ADMIT GERMANS CROSSED YSER

Paris Officially Announces Success of Forward Movement of the Invaders.

HEAVY GERMAN LOSSES

Slaughter in the Argonne Region Has Been Enormous, According to French Accounts—Petrogad Announces Nothing But Victories for the Russians.

London, Oct. 28.—Fighting of a most violent character is in progress between Nieuport and the River Lys. The French admit in an official statement that the Germans have crossed the Yser between Nieuport and Dixmude.

The principal gains of the Germans during the day were made in the vicinity of La Bassée. The Germans made a sortie and fell on the allies' lines, which retired in some confusion.

The Germans gain at La-Bassée was greater than at any other portion of the line, but the day saw large accessions to the territory occupied by the Teuton armies all along the battle front.

The battle to the north, particularly between La Bassée and the sea, and to the east, between the Meuse and the region about St. Mihiel and about Verdun, are being waged with undiminished energy.

The result of the day's fighting in this region has been gains at considerable cost for the allies at points to the east of Armentières, while about La-Bassée the French and British have been forced to retreat at some places in the face of the desperate assaults directed by the Germans.

The French admit the official communication issued by the French war office tonight: "The action has continued under the same conditions as on preceding days. A battle of a very violent character is in progress between Nieuport and the River Lys.

Between the Oise and the Argonne there is nothing to report, except several small advances by our troops to the northwest of Soissons and in the region of Caronne.

Russ Announce Victory. Petrograd, Oct. 28.—Minister of War Soukhomlinoff in a statement sums up the situation in the following language: "Between the East Prussian frontier and the River Niemen the Russian army has been successful in driving back the Germans into Prussia and in clearing the governments of Kovno, Suwalki, Lomsha and Plotsk of the enemy."

On the left bank of the Vistula, to give plenty of trouble to the pound-keeper, whose war-reduced staff already had enough to do in collecting the thousands of animal-pets abandoned during the exodus of Parisians when the siege of the city was threatened.

In these last weeks the exodus of the unfortunate population of the North brought to Paris a certain quantity of stray cats. Dogs were also "Belgian refugees." And then there has been the dispersion in Paris of cats and dogs abandoned by their masters at the time of the panic at the beginning of September.

ASSASSINS OF ROYAL COUPLE ARE CONVICTED

German Siege Guns Brought Into Fighting Along Belgian Coast

NO DECISIVE RESULT IS CLAIMED BY EITHER SIDE

London Admits That Big Artillery Forced Ships to Withdraw From the Coast Temporarily.

Sarajevo—To the accompaniment of the thunder and booming of the cannon of the combined Servian-Montenegrin army, desperately trying to take the city in time to save them, the 24 persons accused of conspiracy in connection with the assassination of Archduke and Archduchess Francis Ferdinand were found guilty of high treason Monday.

According to an official report from Berlin these big guns shelled the British warships off Nieuport on Sunday and drove them out to sea. Three of the vessels were hit, the report says.

That Germany intends to use her big land guns in fighting the British warships all along the Belgian coast is indicated in dispatches from Amsterdam and other points telling of the moving of these heavy war machines to Ostend, Zeebrugge, Heyst and other coast towns.

Official reports from both Paris and Berlin indicate that fighting of a character more violent than any heretofore reported is now in progress from Nieuport, through Dixmude to Roulers, a total of 25 miles.

As for results, there are none of a decisive nature; the Allies saying that they are holding their own and the Germans merely reporting that their attacks are "meeting with strong resistance."

From the zig-zag appearance of the battle line—as it would appear on a map—the Germans have forced a decided bend in the Allies' front at Dixmude by crossing the river with an advance directed in a straight line due west toward Dunkirk, France.

But they, like the Germans, have been stopped—making another deadlock. From Roulers the line runs 12 miles southwest to Ypres, then almost due south for 50 miles to Arras.

The extreme western battle line of about 37 miles is now the central point of the whole great conflict that began with the battle of the Aisne river on September 13 and has stretched out until it extends from the North sea to the Swiss border, 620 miles.

Twelve miles to the southeast of Dixmude, at Roulers, the Allies have driven a wedge into the German line. But they, like the Germans, have been stopped—making another deadlock.

But now all goes well. Order has been re-established in the pound-keepers are again almost happy. The cats also.

Human beings are not the only refugees from the war zone now harbored in Paris. Homeless cats and dogs from Belgium and the stricken cities of northern France followed their homeless masters and mistresses, and have added thousands to the canine and feline population of the city. They

Mr. Whitlock has had on hand only peasants' black bread for two weeks and the supply of that is short. One hundred soup kitchens are feeding over 100,000 of the needy in Brussels.

Revolving Boers Defeated. London, Oct. 24.—A Reuter dispatch from Capetown says that in a battle on October 22 a force was administered to the forces of Lieutenant Colonel Maritz, leader of the revolt. Four of Maritz's officers were captured, one of the prisoners being Count von Schlier.

Claim Right to Invade Canada. Washington, Oct. 25.—Germany's right to land troops in Canada, if possible, and thus secure at least a temporary foothold on the American continent, was upheld today by Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador here, who declared this would be no violation of the Monroe doctrine.

The ambassador suggested that, as Canada was sending soldiers to Europe to fight against his country, the United States should not consider it in any sense an infringement on the Monroe doctrine if Germany should land an armed force on Canadian soil.

masters at the time of the panic at the beginning of September. And it is thus that the pound has had to receive five times as many prisoners as usual. Mobilization reduced its personnel by two-thirds and its wages have been consequently reduced.

JAY G. PRAY
Republican Candidate for County Clerk.
I promise a clean administration of the office and solicit your vote.

I am very grateful for having been nominated for Prosecuting Attorney in this county. I am very desirous of being elected if possible. I stand on my record as a lawyer and as a citizen. I have had six years experience as a practitioner of law in both civil and criminal cases. I was born in the county, and have lived in the county since birth. If elected to the office of Prosecuting Attorney, I will give my best efforts to the office in the interest of the people. I shall greatly appreciate your support.
Very respectfully,
JACOB F. FAHRNER.

Local and Personal

Frank Merithew went to Toledo Monday after an Overland car.
The W. E. O supper and sale last Saturday afternoon was well patronized.
Rep McLachlin of York was in town Monday and favored the ENTERPRISE with a call.
Those who drive automobiles have informed the ENTERPRISE that the mile of gravel road built west of Manchester, is the best road in the country.
Louder & Hoffer loaded and shipped three carloads of hay at Watkins this week. They are shipping three carloads of apples and one of potatoes from here.

To the Voters of Washtenaw Co.
Having during the past two years given to the people of Washtenaw county what I modestly believe to have been a satisfactory administration of the County Clerk's office, I make the liberty of asking the voters, to support my candidacy on the Democratic ticket at the coming election for a second term.
In addition to my experience in the affairs of the County Clerk's office, I bring to the discharge of its duties my well known willingness to spare no efforts to serve every resident of the county to the best of my ability.
I hope you will find it consistent with your appreciation of public record, to give me your support at the coming election, November 3rd.
— GEORGE W. BECKWITH.

We have printed bills for a democratic rally at Arbeiter hall next Monday evening when Congressmen Beakes, Arthur Braun and Geo J. Burke will speak. The Manchester orchestra will furnish music and Will Kramer will sing.

Republican Nominee for Sheriff.

My attention has been called to a story in circulation, that I have promised to appoint certain parties deputies. I wish to say, I have made no promise to any one.
I do, however, promise to the public at large to appoint as my deputies, if elected, reputable men, who must have the endorsement of the community in which they live.
Respectfully selecting your support and influence, I am,
Very truly,
HERMAN G. LINDENSCHEIT.

ROSS GRANGER
Candidate on the Democrat ticket for Sheriff of Washtenaw County will appreciate your support.
Mr. Granger was elected city clerk of the city of Ann Arbor in April 1903, and has served the city so well that the voters have elected him five times since his first election. This alone should convince the voters of Washtenaw county that when he says that he will give the county the same class of service that he has given the city the past eleven years—that if elected sheriff the affairs of the office will be conducted in an economical and business like manner.

Carl A. Lehman
Democratic Candidate for Prosecuting Attorney

I solicit your support at the coming election on Nov 3. If elected to this important office I will make a conscientious effort to conduct its affairs in such a manner that you will not regret the confidence reposed in me.
Sincerely yours,
CARL A. LEHMAN

Register of Deeds

I hope that an examination of the records of the 1st term as Register of Deeds will justify you in giving me your support for a second term.
Election Nov 3, 1914.

An [x] before my name will be appreciated.

Mark R. Bacon

Representative for Congress

Republican Candidate

This district is normally Republican. We elected the Congressman in 1902 by a plurality of 3,574; in 1904 by 3,296; in 1906 by 3,223; in 1908 by 22,473 (no Democratic candidate that year); in 1910 by 4,182; in 1912 by 4,320. In 1912 we lost the Congressman by a plurality of 111, owing to a split in the party.
The Republicans and Progressives really belong in one party; both believe in a reasonable tariff, and in progressive legislation that would benefit all classes of people—the farmer, the laborer, the mechanic, the manufacturer, the business man. There was an honest division of sentiment in 1912, but I can see no reason why they should not get together now—and in our case—redeem the Second District.
The Progressive party cannot hope to elect its candidate this year, then why not vote for Mark R. Bacon? I claim to be progressive, liberal, temperate and patriotic. I believe that all reforms for the benefit of the people must come through the Republican party. By division we can accomplish nothing; we merely play into the hands of our opponents.
I believe the government should be run as a business man would run his business—on business principles and economically.

Please mark your ballot where it says mark—that is where it says

One Good Term Deserves Another

While Mr. Granger has never been a candidate for a County Office he has served the City of Ann Arbor as City Clerk during the past 11 years in such an efficient and satisfactory manner that he was re-elected each time by larger majorities. Mr. Granger will bring to the Sheriff's office his experience as a competent public official and will give Washtenaw County the same satisfactory service he has given the City of Ann Arbor.
Mr. Carl Lehman is one of Washtenaw's young attorneys who has made good and will serve all the people of Washtenaw County in a satisfactory manner.
