WITH BIG GUNS ON COAST

Alvin Clark, Gives Insight to Life at Sandy Hook—Other of Our Boys in Same Camp.

Fort Hancock, N. J., May 8, 1918. Dear Friend: As I have to do no drilling today, I will try to tell you of our camp life at Fort Hancock. We are at one of the strongest coast forts in the country and are in a camp a little distance from the batteries and barracks. They call our camp Camp Low, for it is only about three feet above sea level.

There are seven companies of coast artillery here, which is about 900 men. We have been in camp since March 27th and have been quarantined in camp ever since, which has been the only bad feature about it. We have been at infantry drill since our arrival and the 14th of this month we go to work on the 12-inch guns, which I think will be more interesting than the infantry drill. For the past two weeks it has been rather hot here on Sandy Hook for there is plenty of sand, as the name indicates.

The three boys who left with me are all here in the same camp, LeRoy Marx in 21st Company and Wm. Chase and Webster Schill and myself in 22nd Company. We often get together and talk of the old home and have a laugh at things we used to do there and things we do here. Our camp is not dead even if it is under a quarantine. We have a field meet every two weeks on Saturday afternoon and at the last meet 20th Company won the meet by 11 points, which makes our company proud.

In the Liberty Loan our company led the rest by $900. It bought $2,700 worth of bonds, so we are trying to do our bit.

As it is getting time for retreat, I must stop writing and prepare to salute the colors as they are lowered. A word from any of the people in Manchester would be very much appreciated. My address is: Pvt. Alvin B. Clark, 20th Co. C. A. C., Fort Hancock, New Jersey.

The 44th annual meeting of the Michigan Pioneer and Historical Society will be held in the Senate Chamber, Lansing, beginning on May 27th at 2 p. m., and closing with the evening of May 29th. Ex-Governors Woodbridge N. Ferris and Chase S. Osborn will speak and Harold Jarvis will sing.

Farmers this year are from one to two weeks earlier with their work than they were last year.

SECOND RED CROSS FUND

Needs of Society at This Time—Drive to Start at Ann Arbor Next Tuesday, May 21.

The American Red Cross requires one hundred million dollars to carry on the work it has been attracted to do during the next six months in war-stricken Europe. The County of Washtenaw's share of this great fund is $30,000.

The campaign to secure this money by house to house canvass will be put on next week, May 20th to 27th, throughout the county.

The people who will be required to go out and collect these are must do so at the cost of their own time and energy.

Most patriotic people will consider it a pleasure to help their friends of the extra burden of raising money for their subscription.

It is therefore planned that persons who desire to volunteer their subscriptions may do so on May 21, 22 and 23 at school houses in each school district.

All who volunteer their subscriptions will be considered as having met the wishes of the War Preparedness Committee in full. A suitable badge has been prepared for such volunteers to wear during the days of the Red Cross drive and an attractive window card will be presented to each person making this voluntary subscription.

One-fourth of this subscription is payable July 1, August 1 and September 1 and the balance October 1. The Red Cross will be greatly obliged to those who are able to pay in full at once but partial payments are cheerfully accepted.

Persons in doubt as to their share of this responsibility may find the suggestion useful that we should try to give half of the total yearly sum of our subscriptions already made. For example, if one has subscribed $5 per month to the work, his contribution to this Second Red Cross War Fund might properly be $25 or $30.

If your previous contribution has been less than the above schedule, but according to your means and ability, do as you can. Do not let these larger figures but do the best you can, always remembering what the boys "over there" are sacrificing and doing for those at home.

THRIFT STAMP SALES

Washtenaw School Children Show Much Patriotism And Win Prize

County Commissioner of Schools Evan Essery was visiting the March and has laid $1,000 on the purchase of thrift and war savings stamps.

Recently he asked his teachers to sell their pupils and to stimulate teachers and pupils he offered a book for the library of the school in each township that sold the largest number of stamps. A merchant at Mr. Essery's suggestion also offered a book to the school in each township selling the next largest amount.

The plan of the contest is based on the enrollment, so that a large school has no advantage over a small one. The list of four townships given below shows the interest manifested. The number of districts in each township is given, followed by the number of the district, the name of the teacher and amount of thrift stamps sold:

Bridgewater, nine districts—3, Ethlyn Servis, $79.24; 6, Clifford B. Anderson, $11.75; 8, Alma Jedele, $2.9; 10, Lila, $2.5.

Freedom, nine districts—1, H. Ruth Spiegelberg, $12.95; 2, Mabel Geyer, $36.50; 3, F. Ruth Dettling, $7; 4, fr., Nellie Davenport, $5; 5, Mathilda Bihlmeyer, $10.50; 6, Blanch Lewick, $4.15; 7, Edith Scheid, $25; 8, Ruth Norcross, $7; 9, fr., Lila Miller, $1.

Manchester, nine districts—6 Helen Bliss, $12.45; 7, Ruth Bowins, $50; 8, Frances Kirk, $5.62; 9, Alta Grossman, $17.39. Sharon, eight districts—1, Mathilda Haarer, $70.55; 2, Elizabeth Face, $1; 3, Maybelle Hoelzer, $8.25; 4, fr., Lila Schoenhals, $29.50; 6, Olive Townsend, $53.75; 7, fr., Mabel Washburne, $11.50; 8, Clara Holden, $34; 9, Erma Dresselhouse, $5.75.

ALL OVER THE TOP

Large and Enthusiastic Jubilee Held At Ann Arbor Last Thursday Evening.

Washtenaw went more than a quarter of a million of dollars over the quota in its purchase of Liberty bonds.

A jubilee banquet was held at the Y. M. C. A. in Ann Arbor last Thursday night at which nearly 300 people participated. Manchester was the only district not represented and it is said that there was considerable disappointment because of it.

Manchester, over-subscribed, but the workers for the loan were otherwise engaged Thursday evening and could not go to Ann Arbor, though Chelsea, Dexter, Saline, Milan and all other sections sent large delegations.

The quota for Washtenaw was $1,522,295, the total subscriptions were $1,823,550. Following are the figures:

	Quota	Subscribed
Ann Arbor	$868,295	$1,092,600
Ypsilanti	285,000	293,950
Chelsea	148,650	153,750
Dexter	40,000	52,600
Milan	46,600	71,700
Manchester	66,650	81,200
Saline	63,150	122,200
Whitmore Lk.	16,050	23,050
Salem	18,950	23,050

The boys over there in the trenches are no doubt cheered by the news that the folks at home went over the top in buying bonds.

SEES YOUNG MAN'S DUTY

Former Manchester Boy Has Confidence in His Fellows And Ultimate Victory for Us.

The following lines are from Pvt. Oscar Pfeifle of Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pfeifle, formerly of this village. Mrs. William Hartbeck is his aunt. In another letter Oscar expresses the belief that if those Americans who are constantly criticizing and think the army forces are not doing enough could see what the powder division is doing they would be convinced that a great deal is being accomplished.—Ed.

Edgewood, Md., May 6, 1918. Dear Aunt: Just a few lines to let you know I am still alive, well and happy, and hope that you are all the same. As I could not begin to tell you all the good things about this place, and furthermore we are not allowed to, I am just going to give you my idea of this war. I think without a doubt we will win the war, as it is in every American boy. If you ask him to die for money he refuses, but he will die for his country without the asking, and I would say to every boy for his own benefit as well as doing his bit for his country, to enlist. It may take a little time to win this great war, but after the war the only army that Germany will need is the Salvation Army.

Give my best to all my relatives and friends and tell them to drop me a few lines. I hope that you will answer this letter in the near future. Your nephew,
Oscar Pfeifle,

RED CROSS NEWS

William Kuebler has been outfitted by the local society.

A. J. Waters took a large quantity of goods to headquarters Wednesday morning.

New members this week are: Mrs. Anton Vogt, Mrs. Nettie Lowery, Mrs. Jesse Warner.

Clair Blythe was given an outfit before going to Ann Arbor Monday, en route to Georgia. Emanuel Wolf was also given an outfit.

The Red Cross ladies are urging people to drive to Ann Arbor next Tuesday to take part in the parade that afternoon at 3 o'clock. If autos can be decorated it will add much to the attraction.

The Spaford school under the guidance of the teacher, Mrs. Ahrens has taken up Red Cross work and has sent in some quilts the children pieced, also a quantity of gun wipers and other articles.

The officers received a letter from headquarters stating that the work sent from Manchester is always first-class, and complimenting and thanking the loyal and patriotic women here for the pains they take in preparing articles for the soldiers and hospital use.

The Tecumseh Concert Club, which has been giving concerts in many of the cities and villages as far away as Coldwater, has arranged to come to Manchester next Thursday evening and give one of their popular concert. Arbeiter hall has been engaged and as there is no admission, but each person is expected to contribute for the benefit of the Red Cross, we have little doubt but that the hall will be packed and a generous contribution given. One-half of the proceeds go to the Manchester Red Cross and the other half to the Tecumseh Red Cross. All singers contribute their services, the autos to bring them are contributed and we may say the whole proceeds will be for war purposes. The program will be interesting, as they have some excellent singers and musicians in the company.

The question has been asked: "What becomes of all money raised for the Red Cross?" The following will show what appropriations had been made by the American Red Cross to March, 1918, in all countries:
