Final Decision On Wilson's Demands is Withheld Until Consideration Is Given to Alleged Facts Regarding Status of Sunken Ship.

Berlin, May 31-The following is the text of the German note, sent in reply to the United States protes against the sinking of the Lusitania and attacks on American steamers:

"The undersigned has the honor to ibmit to Ambassador Gerard the following answer to the communication of May 15 regarding the injury to American interests through German submarine warfare: The imperial government has subjected the communication of the American government to a thorough investigation. It entertains also a keen wish to co-operate in a frank and mer of Swan Creek township, Saginaw friendly way in clearing up a possible misunderstanding which may have

On the contrary, the German forces have repeat edly been instructed most specifically

"If neutral ships in recent months have suffered through the German submarine warfare owing to mistake in identification, it is a question only of quite isolated and exceptional case which can be attributed to the British government's abuse of flags, together with the suspicious or culpable be havior of the masters of the ships.

Has Expressed Regret.

"The German government, in tions, has offered indemnification.

"The cases of the Cushing and the Gulflight will be treated on the same principles. An investigation of both rine's commander, which is further cases is in progress, the result of configured by all other information, which will presently be communicated that the quick sinking of the Lusitania to the embassy. The investigation is primarily attributable to the explocan, if necessary, be supplemented by slor of the, ammunition shipment and average speed of 89.84 miles an an international call on the internal caused by a torpedo. The Lusitania's hour for the whole distance. Resta vided by Article III. of The Hague agreement of October 18, 1907.

When sinking the British steamer Falaba, the commander of the German submarine had the intention of allowing the passengers a full opportunity for escape. Only when they did not obey the order to heave-to, but fled and summoned help by rocket signals who will give it a chance to be of series in inlaid with a hunting scene in gold. did the German commander order the crew and passengers by signals and megaphone to leave the ship within 10 minutes. We actually allowed them 23 minutes' time, and fired the torpedo only when suspicious craft were hastening to the assistance of the by the United States government to Falaba.

Regarding the loss of life by the sinking of the British passenger steamer Lusitania, the German government has already expressed to the neutral governments concerned its on a discussion of these proposals states lost their lives.

Fecaned U. S. Attention. "On this occasion, the imperial govrnment, however, cannot escape the impression that certain important facts having a direct bearing on the sinking of the Lusitania may have escaped the attention of the American government. · "In the interest of a clear and comlete understanding, which is the aim of both governments, the imperial government considers it first necessary to convince itself that the information accessible to both governments about the facts of the case is complete and in accord.

"The government of the United States proceeds on the assumption that the Lusitania could be regarded s an ordinary unarmed merchant

John F. Smith, of Flint, was struck by a Grand Trunk fiver Monday night and instantly killed. He was working on the track at the time.' He was 30 years old and a bricklayer.

Malcolm Cameron, 45, of Grant township, was killed when his motor! west of Bad Aze Thursday night. He neck was broken.

The imperial government allows itself in this connection to point out that the Lusitania was one of the largest and fastest British merchant ships, built with government funds as an auxiliary cruiser and carried expressly as such in the 'navy list' issued by the British admiralty.

"It is further known to the imperial government, from trustworthy reports from its agents and neutral passengers, that, for a considerable time, practically all the more valuable British merchantmen have been equipped with cannon and ammunition and other weapons, and manned with perin serving guns. The Lusitania, too, according to information received here, had cannon aboard, which were mounted and concealed below decks.

Rammed Submarines.

"The imperial government, further has the honor to direct the particular attention of the American government to the fact that the British admiralty, in a confidential instruction issued in February, 1915, recommended its merchantile shipping not only to seek protection under neutral flags and distinguishing marks, but also, while thus disguised, to attack German sub marines by ramming. As a special incitation to merchantmen to destroy submarines, the British government also offered high prizes and has al ready paid such rewards. imperial government, in view of the facts indubitably known to it, is unable to regard British merchant men in the zone of naval operations specified by the admiralty staff of the German navy as 'undefended.' German commanders consequently are no longer able to observe the custo mary regulations of the prize law, which they before always followed. "Finally the imperial government must point out particularly that the Lusitania on its last trip, as on earlier occasions, carried Canadian troops and war material, including no less than 5,400 cases of ammunition in tended for the destruction of the brave German soldiers who are ful cook who desires to become more filling their duty with self-sacrifice and devotion in the fatherland's ser vice.

"The German government believe that it was acting in justified self defense in seeking with all the mean of warfare at its disposition to pro tect the lives of its soldiers by de stroying ammunition intended for the enemy.

Company Aware.

"The British shipping company must have been aware of the dange which the passenger aboard the Lusitánia were exposed under these conditions. The company in embark ing them, notwithstanding this at tempted deliberately to use the lives of American citizens as protection for the ammunition aboard, and acted miles south of Dowagiac, Edward cases where it has been shown by its against the clear provisions of the American law, which expressly pro miles faster than any vehicle of huhibits the forwarding of passengers on ships carrying ammunition and pro the same distance before, and by so pany, therefore, is wantonly guilty of the death of so many passengers. "There can be no doubt, according to the definite report of the subma man probability, have been saved.

"The imperial government considers the above-mentioned facts important enough to recommend them to the at tentive examination of the American government. "The imperial government, while withholding its final decision on the demands advanced in connection with the sinking of the Lusitania, until receipt of an answer from the American government, feels impelled, in conclusion, to recall here and now that it took cognizance with satisfaction of the mediatory proposals submitted Berlin and London as a basis for a modus vivendi for conducting the maritime warfare between Germany and Great Britain. The imperial government by its readiness to enter then demonstrated its good intention in ample fashion. The realization of these proposals was defeated, as is known, by the declinatory attitude of the British government "The undersigned takes occasion etc.

Referring to that condition, Capt. George Moriarity said recently:

"I cannot see that we are crippled."

It is true that nature and a woman's work nas produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and harbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever comother combination of drugs ever com-pounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

The long, low streamline body is unmarred by angles of projections. From the rounded edge of the radiator to the full curved back, there is not a break in the lines. The hood slopes gently upward and blends into the beautifully curved cowl. The doors are flush, with hinges concealed and handles inside. The fenders are long and sweeping in their curves, with gracefully rounded surfaces. The running boards are clean and free from obstructions, the storage battery concealed, the tire carriers placed at the rear. The windshield is built-in, and conforms to the curve of the cowl—a part of the car itself, not an apparent afterthought.

The car is superbly finished in a rich, deep Brewster green, delicately striped with pure ivory white, and set off in pleasing contrast by black enameled radiator, fenders and running board shield.

Model 83 touring car is a beautiful car. It asks no odds of any car at any price—is at home in any company.
