Baltimore, July I.—The demecratic national convention shortly after midnight tonight adjourned until noon tomorrow. It was still deadlocked.

Woodrow Wilson continued throughout the day to add to his strength on the ballots that had been taken today. Wilson had gained 95½. Champ Clark's strength, on the other hand, continued on its downward course, and tonight even his best friends acknowledged his chances for the nomination were gone. In the course of the day Speaker. Clark's strength deopped from 469½ to 422, a loss of 47½ votes.

Woodrow Wilson's supporters are deopped from 469% to 422, a loss of the factions on the floor of the convention becomfident that in the end he will be came tense today. Many of the able to gather sufficient strength to obtain the nomination. Indications are that the struggle between Wilson and that the struggle between Wilson and Clark will go on until both sides are and they threatened Bryan with disgust or fatigue violence and almost mobbed him on Clark will go on until both sides are and they threatened blank whom worn down with disgust or fatigue violence and almost mobbed him on and one of them surrenders. and one of them surrenders.

the record number of his attacks on Champ Clark of ballots ever taken in a presiden-tial convention were settled finally nessed in the big hall since the demtial convention were settled finally nessed in the big hall since the democratic production of 1860 Stephen A. Douglas was nominated on the sixtieth ballot. Democratic convention on Sunday was 59 ballots having been cast at the Charleston, S. C., convention, and the deciding one at the adjourned session.

In the present contest the chances and the present contest the chances of the production on Saturday able to recall another instance in which it semed tonight to be altogether on the side of Wilson.

Michiganders Make Break.

The break in the Indiana delega.

Having failed to nominate with the tion to Wilson was the biggest single gain that he made in the course the day's balloting. Gov. Wilson also had at times 27, or all but three of the Michigan delegation.

of the Michigan delegation.

The Clark men still declare they mave absolute pledges from a sufficient number of men to block Wilson's nomination, even if he continues to gather strength. They plainly were discouraged, however, when Wilson passed the 500 mark toing candidates were so far short of the 725 1-3 votes necessary to nominate that the problem ahead seemed Speaker Clark went to Baltimore Speaker Clark went to the urgent saturday in response to the urgent request of former Senator Fred-T. Dubois, his campaign manager, and George Fred Williams, of Massachu-George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts, who represented that the Missourian's candidacy had suffered by reason of an "attack upon his honor" made by William J. Bryan. The convention, apparently hopelessly deadlocked, had adjourned until Monday before the speaker's arrival.

petere the speaker's arrival.

Back of Mr. Clark's coming was a rumor of disruption in his political camp. Senator Stone, former Governor Francis and the main body of ernor. Francis and the main body of the Missouri delegations were said to be strenuously opposed to the speaker making any appeal to the convention in his own behalf.

It was no surprise, therefore, when Governor Francis, of the Clark forces, seconded the motion of Representative A. Mitcheil Palmer, of the Wilson camp, that an adjournment over Sunday-should be taken.

Mr. Clark's train left Washington at 10:15 and train left Washington at 10:15 and the adjournment was taken within 15 minutes of the time the news reached the convention floor.

ALL RECORDS ARE BROKEN-IN BALLOTING

The protracted balloting of the Democratic national convention in Baltimore breaks all Democratic records. Never before were so many ballots required to nominate in a Democratic presidential convention. Seymour, nominated on the twentysecond ballot in 1868. held the record up to now. Here is the record, showing in each case the year and the winning ballot: 1844—Polk on ninth.

Use Auto Fees in Good Roads Fund. Secretary of State Fred C. Martin-dale, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, is writing the motor car owners of the state in connection with his plan to have all motor license tees put into a stat good roads fund. He is requesting the owners of cars to write him suggestions and views as to the best wa of putting the good roads plan into operation. Secretary Martindale has operation sectetary Martinuate has suggested that the present $3 state tax license fre on the 40,000 machines now in use would make a big addition to the roads fund if applied to it alone.

Another suggestion is that the presanomic suggestion is that the present local and state fees be abolished and a reasonable specific tax levied directly by the state instead, all of the revenue going to the roads fund.
