

Get the Right Coffee

And you'll find it easier to make coffee right. Many a housekeeper tries every day to make a pleasant, pungent beverage out of impossible coffee.

To make a good cup of coffee, even the best coffee makers have got to have a good article to start with.

that pleases about all the coffee-particular people and we keep on pleasing them too.

That's because we handle only blends that are away up above the average for the prices they cost—25c and up per pound. One trial will give you the idea.

Knitting and Crocheting

Classes Start Monday,

October Ninth

The Art Needlework Section is pleased to announce that during the next two weeks (beginning Monday), Miss F. E. Anderson of Philadelphia will be present to conduct classes in knitting and crocheting.

There will be no charge, and the opportunity is one that expert fancy workers as well as beginners will undoubtedly be glad to take advantage of.

Comfortable quarters have been provided on the Second Floor near the Tea Room.

Out-of-town customers are especially urged to attend.

Serve Plenty of Bread

on the table if it comes from this bakery, for it will surely be needed. People who ordinarily eat only one slice of average bread invariably take two or more when they once taste ours. Suppose you try a loaf or so. Then you'll know why our bread makes bread eaters into bread lovers.

Like getting back home for Thanksgiving—they satisfy!

Thanksgiving with the old folks at home—it does satisfy! For your smoking, Chesterfields do the same thing—they satisfy!

But Chesterfields are MILD, too—that's the wonder of it.

Don't expect this new cigarette enjoyment (satisfy, yet mild) from any cigarette but Chesterfields, because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend—an entirely new combination of tobaccos and the biggest discovery in cigarette making in 20 years.

Brief News Items

The Frauen Verein met with Mrs. N. Schmid Wednesday afternoon.

The rain Sunday night did some good and farmers who were waiting for it finished seeding.

Howard Clark set the plate glass in the Manchester Auto Co.'s garage office Saturday afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Farrell went to Charlotte Tuesday to attend the Universalist convention.

A further increase in the price of paper may compel schools to return to the use of slates and slate pencils.

A number of temperance women met at Mrs. Burtless' Tuesday to prepare penants and literature for distribution.

Adam Schaible took Postmaster Koebe, T. J. Farrell and J. H. Kingale to Ann Arbor this morning.

Herman Wesch of Brooklyn was a pleasant caller at The Enterprise office Monday, while in town buying sheep.

A. J. Sawyer and family and Miss Amanda Schmid of Ann Arbor were visitors of N. Schmid and family over Sunday.

Wm. Mount of Norvell called Wednesday to pay his subscription to The Enterprise. He has been taking care of Mr. Foot's milk route.

The weather took a sudden turn Sunday night after the rain and the mercury took a drop of about 40 degrees before Monday noon.

A large number of people were out Sunday auto riding. The weather was fine and the roads are excellent throughout the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lowery went to Grand Rapids Tuesday to attend the annual meeting of the grand chapter O. E. S. Mrs. Lowery is past grand Electa.

George Graham wanted to see the foot ball game at Ann Arbor Saturday afternoon, so he took his wife, Mrs. Ampoker and Dr. and Mrs. Servis and son along for company.

Mrs. Warren Kimble went to Albion last Thursday to visit her son Warren and family a few days. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Jessie Freeman, who returned the same day.

Sunday was an exceptionally bright sun-day and warm as summer, an ideal day for driving either horse or auto, and most people who had one or the other improved the occasion to use it.

A large number of weary Willies are rounded up in convenient lodging places about the railway station now, but they will soon be asking for lodging at the village bawls if the frosty nights continue.

Fred Dowling found a man so under the influence of liquor that he was "walking like a turtle," that is on all fours, at the depot. He placed him in the lockup for fear he might be hit by a wild train.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Root drove to Ypsilanti Sunday to visit Supt. McCallum and family. They then took Mr. McCallum to Brighton, where he is teaching in a boys' private military school.

The girls in Mrs. B. C. Root's Sunday school class spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mamie Hoffer on Saturday. Dainty refreshments were served and the afternoon was spent in crocheting.

The shipments of flour by Lonier & Hoffer have greatly increased of late and the home demands are also greater. The cause is the excellent quality of their product and the general belief that prices will soon be materially higher.

Among those who came to attend the funeral of Ed. E. Baker, were: Mrs. W. B. North of Kalamazoo, Miss Cora Robison of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Robison and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robison of Homer, Clarence Baker of Matoon, Ill., and the North brothers of Litchfield.

Congressman Samuel W. Beakes and his private secretary paid The Enterprise a visit last Saturday while on his way from Adrian to Jackson. He regretted that he had not time that day to make further calls, but said that he would come here later for that purpose.

A farmer came to town a few days ago with his wagon loaded with stuff. He had grain for the mill, apples for the cider mill, sorghum for the sorghum mill, and cream for the creamery. That shows how varied are his dealings with townspeople. The prosperous farmer is the life of the country town.

Residents of upper Ann Arbor street will soon enjoy the privilege of walking down town on a cement walk on the east side of the street. It will be a great convenience and pedestrians will escape the steps on the north side of the railroad right of way, which has been such an objection to the walk on the west side.

The masons began laying brick on J. E. Seckinger's addition to his store, Wednesday. They will leave a three-foot passage way so Breitenwischer and Mahrie can get from the rear of their stores to the alley. Mr. Seckinger has bought the freight elevator that had been in use in The Enterprise building for use in his store.

Advertisers made unusual demands upon us this week and compel us to increase the size of the paper by six columns, and then we could not accommodate all. We wish that our friends would forward copy for advertisements earlier in the week so we could take good care of them and not crowd our reading columns.

The Enterprise press has printed bills for John Kahl of Sharon, 4 1/2 miles north of Manchester, on the Chelsea road, who will have an auction Monday afternoon, Oct. 16, to sell stock, farming tools, household goods, etc.

The party who wrote a letter to Mrs. Springer without signing their names should be careful not to repeat it, as she knows who it is.

SHEEP FROM MONTANA

Charles Burtless Buys 10,000 Head There—$50,000 Worth Arrive.

Last week it was announced that Charles Burtless would receive 30 carloads of lambs from Montana on Saturday or Sunday. Will Henzie has been in the west several weeks picking up choice stock and was on the way home with them.

Saturday four carloads arrived, Sunday 15 carloads and on Monday 11 carloads, making 10,000 head in all.

When the train came, about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, there was a crowd of men at the stock yards to watch the unloading and among the number were men from all the surrounding country some of whom had bought a number and were prepared to and did drive them home.

The lambs looked as though they had come through in fairly good condition. In all there were only 15 dead ones which is considered a low average. $50,000 worth of sheep is a big shipment but Mr. Burtless is an extensive dealer, one of the largest in the state, and Manchester has the reputation of being a great sheep market.

THE FAIR IN BANKRUPTCY

Store Now Closed for Invoice—W. J. Hoffer in Charge Temporarily.

Many, if not all, of our citizens were surprised Monday morning to see the curtains of "The Fair" store remain drawn and soon a report was current on the streets that T. B. Bailey, the proprietor, had become bankrupt.

It is also reported that a bank had been unable to meet which Mr. Bailey was unable to meet caused the step to be taken.

People had supposed that the store was prosperous. It had apparently enjoyed good patronage.

DIED

BAKER.—In Manchester, on Friday, Oct. 6, 1916, of cancer, Mr. Ed. E. Baker, aged 54 years.

Mr. Baker was born in Sharon and lived there until a few years ago, when he moved to Manchester. He was respected wherever known. His death was somewhat sudden and the community has lost a good citizen. He leaves a widow. The funeral was held Monday at the M. E. church and the burial was in the Gillett cemetery at Sharon.

Card of Thanks.
I can but feebly express my heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends who have been so kind and helpful to me in my late affliction; to Rev. Wulfman for his consoling words, and to the choir for their sweet music at the funeral.
Mrs. E. E. Baker.

TO THE PUBLIC

Two years ago the citizens of Washtenaw County saw fit to honor me by electing me to the office of Sheriff.

I have, as your sheriff, endeavored in every manner possible to merit the respect and confidence reposed in me. You are now about to be called upon to say whether or not I have failed.

For nearly two weeks past I have been confined in the St. Joseph Sanitarium, suffering from blood poisoning, and have been advised by my physicians, Drs. Darling and Washburn, that I must remain here at least two weeks longer. This will not permit me to make the campaign I otherwise would. I will endeavor, however, at my earliest opportunity to see as many of you as possible. Fearing I may not be able to meet you as I desire, I take this means of asking your endorsement of my candidacy.

Very truly,
HERMAN LINDENSCHMITT

[Adv.]

Get the Right Coffee

And you'll find it easier to make coffee right. Many a housekeeper tries every day to make a pleasant, pungent beverage out of impossible coffee.

To make a good cup of coffee, even the best coffee makers have got to have a good article to start with.

NEARLY SERIOUS COLLISION

Two Autos Hurdled Came Together On Road Near Jackson—Blif' Bang!

Rev. Wulfman and family were driving to Jackson last Sunday, where he was to preach. In rounding a corner in the road he saw another car coming towards him and neither driver having time to turn out, the two cars came together with a crash. The young son Eugene, was thrown through the windshield and so badly injured that a physician was summoned from Jackson.

Aside from a bad shaking up and fright, the other members of the car were uninjured. The two men in the other car were not hurt.

There were plenty of cars soon on the scene and the Wulfman family were taken to Jackson.
