Holy Lingers' is a good medicine. I hope it will help many other people who are suffering from kidney disease.

Read it over carefully and be on hand to make the first bid.

In soliciting signatures to the petition to submit the question of bonding the village for water works and sewer the committee has found one who asks why the council has not purchased a plant of the cost of the electric light plant.

As one man said that the reason this village has not been bonded is because the people do not know what it had cost the people or what the cost of maintenance is or the receipts for lighting. The fact is the council does not know as no separate account has been kept of it.
