McGinnity's Plan Foiled.

Evers yelled to Hoffman, who grabbed the ball and threw toward second. However, the crowd already had jumped upon the field and the ball, instead of going direct to Evers, hit one of the spectators and was deflected. By this time Joe McGinnity, the Giant pitcher, sensed that something was wrong. He rushed onto the crowded and grabbed the ball. Four years of successful merchandising with a record of 60 per cent increase since we assumed full responsibility ends July 31st. We were not very enthusiastic about having a Sale because of the increase of 25 to 300 per cent in some of the lives we carry, the dyestuffs situation being the principal cause.

But Germany has fooled the enemies again and brought to the United States 1,000 tons of dyestuffs and tell us they are coming with more. Our Sale will last

LESSON FOR JULY 23 PAUL AT CORINTH.

1. Paul's Companions. (vv. 1-d.)
Paul's coming to this city after his experiences in Athens is significant when we read I Cor. 2:1, 2. He found a home as usual at first among his Jewish countrymen. Aquila and Priscilla were not only fellow Christians but fellow craftsmen (v. 3). Paul supported himself, as Jesus did for 30 years, as a carpenter. This gave opportunity to reach the people naturally as one of them. At the same time he set them the example of dottime he set them the sides the for quicker but less thorough work it can simply be poured on from a the con simply be poured on from a the con simply be poured on from a the con simply be poured on from a there can and allowed to run down the sides. We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contains more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fietcher. The fact that two conventions were held at Chicago, and the uncertainties f the situation at that city, created the heaviest demand of the year for telegraphic service at that point, though the Democratic convention here, even though it followed a pre-arranged program, proved a close sec-

The telegraph business of all three conventions was, of course, divided between the Western Union and the Postal, and both made strenuous efforts to get the bulk of it from the newspaper men. Aside from the matter handled by the news associations, more than 600,000 words were sent from Chicago in a single day, and while this was some 200,000 word short of that sent from Chicago on Robert O. A much greater number of papers was represented by special correspondents than ever before. In previous years the special men have been confined largely to the press of the few big cities, but this year many of the comparatively small places were represented by active newspapers workers. A Nashua (N. H.) correspondent had one wire busy practically all day from the Republican convention in Chicago. Newspapers in such places as Selma, Ala: Fort
