MICHIGAN RED CROSS GETS SIGNAL HONOR

State Organization Made Separate Unit By National Officers

Unusual Strength of Organization, New at work, commands attention, at U. S. conference.

Detroit (special)—Michigan has been paid a signal compliment by the national officers of the American Red Cross. During the recent reorganization, which was country wide and in which the several states were grouped into divisions, Michigan, in recognition of the unusual strength of its organization, was left intact as an individual unit.

Michigan was the first state in the Union to complete an organization in every county. The organization is particularly symmetrical in that there is but one chapter in each county, although there may be, and are, numerous branches of the county chapters. This gives an efficient working body which demonstrated its force during the War Fund drive last summer when the state exceeded its quota by more than a million dollars, and is every day proving its effectiveness through the wonderfully faithful pains taking and loyal work of its thousands of women workers.

Literally tons of knitted goods, hospital garments and surgical dressings have been produced and forwarded to our soldiers and sailors.

State headquarters in this city have been established in the new home of the state board in the Northern Assurance building, 110 Fort street West, and all state and bureau officials are installed and busy at work. Every detail making for speedy and efficient handling of the numerous features of the state committee's business has been worked out to a nicety.

The state officers who have their desks grouped about the great central headquarters room are, Sidney T. Miller, chairman; Mark T. McKee, vice chairman; Mrs. R. H. Ashbaugh, director of bureau of woman's work; Mrs. L. E. Gretter, director of bureau of nursing; Tracy W. McGregor, director of bureau of civilian relief; Daniel L. Quirk, jr., director of bureau of military relief; Paul H. King, director of bureau of publicity; and Henry K. Jones, headquarters secretary.

"UP TO YOU" SAYS EMPEY

Arthur Guy Empey, American boy who went into the British army after the Lusitania disaster, who served two years, who came back to write that great book "Over the Top," says in America's greatest newspaper, the

"Then," he went on, with a change of tone, and with admiration in his voice that showed how he felt before he had got to the end of his sentence, "there is the Y. M. C. A. You people in America ought to do everything you can to help the Y. M. C. A. It is the real home of the American soldier in France. It can't give him his loved ones, but it gives him the comforts and interests and pleasures of home. It brings home to him there in the mud of the trenches. And those Association men aren't drawing any wonderful salaries, either; they are volunteers, and they are in the midst of the mud and the firing, as the soldiers are, to make the soldier comfortable and help him maintain the religion and the manliness that he had when he went into the war. The Y. M. C. A. doesn't make any distinction in any way—Protestant, Catholic, Jew, atheist, every one is welcome.

"Show me the soldier who makes a disparaging remark about the Y. M. C. A. or its work, and I'll show you a soldier who is a detriment to the army, who is constantly in trouble, and who has lost the respect of officers and mates. It's up to you people here at home to help the Y. M. C. A."

Have you done your bit?

Electric Fan That Makes No Wind Among New Inventions

An interesting development of the electric fan is a series of blades formed on new lines. Instead of the propeller-shaped blade, the present device is composed of sheets of metal rolled in a cylindrical shape, one cylinder being within the other. The action of this fan when attached to a motor in the ceiling is to draw the air upward with a gentle draft, instead of blowing it violently downward from the upper part of the room. The inventor claims that this results in far more effective cooling, as the heated air is nearest the ceiling, while the cool air is near the floor. Hence to draw the cool air upward gives the best results. The action of the fan is so gentle that it does not tend to raise the dust from the floor, yet it effectively circulates the air and reduces the temperature in short order.

It has been tried out with success in restaurants and offices and is adapted to factories, halls and other places where perfect ventilation is required.—Scientific American.

A dollar given to the Red Cross makes you a member of the greatest charitable organization on the face of the earth—and buys a dollar's worth of aid and comfort for your son, your husband, your sweetheart or your friend who is "doing his bit" for humanity and democracy.

There will be a regular meeting of the O. E. S. Friday evening.

WHAT $100,000,000 HAS ACCOMPLISHED

Since the War Fund raised last June became available the Red Cross has sent commissions to France, Russia, Italy, Roumania and Salonica.

We are sending supplies to 3,423 French military hospitals. We serve 30,000 soldiers daily at our canteens in France. We are caring for thousands of French and Belgian children and refugees.

We have established ware houses in France with a capacity of 100,000 tons.

We have established a sanatorium with 1,000 beds for tuberculosis patients.

We are carrying on extensive relief work in Belgium.

We operate an ambulance service which transports 1,000 refugees a day.

We are carrying on repair work in devastated towns. We have sent 3,000,000 pounds of milk for Russian babies.

We have given $1,000,000 to the families of sick and wounded French soldiers.

We have given $1,000,000 to the British Red Cross.

And we have only just begun. Help to carry on the work by enrolling during the Christmas membership drive.

Newfoundland Aids England By Sending 10,000 Warriors

Newfoundland, though her population does not exceed that of a populous English industrial city, has sent 10,000 men to fight the battles of the British empire in this war, observes the Christian Science Monitor. It is a magnificent record, and exactly what one would have expected from a country which sent its fishing ships to help in the destruction of the great armada.

It was in 1533 that Sir Humphrey Gilbert took possession of the island in the name of his "most gracious lady, Queen Elizabeth;" it was only five years later that La Felicissima Armada left Corunna for English waters, so that Newfoundland had an early opportunity of establishing a tradition for gallantry which Newfoundlanders are so splendidly vindicating in the present war.

The "Ancient and Loyal Colony" of Newfoundland is celebrating the four hundred and twentieth anniversary of her discovery, an occasion which is seized by the rest of the empire to wish her godspeed.

Popular Science

One and a quarter million women are stated to be engaged in men's places on the British railways.

India ink originally came from China, but now it is successfully made in this country of lamp black and glue.

An Australian scientist has invented a fluorescent microscope to be used with ultra-violet rays, which enables differences in matter not perceptible by ordinary light to be recognized.

A Harvard professor of chemistry is making experiment with lachrymogenic gas for use in the trenches. It causes copious weeping that renders accurate marksmanship impossible on the part of the enemy.

Counting a Billion.

We are beginning to speak of a billion of dollars as we used to speak of a million, says the Ladies' Home Journal. But do we really know what a billion dollars means? As an example, an expert counter of money in the treasury department at Washington can count 4,000 silver dollars in an hour. So working eight hours a day, he counts 32,000 silver dollars in a day. At that rate it takes him more than a month to count a million silver dollars—a little over 31 days, to be exact. Therefore, if he kept this up for ten years he would have counted 100 million dollars. Now, to get an idea of what a billion dollars means, in silver, it would take 102 years of steady work, eight hours a day, to count a billion dollars in silver.

ANOTHER YEAR

Another year is now starting. At midnight I heard the bells ring.

Oh, what will the new year bring? Shadow and then some sunshine.

Year after year always last, sorrow and pain and pleasure—just as the year that's past.

None can foretell the future, it's hidden beyond our gaze; but most of the year that's coming will be made of commonplace days.

Morning and noon and evening filled up with little things, days of rest and idleness, these are what each year brings.

Go on then into the future, with never a thought of fear; dreaming ahead that leads us to push for another year.

—Grace Buttery.

WHAT NEW YEAR'S SIGNIFIES

Time to Resume Another Journey of Life, Start Over With a Clean Slate.

The need of getting a consistent division of time into days and years, which correspond with the movements of the earth and sun is not sufficient explanation of the New Year's festival.

That need is wholly mechanical, mathematical, and servicable. The mood of New Year's is not mechanical, mathematical, or servicable. It is wholly one of abandon and heedlessness of the day at an end.

It is such because the day represents an accounting and a sponging of the slate. Life needs renewal.

It cannot lead away across unbroken and unmarked plains. It must have its definite steps, its prospects in the definite future.

The traveler must have in thought as he goes along the road a possibility of a comfortable ending of the day at an end.

We seek constantly a realization of completeness, of a beginning, a middle, and an end.

Life, which is formed, less must have form given it. It must have its stopping places, where we may rest.

—Theodore Roosevelt.

LESSON FOR DECEMBER 30

REVIEW—GOD'S REDEEMING LOVE.

LESSON TEXT—Read Psalms 136: 1-24. GOLDEN TEXT—With Jehovah there is no redemption—Ps. 136: 24.

The lessons of the past year are the only ones in the six years course which are divided between the Old and the New Testament; therefore, at the close of this year we will review only the last two quarters, emphasizing the fourth which has just been completed.

Like Moses on Mount Sinai, we will review the Jewish year of the monarchy and note the progress and development of the Jewish people. The Jewish race is the marvel of all times, a nation without a country, scattered and persecuted, chastised and driven from sea to sea, even slain in large numbers; yet possessed of a vitality which has caused them to endure through the centuries.

Their contribution to the civilization of the world has been immeasurable. There is no

FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT

Frank Maginn's Brother Killed and Other Toledo Friends Seriously Injured

Frank Maginn and family were having a merry Christmas, rejoicing especially over the fact that Ward, who was seriously ill is recovering, when a message came announcing the accidental death of Mr. Maginn's brother Tom of Toledo, and Frank took the first train for that city.

It appears that Mr. Maginn after dinner took three gentlemen friends, a lady and child in his car for a little ride. He drove to Sylvania and on returning lost control of his car which went over a 12-foot embankment, killing Tom instantly and seriously injuring the others. Ambulances went from the city and conveyed them to a hospital.

Mr. Maginn has been a frequent visitor of his brother here, has enjoyed many outings at his bungalow at Fay's lake and is quite well known by railroad men and other people about Norvell. He was a jolly fellow and easily made friends.
